20. SALE OR LEASE

The Association shall have the option to purchase any Unit upon the same terms and conditions as are offered by the Unit Owner to any third person. Prior to the sale or transfer of any Unit to any person other than the transferor's spouse or member of his immediate family or wholly owned corporation, the Unit Owner shall notify the Association in writing of the name and address of the person to whom the proposed sale or transfer is to be made, the terms and conditions thereof together with a copy of the agreement for such sale or transfer and such other information as may reasonably be required by the Association. Failure to do so shall be deemed a breach hereof, and any sale or transfer in contravention of this Article shall be null and void and confer no right, title or interest to the intended purchaser or transferee. If the proposed sale is bona fide and the Association exercises its option with respect to same, the Association shall, within ten (10) days after its receipt of said notice and such supplemental information as it may reasonably require, deliver to the Unit Owner the deposit required under the terms of such agreement and shall then be obligated to close the sale of the Unit in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof. The Association may designate a third party to exercise this option as well. Failure of the Association to exercise the said option shall be stated in a certificate executed by the Association, which shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, by and at the expense of the proposed purchaser or transferee.

Units may shall not be leased after one year of ownership, and no leases or rentals after the effective date of this provision shall be permitted. Any occupancy in the absence of the Owner or Owner's spouse, by any one other than the Owner's or Owner's spouse's children, siblings, parents or grandparents, in excess of thirty (30) consecutive days, shall be treated as a lease in violation of this provision, regardless of whether there is an exchange or consideration for the use of the unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Association shall have the option to lease or rent units owned by it in order to defray expenses associated with ownership of the unit. No lease shall be for a period of less than twelve (12) months, and the proposed lessees shall consist of not more than two (2) persons per bedroom in the unit to be leased. Subleases of Units are prohibited. Notwithstanding the lease of his Unit, the liability of the Unit Owner under this Declaration shall continue. All written notices to lease shall be accompanied by a copy of the lease and Addendum, a screening fee, and security deposit in the highest amounts permitted by law and such information as the Board may reasonably require. The Association has the right to require that a substantially uniform form of lease be used. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not be applicable to the Association. Notwithstanding anything herein or any rule or regulation of the Association to the contrary, the Association shall be irrevocably empowered without any limitation at all times, whether for permanent or temporary occupancy, to sell, lease, rent or transfer Units owned by the Association, for any period and under any terms to any lessees, purchasers or transferees without the consent of any person including the Association being required.

(1) Approval for Sales and Leases of Units. No sale, lease or conveyance of a Unit or of any interest therein shall be valid unless the sale, lease or conveyance receives the prior written approval of the Association.

The Association will not disapprove a conveyance which is not a sale, such as adding a spouse to the deed, or conveying to the owner's trust or children, without good cause. The Association will be entitled to request and receive full information to review whether a proposed conveyance is a sale.

All applicants must submit the Association's form application for approval, whether sale, conveyance or lease, which shall be accompanied by a screening fee and security deposit to the Association as the Association may set from time to time.

(2) "Good Cause" Disapprovals. Disapproval will be considered for "good cause" if based on any of the following:

a. The application and information submitted for approval on its face, or subsequent investigation thereof, indicates that the intended transfer or intended occupancy would violate any of the covenants and restrictions applicable to the unit or indicates that the person seeking approval intends to conduct himself in a manner inconsistent with the covenants and restrictions applicable to the unit.

b. The person seeking approval has been convicted of a felony of any kind or a misdemeanor involving physical threats, battery or lewd and lascivious behavior or the sale or use of illegal substances or prostitution.

c. The person seeking approval has a record of financial irresponsibility including without limitation, prior bankruptcies, foreclosures, untimely payments or bad debts, or has a current income insufficient to meet his or her fiscal responsibilities as a unit owner as reasonably determined by the Association Board of Directors.

d. The person seeking approval takes possession or occupies the premises prior to approval by the Association Board of Directors as provided herein.

e. The person seeking approval has a history of disruptive behavior, disregard for the rights and property of others or disrespect for this or another Association's Board of Directors "Rules and Regulations" as evidenced by his/her conduct in any social organizations or associations or in this association as tenant, unit owner or occupant.

f. The person seeking approval failed to provide the information, fees or appearances required by the Association Board to process the application in a timely, adequate manner as determined by the Board.

g. The unit owner requesting the approval has had fines assessed against him/her that have not been paid.

h. All assessments and other charges against the unit have not been paid in full.

i. The designated "primary occupant" demonstrates to the Association Board the physical or mental incapability to care for him or herself and cannot demonstrate to the Association Board the willingness or ability that he or she can have such care provided otherwise.

OR

i. The person seeking approval is putting less than 10% of the purchase price down in cash as part of the initial purchase.

