President's Message

By Diana Engelbrecht

The Habitat For Humanity builds houses in Scott and Rock Island Counties.

We help with these homes by donating 1-2 quilts per home. JoAnn Pilgrim is the chairperson for this noble cause. She has fabrics and kits for anyone who would like to make a quilt. You can also donate a quilt you have made and don't have a place for it to go. After the tops are pieced, she needs longarmers to quilt them and people to bind them. They are double sized bed quilts.

We present the quilts at the dedication ceremony for each house. The homeowner receives a quilt as well as any adult such as a grandparent moving in to help with children. A church helps provide quilts for the children's rooms.

There are usually 4-5 home dedications each year totaling 6-7 quilts donated.

Come from 4-6:00 if the afternoon meeting is your preference, and for evening folks, we've scheduled a repeat meeting from 6-8:00. Feel free to come for the entire 4 hours if you like. The parking lot is adjacent to the shelter house and bathrooms are nearby. We're making arrangements for a microphone and speaker. Hand sanitizer, wipes, spray and paper towels will be available. Also, you may want to bring a mask and a lawn chair in case you want to distance more. Please know we understand if this is still outside your comfort zone. It's totally an individual decision. The slate of officers for the 2020-2021 year will be introduced. The program will be your Covid 19 Quarantine Completions. Since September, there have been 3 quilts donated to 2 homeowners. Because of the corona virus, 2 dedications have been cancelled.

Any help with making the quilts or even help with the dedications should JoAnn or her helper be unable to attend, would be greatly appreciated.

Habitat for Humanity believe everyone deserves a safe and affordable home. Their "goal is to provide strength, security and self-reliance through shelter."

Doohickey Drawing

An Americanism dating from 1910-1915, a doohickey is a gadget; a dingus; a thingumabob; a nifty quilting tool that a quilter may want, has never heard of, or is too expensive to purchase.

Each month a new Doohickey is offered to our membership. It may be a new "cool" tool or it may be something tried and true; expensive or not so much. Tickets are $1.00 and monthly prizes are determined by the number of tickets sold the previous month. The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of evening meeting.

The doohickey drawing for July: Grid Marker, Machingers Quilting Gloves.

August Program – August 4, 1:00 and 7:00 Location TBA

Jill Fisher is an improvisational quilter from Iowa City, IA. Jill has one foot in the art quilt world and one foot in the modern quilt world. Her specialty is working in series with solids and telling stories with her quilts. Jill will present her lecture and trunk show, “Every Quilt Tells a Story” in which she shares her background and evolution as a quilter.

Check out Jill’s vibrant, original work at pieladyquilts.blogspot.com.

Signups will begin for Jane Sassaman’s workshops to be held Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and Nov. 2.

September Program – September 1, 7:00 only. Location TBA.

Our September program will include the reveal and voting on the 2020 MVQG Guild Challenge, “Double 2020”. Incorporate “double” into your quilt theme – anything duplicated, such as twins, double Dutch, double vision, double date, double play...you get the idea. The only rule is the size....20”x20”. In addition, we will spotlight Beulah Spaulding, our Featured Quilter for the 2020 Great River Quilt Show. Beulah will entertain us with stories and her quilts in a trunk show.

October Program – October 6, 1:00 and 7:00. Location TBA.

Mary Korreect and Jan Ragaller will introduce and launch the “Border of the Quarter” Sew Along, postponed from May. They will share a trunk show of border challenge quilts and explain the border challenge process at both meetings.

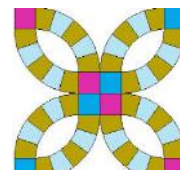

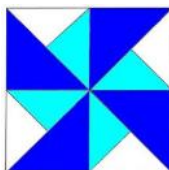

2020 MVQG CHALLENGE

The theme for the 2020 MVQG Challenge is Double 2020. There is a $1.00 fee per challenge entry. Quilts must be 20” by 20.” Bring your challenge to the September 2020 meeting. They will be displayed and voted on at the meeting that night. Top three vote getters will win a prize valued at $25 first place, $15 second place, and $10 third place.

Incorporate “double” into your quilt theme—anything duplicated, such as twins, double dutch, double vision, double negative, double down (maybe including feathers?), double play, double trouble, double chocolate, double cheese, etc.

Imagine the possibilities—no restrictions except the size 20 by 20. When combined with your creativity you’re sure to enter a winner!

Historical reading activity.

Hello everyone! Gee with our quarantine many of you probably have your show entries finished and UFO projects completed. That would leave time for reading except the books are at Sandie Cockerill's. So, we will close the reading at our February 2021 meeting. All you need to do is read 3 quilt history books, one being an "Uncovering," write a brief report, put the report in the "Historical Interest folder in the President's box. (If you have quilt history books in your own library, those books will do.)

Quilts of Valor

Well first of all I hope you have all stayed healthy. I most certainly have missed meeting with all of you. This lock down covid thing has been really hard. I am so very thankful you have been sewing up a storm during this. We have many tops with backs and batting ready to quilt. So if the urge strikes you to quilt let me know. We will NOT be meeting in July. Illinois still has many restrictions. The church has not been ready for us to use yet. I just don't see things changing in the next two weeks.

So in saying that , we can start delivering privately as of June 1st. QOV has lifted the ropes a little. However, many guidelines to keep our veterans safe as well as the volunteers. You all know I'm a hugger and this lock down has been really tough on me. Plus not able to hug the veteran when they receive their quilt is really hard. In saying that I have not approached the award ceremony either. Both states still have huge restrictions. So again if your vet that is on the list needs to get the quilt soon, let me know and we will either give it to you to deliver or I can now send a volunteer to get it delivered. I know it's not the same as a ceremony but I want to be sure they get it if they are in need. Then when we can have the ceremony they could still attend if able. I know this probably sounds confusing, so sorry if it is. My head is spinning on all the scenarios and nothing fits all the rules yet.

I have the CDC, QOV, Iowa and Illinois rules to follow, and keeping them all straight is a job.

Sooo pray this covid thing goes away, pray that our vets stay healthy, pray that all of you stay healthy as well. I am so ready to be with all of you but not until we can do that safely.

On another note, as if all this lockdown wasn't stressful enough , I had been locked out of my gmail account. REALLY! They don't know why. They recommended I create a new email. So I have 2 emails you can use, a NEW gmail account taustin51@gmail.com or my old account austinrt@mchsi.com. I am using the mchsi. email for all things with QOV. I am so over email, I wish I could do without it.

So stay healthy, any questions feel free to call me, 309-797-8584.

SO humbly grateful, Terry Austin QC QOV

Smile for Charitable Donations

Have you heard of Amazon Smile? It's a website operated by Amazon (smile.Amazon.com) that lets customers shop the same wide selection of products as Amazon.com. The difference is the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of eligible purchases to a charitable/nonprofit organization of your choice. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization in good standing, the Mississippi Valley Quilt Guild qualifies to receive donations! It doesn't cost us anything and there are no administrative fees for us to participate. So if you are shopping Amazon anyway, why not use the alternate site and select MVQG for the foundation's donation!
