

President's Message

By Diana Engelbrecht

We, the board and myself, apologize for the delay of the June newsletter. The decision to wait was to avoid major confusion. There was so much in process of change this past week, we didn't want to put out information that would change before you even received it. All changes in our schedule over the next 4 months that we had to have made decisions on by June 1 have been made and all information in this newsletter is up to date as well as this fluid time in our lives allows. Thank you for your patience in waiting for the hard decisions and information gathering which presented itself this past week.
Diana Engelbrecht

Doohickey Drawing

An Americanism dating from 1910-1915, a doohickey is a gadget; a dingus; a thingumabob; a nifty quilting tool that a quilter may want, has never heard of, or is too expensive to purchase.

Each month a new Doohickey is offered to our membership. It may be a new "cool" tool or it may be something tried and true; expensive or not so much.

Tickets are $1.00 and monthly prizes are determined by the number of tickets sold the previous month. The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of evening meeting.

The doohickey drawing will resume when we can meet again in person.

Christa Watson and David Taylor Events

Sadly, if you read the Eblast email earlier in May, you already know that our David Taylor event scheduled for late May workshops/June meeting, have been cancelled. We are hoping to establish new dates once he is able to begin rescheduling. In the days since the Eblast went out, the possibility that Christa Watson might be able to join us in August has also become unfeasible. There are too many unknowns, from State mandated group size restrictions, facilities policies, and uncertainty and fear of personal interaction and risk of exposure among participants. We hope to re-book Christa for a future visit, as well.

At this time, we would be looking at late 2022 or Spring 2023 for potential rescheduling.

If you signed up for workshops with David or Christa you have 4 options concerning your fees.

Request a total refund. You will be mailed a check from MVQG.

Transfer your class fee into an MVQG Gift Certificate(s) to be applied to a future class.

Roll your class fee over to pay your $35 due for the coming year.

Or...a combination of the above, since several of you have paid for multiple classes.

PLEASE email MJKorreect@hotmail.com with your choice of options, a.s.a.p. Mary will provide lists for Diane Murtha, Treasurer, who will send you a check by mail and for Deb Schladt, Membership, who will keep track when dues are due. (You WILL need to fill out a membership form.) Mary will mail gift certificates to those who choose that option. I have heard from many of you concerning D. Taylor's class fee refunds. Thank you. It's been a crazy, challenging time for all of us as we try to understand and adjust to this continually moving target. We appreciate your understanding and patience.

July Program – July 7, 2020

Plans are in the works to try to hold July meetings in Iowa. We will have Brown Bag Picnics in a park, in lieu of our Summer Potlucks. More info will be forthcoming as details are worked out. This will be a bring your own lunch, beverage and lawn chair event and we will follow the 6-foot distancing guidelines and any other guidelines that may be in place by then. Stay tuned for more info.

August Program – August 4-5, 2020

Jill Fisher is an improvisational quilter from Iowa City, IA. Jill has one foot in the art quilt world and one foot in the modern quilt world. Her specialty is working in series with solids and telling stories with her quilts. Jill will present her lecture and trunk show, "Every Quilt Tells a Story" at both meetings. Check out Jill's work at pieladyquilts.blogspot.com. Watch for updates via E-Blast.

Take Time

"It takes a long time to make something good: looking time, musing time, auditioning time, screwing up time, constructing and deconstructing time.

Give yourself the luxury of time."

Paula Nadelstern

My sewing space has always been my happy place, now more than ever. I hope you are finding inspiration to finish some projects, start something new, charity sewing, mask construction and donation, or just playtime! We are certainly blessed with lots of time these days. Let's try to look at it as a rare luxury...a time we won't soon forget!

Stay safe and well. Hope we can be together again soon!

MASKS For First Line Of Protection

This is a copy of what is on the website for those who do not have computer access.

There are many places that we can contribute masks to. I am listing a few who we have received requests directly from asking us to help them. Of course, if someone has contacted you personally to help them, please do so. Keeping a count might make for an interesting statistic. Keeping track of your hours would be a great thing to add to our volunteer hours for our nonprofit status.

The Figge extended a request for help them in providing masks for the Humility of Mary Shelter, one of their community partners. The 3 pleated mask is what they are looking for. Figge staff are willing to pick up from you. Contact Brian at BAllen@figgeartmuseum.org

Sara Detweiler is still accepting masks for Head Start in IL.