If the Association Board of Directors disapproves a prospective transfer on the grounds for disapproval set forth in (a) through (i) above entitled "good cause", the Association Board shall have no duty to purchase the unit or to furnish an alternate purchaser, and the transaction shall not be made or the occupant not authorized to occupy the unit. The Association Board of Directors shall take any legal action necessary to enforce and support its position on these matters at the expense of the unit owner, including attorneys' fees. The expense, including attorneys' fees, will become a special assessment against the unit.

(3) Unauthorized Mortgages, Transfers of Ownership or Occupancy:
Any sale, lease, mortgage or other transfer of ownership, possession or occupancy not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Declaration shall be voidable unless subsequently approved by the Association Board of Directors. The Association shall take whatever legal steps necessary to enforce the terms of this Declaration, including but not limited to eviction, forced sale and fines against the unit owner(s).

Unless specifically waived by the Association, the Assessments shall include monies required for the payment of hazard and liability insurance premiums. The annual Assessment shall initially be payable in advance, quarterly, on the first day of each such quarter; however, the Board of Administration shall have the power to establish other collection procedures. In addition, the Association shall have the power to levy special assessments against Units in their respective percentages if a deficit should develop in the payment of Common Expenses during any period that the level of Assessments has not been guaranteed by the Developer. The Board of Administration of the Association may, but shall not be required to, include sums to establish reasonable reserves against future contingencies in each annual Assessment.

B. A Unit Owner, regardless of the manner in which he acquired title to his unit including, without limitation, a purchaser at a judicial sale, shall be liable for all Assessments while he is the owner of a Unit. In a voluntary conveyance of a Unit, the grantee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid Assessments against the latter for his share of the Common Expenses up to the time of such voluntary conveyance. The liability for Assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any Common Elements, services or recreation facilities, or by abandonment of the Unit against which the Assessment was made.

C. Assessments and installments thereof not paid when due shall bear interest from the due date until paid at the maximum rate allowed under Florida law.

D. The Association shall have a lien upon each Condominium Parcel to secure the personal obligation of each Unit Owner thereof for any unpaid Assessment and interest thereon. Such lien shall also secure reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the Association incident to the collection of such Assessment or enforcement of such lien. The lien shall be evidenced by a claim recorded among the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, in the manner provided by the Condominium Act, and shall be effective from and as of the time of such recording, but such lien shall be subordinate to the lien of any Mortgagee. The Board of Administration may take such action as it deems necessary to collect Assessments by either an in personam action or lien foreclosure, or both, and may settle and compromise the same if in the best interest of the Association. Said liens shall have the priorities established by the Condominium Act.

E. Liens for Assessments may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the Association in like manner as a foreclosure of a mortgage on real property. In any such foreclosure, the court, in its discretion, may require the Unit Owner to pay a reasonable rental for the Condominium Parcel and the court may appoint a receiver to collect the Assessments which are the subject of said proceeding. The Association may bid in the Condominium Parcel at foreclosure sale and apply as a cash credit against its bid all sums due the Association secured by the lien being enforced, and the Association may acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey any Condominium Parcel so acquired.

F. If the holder of a mortgage of record or other purchaser of a Unit obtains title to the Condominium Parcel as a result of foreclosure of said first mortgage, or accepts a deed to said Condominium Parcel in lieu of foreclosure, such acquirer of title, his successors and assigns, shall not be liable for the share of Common Expenses or Assessments by the Association pertaining to such Condominium Parcel or chargeable to the former Unit Owner which became due prior to acquisition of title as a result of the foreclosure, except for any portion thereof secured by a claim of lien for Assessments that was recorded prior to a recording of the foreclosed mortgage. Any such unpaid share of Common Expenses or Assessments shall be deemed to be a Common Expense, collectible from all Unit Owners, including such acquirer, his successors and assigns. A mortgagee or other purchaser acquiring title to a Condominium Parcel as a result of foreclosure or a deed in lieu of foreclosure may not, during the period of its ownership of such Parcel, whether or not such parcel is unoccupied, be excused from the payment of some or all of the Common Expenses coming due during the period of such ownership.

G. Any person who acquires an interest in a Unit except as specifically provided in the preceding subparagraph shall not be entitled to occupancy of the Unit or enjoyment of the Common Elements until such time as all unpaid Assessments due and owing from the former owner have been paid.

H. The Association, acting by and through its Board of Administration, shall have the right to assign its claim for any unpaid Assessments and the lien securing said claim to the Developer or to any Unit Owner, group of Unit Owners or any third party.

I. Nothing contained herein shall abridge or limit the rights or responsibilities of Mortgagees as set forth in the Condominium Act.

