

Archon Gregory E. McDaniel

Archon Gregory McDaniel is presently co-owner of a Restaurant and Realty group which own the exclusive rights to operate Steak n Shake restaurants in the Colorado Springs, CO. area. He is also an executive affiliate of Hamilton Robinson Capital Partners of Stamford, CT., and an independent consultant in the global chemical and agriculture sectors.

Archon McDaniel began his career with the Dow Chemical Company and worked in several of its subsidiaries and was instrumental in forming and leading several of its global joint ventures until he retired in 2004 as a Vice-President of the Thermosets Business.

Archon McDaniel joined Chemtura Corporation in 2004, as an Executive Vice-President and was later named President and General Manager of Chemtura AgroSolutions before retiring in 2011.

Before his retirement in 2009, Archon McDaniel was named one of the Most Powerful Executives in Corporate America by Black Enterprise magazine.

Past Company Board Activities

Megtec Holdings/Director, Davis-Standard, LLC./Director, Diachem, LLC./Director, Dow Bio-Products/Chair.

Education

Archon McDaniel is a native of North Carolina and, he graduated from Hampton University, in Hampton, VA., with a Liberal Arts Degree, and the Babson School of Executive Education in Wellesley, MASS.

Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity

Archon McDaniel was inducted into Gamma Xi Boule in 2013. He chairs the Gamma Xi Social Action Committee and youth development programs, and is a member of the board of directors of the Gamma Xi Boule Foundation.

Professional and Community Activities

Archon McDaniel has a history of strong community involvement including board positions on; the Michigan 4-H Foundation, the Indianapolis YMCA, Treasurer- Indianapolis United Way, Indianapolis Urban League, Indianapolis Mayor's Private Industry Council, a founding member of the US Tennis Assoc.'s Minority Participation Committee, and President- Northeastern Michigan Tennis Association.

Archon McDaniel and his Archousa Hannah have two sons and five grandchildren. They reside in University Park, FL.