Shelli Eng has people helping provide masks for the Genesis and Unity Point Hospitals as well as their satellite clinics and hospitals. Drop off Donations and pick up kits which includes fabric and elastic: Mondays 3-6 PM at the Freight House in Davenport, 421 West River Drive, Davenport, Iowa. There is a tent in the West parking lot (west of the building). Kits are in sets of 20-25 masks. Shelli Eng Mask Instructions is a pdf found on our Mississippi Valley Quilters Guild Facebook and mvqg.org web pages.

Genesis masks are pdf documents at

N 95 Mask Cover Pattern

Basic Face Mask Pattern

You can drop off at Sue Kirk's home in Davenport. She also has kits available. Genesis drops kits off to her and picks up the masks from her.

Unity Point has a mask and specific instructions they want you to follow found at their website and details about drop off.

Unity Point Masks

Illinois guild members can drop off the completed masks to Sandy Cockerill. Iowa guild members can drop off the completed masks to Sally Stewart in the Riverdale, IA area or Faye Kunz or Sue Kirk in the Davenport area at their door. NO contact. Their addresses and phone numbers are in the guild directory.

The Original President's Message

Mississippi Valley Quilters Guild has an extensive library of more than 900 books. If you are trying to learn a technique, find a pattern that you would like to try out, read about history, and other wonderful reads, we probably have a book to fit the need.

If you know the name of a book or the author/designer that has written a book you are interested in, all you have to do is email Sandie Cockerill at mike-sandie@att.net or Mary Wilke at mary22711@aol.com. They will bring it to the next meeting if you give them a couple days lead time to go to the storage unit to pull it.

The library is usually set up on the far wall in the L (near the kitchen). There are a few meetings they do not set up. They bring an assortment of approximately 75 books to each meeting.

You check each book out for 2 months with the opportunity to renew it a number of times to be able to finish your project. If you do not renew the book there is a $.25 per month over due fee.

Enjoy browsing through them during break or before and after the meetings. If meetings continue to be cancelled and there is something you are interested in, email Sandie or Mary and they will make arrangements to safely get the book to you.

2020 MVQG CHALLENGE

The theme for the 2020 MVQG Challenge is Double 2020. There is a $1.00 fee per challenge entry. Quilts must be 20" by 20." Bring your challenge to the September 2020 meeting. They will be displayed and voted on at the meeting that night. Top three vote getters will win a prize valued at $25 first place, $15 second place, and $10 third place.

Incorporate "double" into your quilt theme—anything duplicated, such as twins, double dutch, double vision, double negative, double down (maybe including feathers?), double play, double trouble, double chocolate, double cheese, etc.

Imagine the possibilities—no restrictions except the size 20 by 20. When combined with your creativity you're sure to enter a winner!

Quilt Show News: QUILT SHOW CANCELLED

After much deliberation and consideration of the current situation by the Quilt Show Committee and the Board of Directors, the 2020 Great River Quilt Show scheduled for September has been cancelled.

Sadly, this was not a difficult decision to make at this time. Health and financial concerns make this is the most prudent path to follow. At the Quilt Show, the safety of our guests, vendors, and members is our first priority. A majority of our guests and volunteers are over 60 and considered to be more vulnerable to COVID-19. We believe that social distancing restrictions for public gatherings will still be required by Fall, making it very difficult to set up, man, and run the show. These restrictions and concerns will also limit the numbers of visitors to the show.