J. Except as provided in subparagraph F above and in this subparagraph, no Unit Owner other than the Developer as expressed below may be excused from the payment of his proportionate share of Common Expenses unless all Unit Owners are likewise proportionately excused from such payment. In accordance with the provisions of section 718.116 of the Condominium Act, the Developer shall be excused from the payment of annual assessments until such period of time as Developer shall cease to control the Association or a period of 12 months following recordation of this Declaration, whichever event occurs first ("Guaranty Period") since, during the Guaranty Period, the Developer guarantees that annual assessments shall not increase over the amounts set forth in the Estimated Operation Budget of the Condominium for the first year of operation. During the Guaranty Period, the Developer shall contribute an amount of money to the Association sufficient to eliminate any deficit between assessments collectible from Owners and the actual expenses of the Association.

14. TERMINATION OF CONDOMINIUM.

A. If all Unit Owners and the holders of all liens and mortgages upon all of the Condominium Parcels execute and duly record an instrument terminating the Condominium Property, or if "major damage" occurs as defined hereinafter and subject to Article 23, subparagraph A(2)(b) below, the Condominium Property shall be removed from the provisions of the Condominium Act and thereafter owned in common by the Unit Owners. The undivided interest in the Property owned in common by each Unit Owner shall then be the percentage of the undivided interest previously owned by such Owner in the Common Elements, and any liens which encumbered any Condominium Parcel shall be transferred to said undivided interest of the Unit Owner in the Property.

B. If the Owners of at least 85% of the Common Elements elect to terminate, they shall have the option to buy the Units of the other Unit Owners for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of the meeting wherein the election to terminate was taken. The purchase price shall be the fair market value of the Units as of the date of said meeting as determined by arbitration under the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The price shall be paid in cash within thirty (30) days of the determination of the same.

15. EQUITABLE RELIEF.

In the event of "major damage" to or destruction of all or a substantial part of the Condominium Property and if the Property is not repaired, reconstructed or rebuilt within a reasonable period of time, any Unit Owner shall have the right to petition a court of competent jurisdiction for equitable relief which may, but need not, include termination of the Condominium and partition.

16. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

A. The liability of each Unit Owner for Common Expenses shall be limited to the amounts assessed against him from time to time in accordance with the Condominium Act, this Declaration, the Articles and the By-Laws.

B. A Unit Owner may be personally liable for any damages caused by the Association in connection with the use of the Common Elements, but only to the extent of his pro rata share of that liability in the same percentage as his interest in the Common Elements and in no event shall said liability exceed the value of his Unit. Each Unit Owner shall be liable for injuries or damages resulting from an accident in his own Unit to the same extent and degree that the owner of a house or any other property owner would be liable for such an occurrence.

C. In any legal action in which the Association may be exposed to liability in excess of insurance coverage protecting it and the Unit Owners, the Association shall give notice of the exposure within a reasonable time to all Unit Owners, and they shall have a right to intervene and defend.

17. LIENS.

A. With the exception of liens which may result from the initial construction of this Condominium or provided for in this Article, no liens of any nature shall arise or be created subsequent to the recording of this Declaration against the Condominium Property (as distinguished from individual Units) without the unanimous consent of the Unit Owners.

B. Unless a Unit Owner has expressly requested or consented to work being performed or materials being furnished to his Unit, such labor or materials may not be the basis for the filing of a lien against same. No labor performed or materials furnished to the Common Elements shall be the basis for a lien thereon unless authorized by the Association, in which event, the same may be the basis for the filing of a lien against all Condominium Parcels in the proportions for which the Owners thereof are liable for Common Expenses.

C. In the event a lien against two or more Condominium Parcels becomes effective, each owner thereof may release his Condominium Parcel from the lien by paying the proportionate amount attributable to his Condominium Parcel. Upon such payment, it shall be the duty of the lienor to release the lien of record from such Condominium Parcel.

18. REMEDIES FOR VIOLATION.

Each Unit Owner, his family, invitees and tenants, shall be governed by and conform to this Declaration, the Articles, the By-Laws and the rules and regulations of the Association. Failure to do so shall entitle the Association or any other Unit Owner to recover damages or obtain injunctive relief or both, but such relief shall not be exclusive of other remedies provided by law.

19. EASEMENTS.

A. Owners of Units shall have, as an appurtenance to their Units, a perpetual easement for ingress and egress to and from their Units over and upon stairs, elevators, terraces, balconies, walks and other Common Elements intended for such purposes.

