

Archon Myron F. Robinson

Archon Myron F. Robinson is a retired Urban League President & CEO with over 37 years of experience in various Urban League affiliates. After retiring from the Urban League of Cleveland in 2007, he became an Executive-In-Residence at the School of Urban Affairs at Cleveland State University. Archon Robinson's multifaceted volunteer career includes service on numerous boards including the John Carroll University, Key Bank, University Hospital, and State of Ohio's Governor's Workforce Policy Board, among others. Prior to the Urban League, Archon Robinson was a Marketing & Senior Sales Executive for AT&T and Southern New England Telephone Company. Archon Robinson is currently a consultant to the LECOM School of Dental Medicine in Lakewood Ranch, FL.

Education

Archon Robinson received his Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology from Youngstown University. He did graduate studies at the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Wisconsin. Archon Robinson completed the National Urban League Executive Development Program at Harvard University.

Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity

Archon Robinson was inducted into Tau Boulé of Cleveland, OH in 1996 and transferred to Gamma Xi Boulé in Sarasota, FL in 2009. He serves on its Executive Committee as the Chair of the Public Policy Committee and the Board of Directors of Gamma Xi Boule Foundation.

Professional and Community Activities

Archon Robinson Chairs the Board of Trustees of Doctor's Hospital in Sarasota, FL., a 155-bed acute care facility serving the healthcare needs of Sarasota County residents with an advanced Primary Stroke Center and Chest Pain Center. Archon Robinson also serves on the Board of Directors for Manatee County Library Systems, and is Vice-Moderator for First Congregational United Church of Christ in Sarasota. He is a lifetime member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

Archon Robinson is married to Archousa Brenda and they have two children and four grandchildren. They reside in Lakewood Ranch, Florida.