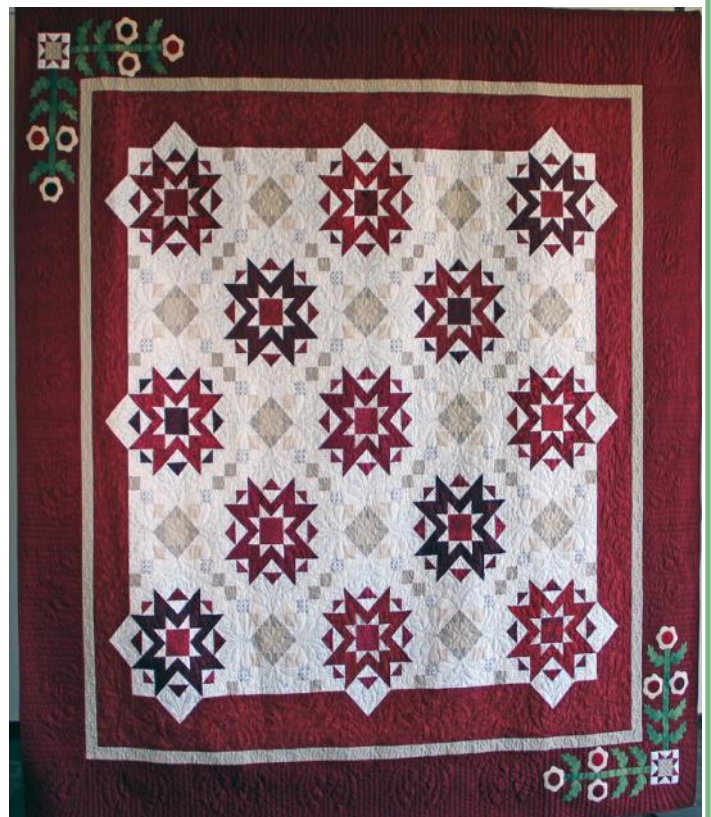

The inability to hold meetings, collect for second hand treasures, sell raffle tickets, and contact merchants for raffle basket donations has greatly impacted the show. Fewer vendors and sponsors also result in less income to offset show expenses. Members who are in these higher risk groups have expressed reluctance to volunteer at the show. All of these factors have impacted our ability to present the quality show that our members and guests expect. The funds usually spent to put on the show must be safeguarded for use in running the guild until the 2022 show. The fairgrounds is allowing us to advance our deposit to the 2022 show.

The raffle for the quilt show raffle quilt will be held as scheduled on September 22, 2020.

PLEASE CONTINUE TO SELL RAFFLE TICKETS. You may contact Dawn Thompson for additional tickets and to turn in money from ticket sales. Raffle ticket sales, garage sales of second hand treasure items, and other money-making events as determined by the Board of Directors, will be scheduled to support the MVQG through this extraordinary time period.

The Quilt Show Committee appreciates the members of the MVQG who have items to donate to Second Hand Treasures and for the Charity Auction, sold raffle tickets, and made and are making quilts for the show. Please stay safe and quilt on! Be sure to label your quilts as they are completed in anticipation of the 2022 show, which will be bigger and better than ever!

Please look for additional information by e-mail.

Quilts of Valor

Well, hasn't this been a strange year. I hope this finds you all well and Covid free.

I am ready to be back to working with the group! I know you are also. So, on that note, we will not be working on the sew day in June. The church will also not be ready for us. They have restrictions also. So not to be a burden on them, we will wait for July.

We are restricted to not deliver any QOV's till June 1st for now. That may change again.

However if you have any on the list and I have their quilt and you want it delivered, Let me know and a family member can deliver it. I can have it on my porch for pick up. All letters and certificates will be with it. I have had a few done that way because of health reasons. We want them to get their quilts if they can't wait.

Strange times but we are making it work.

QOVF to date have given out 250,000+ quilts. You are all awesome! I couldn't do this without all of you.

So from a humble and grateful heart, Terry Austin

SPECIAL EXHIBIT: The Village

The Village

We need to keep moving forward finishing our Village display for Special Exhibits in our area through out the next couple years and for the 2022 show. We have had request already from venues to display this exhibit.

If you are new, this is a finished 16x16 inch wall quilt portraying a home, public building, park, bridge, or another scene you would find in you village, town, or city. Each will have the same sky fabric that you can get from Diana for $1. The guidelines are enclosed with the fabric piece. Since the show has been canceled the deadline to turn them in will be at the September 1, 7 pm joint meeting.

Questions: Diana Engelbrecht
dipraisinhim@aol.com or call 563-370-4239

She will meet you somewhere if you need fabric or help.

Smile for Charitable Donations

Have you heard of AmazonSmile? It's a website operated by Amazon (smile.Amazon.com) that lets customers shop the same wide selection of products as Amazon.com. The difference is the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of eligible purchases to a charitable/nonprofit organization of your choice. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization in good standing, the Mississippi Valley Quilt Guild qualifies to receive donations! It doesn't cost us anything and there are no administrative fees for us to participate. So if you are shopping Amazon anyway, why not use the alternate site and select MVQG for the foundation's donation!