B. The Condominium Property shall be subject to perpetual easements for encroachments presently existing or which may hereafter be caused by settlement or movement of the Condominium Building or minor inaccuracies in construction, which easements shall continue until such encroachments no longer exist. If the Condominium Property is destroyed and then rebuilt, encroachments due to construction shall be permitted and a valid easement for said encroachments shall exist. If any portion of the Common Elements encroaches upon any Unit, or any Unit encroaches upon the Common Elements, as a result of the construction, reconstruction, repair, shifting, settlement or movement of any portion of the improvements contained in the Condominium Property, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of the same shall exist so long as the encroachment exists.

C. The Condominium Property shall be subject to such easements for utilities as may be determined by the Developer or required to properly and adequately serve the Condominium Property as it exists from time to time. Each of said easements, whether heretofore or hereafter created, shall constitute covenants running with the land of the Condominium and, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Declaration, may not be substantially amended or revoked in such a way as to unreasonably interfere with its proper and intended use and purpose and shall survive the termination of the Condominium. To the extent that the creation of any such utility easements require the joinder of Unit Owners, the Developer by its duly authorized officers may, as the agent or the attorney-in-fact for the Unit Owners, execute, acknowledge and deliver such instruments and the Unit Owners, by the acceptance of deeds to their Units, irrevocably nominate, constitute and appoint the Developer, through its duly authorized officers, as their proper and legal attorneys-in-fact for such purpose. Said appointment is coupled with an interest and is therefore irrevocable. Any such instrument executed pursuant to this Article shall recite that it is made pursuant to this Article.

D. The Developer hereby reserves unto itself an easement over the Condominium Property exclusive of any Units not owned by it for any activity that Developer determines in its sole discretion to be necessary to consummate the sale, lease or rental of any Unit including, but not limited to, the right to maintain models, post signs, use employees in the models or permit use of the Common Elements for marketing purposes. Further, such activities are hereby expressly authorized and permitted.

E. An easement shall exist for pedestrian traffic over, through and across sidewalks, paths and walks and for vehicular and pedestrian traffic over, through and across such portions of the Common Elements as may from time to time be paved and intended for such purposes. Such easements shall be for the use and benefit of the members of the Association and the Township Community Master Association, Inc., as well as the invitees of such members; provided, however, nothing herein shall be construed to give or create in any person the right to park upon any portion of the Condominium Property except to the extent that space may be specifically designated and assigned for parking purposes.

F. Developer hereby grants to Association, for the use and benefit of the Unit Owners, a temporary and non-exclusive easement for parking, ingress and egress over the lands described in Exhibit "E" attached hereto (the "Easement Property"). Developer reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to modify, enlarge, diminish, terminate or relocate the rights granted by this paragraph so long as Developer provides Association and its members with access from the Condominium to a dedicated right-of-way. This easement shall automatically be deemed modified or terminated, as the case may be, at any time that Developer shall (i) submit any portion of the Easement Property to the condominium form of ownership, or (ii) convey any portion of the Easement Property. Said non-exclusive easement shall be deemed to be Common Elements of the Condominium.

20. SALE OR LEASE.

Until such time as the Developer has relinquished control of the Association, the Developer shall have the option to purchase any Unit upon the same terms and conditions as are offered by the Unit Owner to any third person. Prior to the sale or transfer of any Unit to any person other than the transferor's spouse or member of his immediate family or wholly owned corporation, the Unit Owner shall notify the Developer in writing of the name and address of the person to whom the proposed sale or transfer is to be made, the terms and conditions thereof together with a copy of the agreement for such sale or transfer and such other information as may reasonably be required by the Developer. Failure to do so shall be deemed a breach hereof, and any sale or transfer in contravention of this Article shall be null and void and confer no right, title or interest to the intended purchaser or transferee. If the proposed sale is bona fide and the Developer exercises its option with respect to same, the Developer shall, within ten (10) days after its receipt of said notice and such supplemental information as it may reasonably require, deliver to the Unit Owner the deposit required under the terms of such agreement and shall then be obligated to close the sale of the Unit in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof. Failure of the Developer to exercise the said option shall be stated in a certificate executed by the Developer, which shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, by and at the expense of the proposed purchaser or transferee. Units shall not be leased without the prior written approval of the Association. The Association has the right to require that a substantially uniform form of lease be used. No lease shall be for a period of less than six (6) months, and the proposed lessees shall consist of not more than two (2) persons per bedroom in the Unit to be leased. Subleases of Units are prohibited. Units shall not be leased more than once in any six (6) month period. Notwithstanding the lease of his Unit, the liability of the Unit Owner under this Declaration shall continue. The Association must either approve or disapprove a lease within ten (10) days after its receipt of a request for such approval, which request shall be accompanied by such information as the Board may reasonably require. If approved, a recordable Certificate of Approval shall be executed by the Association at the expense of the lessee. If the Association fails to give the Unit Owner written notice of its approval or disapproval of the proposed lease, the proposed lease shall be deemed approved. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not be applicable to the Developer. Notwithstanding anything herein or any rule or regulation of the Association to the contrary, the Developer as well as any person approved in writing by the Developer shall be irrevocably empowered without any limitation at all times, whether for permanent or temporary occupancy, to sell, lease, rent or transfer Units owned by the Developer or such person, as the case may be, for any period and under any terms to any lessees, purchasers or transferees without the consent of any person including the Association being required. The provisions of this paragraph may not be amended without consent of the Developer.

21. ENFORCEMENT OF MAINTENANCE.

In the event that a Unit Owner fails to maintain his Unit as required herein or otherwise violates the provisions hereof, the Association shall have the right to assess the Unit Owner and the Unit for the sums necessary to restore the Unit to good condition, to collect such Assessment and have a lien for same as is otherwise provided herein. The Association shall have the right, before or after any such Assessment, to have its employees or agents enter the Unit and do the work necessary to enforce compliance with the above provisions. Unit Owners may also be individually assessed for any damage to the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements which may be caused by such Owners, their family, lessees or guests.

22. INSURANCE.

A. Purchase of Insurance. The Association shall obtain fire and extended coverage insurance, vandalism and malicious mischief insurance insuring all of the insurable improvements within the Common Elements together with such other insurance as the Association deems necessary in a company with an "A+10" rating or better in an amount which shall be equal to the maximum insurable replacement value as determined annually. The premiums for such coverage and other expenses in connection with said insurance shall be assessed against the Unit Owners as part of the Common Expenses. The named insured shall be the Association, individually and as agent for the Unit Owners, without naming them, and as agent for their Mortgagees.

(1) Provision shall be made for the issuance of Mortgagee endorsements and memoranda of insurance to Mortgagees. Such policies shall provide that payments for losses thereunder by the insurer shall be made to the Insurance Trustee hereinafter described, and all policies and endorsements thereon shall be deposited with the Insurance Trustee.

(2) For purposes of this and the following Article, all buildings constituting the Condominium, as described in Exhibits "A" and "B" attached hereto, shall collectively be deemed one Building and shall include any additional buildings as a part thereof which may hereafter become a part of this Condominium.

B. Coverage.

(1) Casualty. All buildings and improvements upon the Property described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto shall be insured in an amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, and all personal property included in the Common Elements shall be insured for its maximum insurable replacement value, said value to be determined annually by the Board of Administration. Such coverage shall afford protection against:

(a) Loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement; and

(b) Such other risks as from time to time shall customarily be covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use as the buildings described in this subparagraph B including, but not limited to, vandalism and malicious mischief.

(2) Public liability in such amounts and with such coverage as shall be required by the Board of Administration, including, but not limited to, hired automobile and nonowned automobile coverages, including a cross liability endorsement to cover liabilities of the Unit Owners as a group to a Unit Owner.

(3) Worker's compensation insurance meeting all the requirements of the laws of Florida.

(4) Directors and officers liability insurance, if available.

(5) Such other insurance as the Board of Administration shall determine from time to time to be desirable including without limitation such insurance as may be required by any agency of the United States government which holds a first mortgage encumbering a Unit or insures to the holder thereof the payment of the same.

C. Premiums. Premiums upon insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be assessed by the Association against the Unit Owners as part of the Common Expenses.

D. Insurance Trustee; Shares of Proceeds. All insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association, the Unit Owners and their Mortgagees, as their interests may appear, and shall provide that all proceeds covering property losses shall be paid to an Insurance Trustee which shall be designated by the Board of Administration. The Insurance Trustee shall not be liable for payment of premiums, the renewal or the sufficiency of policies or the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The duty of the Insurance Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and to hold the same in trust for the purposes stated herein and for the benefit of the Unit Owners and their Mortgagees in the following shares, which shares need not be set forth on the records of the Insurance Trustee:

(1) Common Elements. Proceeds on account of damage to Common Elements - an undivided share for each Unit Owner, such share being the same as the undivided share in the Common Element appurtenant to his Unit.

OFF

(2) Units. Proceeds on account of damage to Units shall be held in the following undivided shares:

(a) When the Condominium Building is to be restored, for the owners of damaged Units in proportion to the cost of repairing the damage suffered by each Unit Owner, which cost shall be determined by the Association.

(b) When the Condominium Building is not to be restored, an undivided share for each Unit Owner, such share being the same as the undivided share in the Common Elements appurtenant to his Unit.

(3) Mortgages. In the event a Mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to a Unit, the share of that Unit Owner shall be held in trust for the Mortgagee and the Unit Owner, as their interests may appear; provided, however, that no Mortgagee shall have any right to determine or participate in the determination as to whether or not any damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, and no Mortgagee shall have any right to apply or have applied to the reduction of a mortgage debt any insurance proceeds except those proceeds paid to the Unit Owner and Mortgagee pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration.

E. Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Insurance Trustee shall be distributed in the following manner:

(1) Expense of the Trustee. All expenses of the Insurance Trustee shall be paid first or provision made therefor.

(2) Reconstruction or repair. If the damage for which the proceeds are paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the remaining proceeds shall be paid to defray the cost thereof as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such costs shall be distributed to the beneficial owners thereof, remittances to Unit Owners and their Mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any Mortgagee of any Unit and may be enforced by such Mortgagee.

(3) Failure to reconstruct or repair. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the damage for which the proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the remaining proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial owners thereof, remittance to Unit Owners and their Mortgagee being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any Mortgagee of any Unit and may be enforced by such Mortgagee.

(4) Certificate. In making distributions to Unit Owners and their Mortgagees, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association, executed by its President or Vice President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary, as to the names of the Unit Owners and their respective shares of the distribution.

F. Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed agent for each Unit Owner, for each holder of a mortgage or other lien upon a Unit and for each owner of any other interest in the Condominium Property with power to adjust all claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association and to execute and deliver releases upon the payment of claims.

G. Unit Owner's Obligation. Each Unit Owner shall have the obligation to purchase public liability insurance to protect himself against claims due to accidents within his Unit, and casualty insurance on the contents within said Unit. In addition, he should review the coverage of the Association to determine any additional insurance that may be advisable for him to purchase.

23. RECONSTRUCTION OR REPAIR AFTER CASUALTY.

A. Determination to Reconstruct or Repair. If any part of the Condominium Property is damaged by casualty, whether it shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) Common Element. If the damaged improvement is a Common Element, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired unless it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall be terminated.

(2) Condominium Building:

(a) Lesser damage. If the damaged improvement is the Condominium Building, and if Units to which 50% or more of the Common Elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Administration to be tenantable, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired unless within 60 days after the casualty, it is determined by agreement in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall be terminated.

(b) Major damage. If the damaged improvement is the Condominium Building, and if Units to which more than 50% of the Common Elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Administration to be untenable, the damaged property shall neither be reconstructed nor repaired and the Condominium shall be terminated without agreement as elsewhere provided unless, within 60 days after the casualty, the owners of 85% of the Common Elements agree in writing to such reconstruction or repair.

(3) Certificate. The Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association executed by its President or Vice President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary in determining whether the damaged property is to be reconstructed or repaired.

B. Plans and Specifications. Any reconstruction or repair must be substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original Condominium Property; or, if not, then in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the Board of Administration and, if the damaged property is the Condominium Building, by the owners of not less than 75% of the Common Elements, including the owners of all damaged Units whose approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

C. Responsibility. If the damage is only to those portions of a Unit or Units for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the Unit Owner(s), then the Unit Owner(s) shall be responsible for reconstruction and repair after casualty. In all other instances, it shall be the Association's responsibility to reconstruct and repair after casualty.

D. Estimate of Costs. Immediately after a determination is made to rebuild or repair damage to property for which the Association has the responsibility for reconstruction and repair, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to rebuild or repair.

E. Assessments. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair by the Association, or if at any time during reconstruction and repair, or upon completion of reconstruction or repair, the funds for the payment of the costs thereof are insufficient, Assessments shall be made against the Unit Owners who own the damaged Units and against all Unit Owners in the case of damage to Common Elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs. Such Assessments against Unit Owners for damage to Units shall be in proportion to the cost of reconstruction and repair of their Units, and Assessments on account of damage to Common Elements shall be in proportion to the owners' share in the Common Elements.

F. Construction Funds. The funds for payment of costs of reconstruction and repair after casualty, which shall consist of insurance proceeds held by the Insurance Trustee and funds collected by the Association from Assessments against Unit Owners, shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the following manner:

(1) Association. If the total Assessments made by the Association in order to provide funds for the payment of costs of reconstruction and repair which is the responsibility of the Association exceed $5,000.00, the sums paid upon such Assessments shall be deposited by the Association with the Insurance Trustee. In all other cases, the Association shall hold the sums paid upon such Assessments and disburse the same in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair.

(2) Insurance Trustee. The proceeds of insurance collected on account of a casualty and the sums deposited with the Insurance Trustee by the Association from collections of Assessments against Unit Owners on account of such casualty shall constitute a construction fund which shall be disbursed in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair in the following manner and order:

(a) Association-Under $5,000.00. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair which is the responsibility of the Association is less than $5,000.00, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs upon the order of the Association; provided, however, that upon request to the Insurance Trustee by a Mortgagee which is a beneficiary of an insurance policy, the proceeds of which are included in the construction fund, such fund shall be disbursed in the manner hereafter provided for the reconstruction and repair of major damage.

(b) Association-Over $5,000.00. If the amount of estimated costs of reconstruction and repair which is the responsibility of the Association is $5,000.00 or more, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the manner required by the Board of Administration upon approval of an architect qualified to practice in Florida and employed by the Association to supervise the work.

(c) Unit Owner. The portion of insurance proceeds representing damage for which the responsibility of reconstruction and repair lies with a Unit Owner shall be paid by the Insurance Trustee to the Unit Owner and, if there is a Mortgagee endorsement as to such Unit, then to the Unit Owner and the Mortgagee jointly.

(d) Surplus. It shall be presumed that the first monies disbursed in payment of costs of reconstruction and repair shall be from insurance proceeds. If there is a balance in a construction fund after payment of all costs of reconstruction and repair for which the fund is established, such balance shall be distributed to the beneficial owners of the fund in the manner elsewhere stated; except, however, that the part of a distribution to a beneficial owner which represents Assessments paid by such owner into the construction fund shall not be made payable to any Mortgagee.

(e) Certificate. Notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Insurance Trustee shall not be required to determine whether or not sums paid by Unit Owners upon Assessments shall be deposited by the Association with the Insurance Trustee, whether the disbursements from the construction fund are to be upon the order of the Association or upon approval of an architect or otherwise, whether a disbursement is to be made from the construction fund, or whether surplus funds to be distributed are less than the assessments paid Owners. Instead, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association, executed by its President or Vice President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary, as to any or all of such matters stating that the sums to be paid are due and properly payable in the name of the designated payee and the amount to be paid; provided that when a Mortgagee is herein required to be named as payee, the Insurance Trustee shall also name the Mortgagee as payee of any distribution or insurance proceeds to a Unit Owner; and, further, provided that when the Association or a Mortgagee which is the beneficiary of an insurance policy the proceeds of which are included in the construction fund so requires the approval of an architect named by the Association shall be first obtained by the Association prior to disbursements in payment of costs of reconstruction and repair.

24. EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS REQUIRED BY GOVERNMENT.

The Developer's plan for the development of this Condominium may require from time to time the execution of certain documents required by the City of Coconut Creek, Broward County, Florida, or some other governmental agency having jurisdiction over this Condominium. To the extent that said documents require the joinder of Unit Owners, the Developer by its duly authorized officers may, as the agent or the attorney-in-fact for the Unit Owners, execute acknowledge and deliver such documents and the Unit Owners, by virtue of their acceptance of deeds to their Units, irrevocably nominate, constitute and appoint the Developer, through its duly authorized officers, as their proper and legal attorneys-in-fact for such purpose. Said appointment is coupled with an interest and is therefore irrevocable.

25. EMINENT DOMAIN OR CONDEMNATION PROCEEDING.

If eminent domain or condemnation proceedings are successfully litigated against all or any part of the Condominium Property, the entire eminent domain or condemnation award is to be secured to the Association in accordance with the ratio of ownership herein provided as it pertains to the Common Elements, and shall be disbursed to Unit Owners and their Mortgagees as their interests appear of record. The Association shall give to each Mortgagee prompt written notice of any such eminent domain or condemnation proceedings.

26. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

A. If any provision of this Declaration, the Articles, the By-Laws or the Condominium Act, or any section, sentence, clause, phrase or word, or the application thereof, in any circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this Declaration, the Articles, the By-Laws, or the Condominium Act, and the application of any such invalid provision, section, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in other circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

B. If the Developer holds Units for sale in the ordinary course of business, none of the following actions may be taken without the Developer's written approval:

(1) Assessment of the Developer as a Unit Owner for capital improvements, and

(2) Any action by the Association that would be detrimental to the Developer's sale of Units.

C. Notices to Unit Owners shall be sent by certified mail or certificate of mailing to their place of residence in the Condominium Building, unless the Unit Owner has, by written notice to the Association, specified a different address. Notices to the Association and the Developer shall be delivered by certified mail to Township Center, 2400 Lyons Road, Coconut Creek, Florida 33063. All notices shall be deemed and considered sent when mailed. Any party may change his or its mailing address by written notice to the other party.

D. The failure of the Developer, or the Association, or any Unit Owner to enforce any covenant, restriction or other provision of the Condominium Act, this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, the By-Laws, or the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so thereafter. The Association may levy against any Owner a fine not in excess of $25.00 per day for each day that such Owner continues to violate any of the requirements of this Declaration after having been notified by the Association of such violation.

E. The remedy for violation provided by the Condominium Act shall be in full force and effect. In addition thereto, should the Association find it necessary to institute legal Regulations, upon a finding by a court in favor of the Association, the defendant Unit Owner shall reimburse the Association for its costs of suit, including reasonable attorney's fees at both trial and appellate level, incurred by it in bringing such action.

F. Whenever the context so requires, the use of any gender shall be deemed to include all genders, the use of the plural shall include the singular and the singular shall include the plural.

G. The provisions of this Declaration shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purpose of creating a uniform plan for the operation of the Condominium.

H. Developer, formerly known as Tartan Minto Corporation, a Florida corporation, recorded that certain Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions of the Township in Official Records Book 8760 at Page 924 ("Master Declaration"), and that certain Declaration of Class "B" Residential Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions in Official Records Book 8760 at Page 973 ("Class "B" Declaration"), all of the public records of Broward County, Florida. Article II of the Master Declaration and Article II of the Class "B" Declaration both provide that the Condominium Property may be subjected to said declarations by filing in the public records of Broward County, Florida such supplemental declarations as the Developer may decide, thereby extending the operation and effect of said declarations to the Condominium Property. Accordingly, Developer does hereby declare that the Master Declaration and Class "B" Declaration, and the covenants, conditions and restrictions contained therein shall be covenants running with the Condominium Property, shall be binding upon all parties having and/or acquiring any right, title or interest in the Condominium Property or in any part thereof, and shall inure to the benefit of each and every person or entity, from time to time owning or holding an interest in the Condominium Property.

I. Except as provided by statute in case of condemnation or substantial loss to the Units and/or Common Elements, unless at least two-thirds of the Mortgagees (based upon one vote for each first mortgage owned), or Owners (other than the Developer) have given their prior written approval, the Association shall not be entitled to:

(1) By act or omission seek to abandon or terminate the Condominium;

(2) Change the pro rata interest or obligations of any individual Unit for the purpose of (a) levying assessments or charges or allocating distributions of hazard insurance proceeds or condemnation awards, or (b)

determining the pro rata share of ownership of each Unit in the Common Elements;

(3) Partition or subdivide any Unit;

(4) By act or omission, seek to abandon, partition, subdivide, encumber, sell or transfer the Common Elements. (The granting of easements for public utilities or for other public purposes consistent with the intended use of the Common Elements by the Owners shall not be deemed a transfer within the meaning of this clause.);

(5) Use hazard insurance proceeds for losses to any portion of the Condominium for other than the repair, replacement or reconstruction of such portion.

J. So long as the Developer owns one or more Units, the Association shall take no action which, in the Developer's opinion, would adversely affect the Developer's marketing program with respect to Units or other residential dwelling units.

K. Notwithstanding anything herein or any rule or regulation of the Association to the contrary, the Developer as well as any person approved in writing by the Developer shall be irrevocably empowered without any limitation at all times, whether for permanent or temporary occupancy, to sell, lease, rent or transfer Units owned by the Developer or such person, as the case may be, for any period and under any terms to any lessees, purchasers or transferees without the consent of any person including the Association being required. Further, neither the Board nor the Association shall have the right to regulate, in any manner, the sale, lease, rent or transfer of such Units. For example, and not by way of limitation, the Board shall be prohibited from taking any of the following actions:

(1) Requiring that the proposed form of lease be approved.

(2) Requiring that a representative of the Association supervise the lessee's move into such Unit.

(3) Requiring that the proposed lessee be interviewed or otherwise approved by representatives of the Association.

(4) Requiring that any fees be paid by the lessee or the owner of such Unit in connection with the lease.

(5) Requiring that the lessee's move into such Unit be limited to certain hours or days.

It is the intent of this paragraph that neither the Association nor the Board shall in any way interfere with, hinder or regulate the sale, lease, rent or transfer of such Units. Accordingly, any rule or regulation adopted either by the Board or the Association which is inconsistent with the intent of this paragraph shall be null and void. Should the owner of any such Unit prevail in litigation to enforce its rights as set forth in this paragraph, the losing litigant shall pay all costs and legal expenses incurred by said owner through and including all appellate litigation. The provisions of this paragraph may not be amended without consent of the Developer.

L. The Developer shall have the exclusive right to assign all unassigned parking spaces, and shall be entitled to cancel any such assignment that it made in error so long as the Developer assigns an alternate parking space to the Owner whose assigned parking space was so cancelled. The Association shall not be entitled to revoke or modify any parking assignments made by the Developer.

M. It is intended that the Association will operate other condominiums in addition to this Condominium. The proportionate share of Association expenses for which this Condominium is obligated shall be determined by multiplying the Association expenses by a fraction, the numerator of which is equal to the number of Units in this Condominium and the denominator of which is equal to the total number of condominium units, including the Units, which are operated by the Association.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Declaration of Condominium has been duly executed on this 22nd day of July, 1986.
