President's Message

By Faye Kunz

It takes a village to raise a child and it takes a Guild to run a Quilt Show! The sign up sheets will be available at the August meetings. Please sign up for as many assignments as your schedule will handle! Lots of workers mean short shifts for everyone. It's lots of fun participating in this event and so every important to our Guild! The Great River Quilt Show is one of the largest and best in the state. Our volunteers are the reason!

This year, at member Stephanie Soebbing's suggestion, we are starting a new sponsorship program. If you are involved in a business that would like to sponsor one of our Show areas, please contact Hope Schroeder for information on this opportunity. We are hoping to have sponsors for many designated areas such as Trash to Treasures, Demonstrations, Bed Turning, Best of Show, etc. Remember to enter your Quilts!!!!

About that village? Stayed tuned! We are going to create one!

QUILT SHOW!

September 21-22

Retreat: October 24-28 (Registration now open)

Doohickey Drawing

An Americanism dating from 1910-1915, a doohickey is a gadget; a dingus; a thingumabob; a nifty quilting tool that a quilter may want, has never heard of, or is too expensive to purchase.

Each month a new Doohickey is offered to our membership. It may be a new "cool" tool or it may be something tried and true; expensive or not so much. Tickets are $1.00 and monthly prizes are determined by the number of tickets sold the previous month. The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of the evening meeting.

No one won the Doohickey Drawing in July because there wasn't one! The August Doohickey drawing will be for a 90" x 20 yard roll of Nature's Touch 80/20 natural blend batting.

Quilt Registration Cathy Bennett/Suzi Dale

The online quilt registration process is new (and simpler) this year. To clarify and, hopefully, answer some questions, this article takes you through the steps of registering your entry for the Quilt Show.

You should all have received an email with the Mississippi Valley Quilters Guild header and the subject line would have said "official registration form 2018". The email was sent out July 2. If you didn't get one, you should do one of two things: (1) check your spam folder or (2) confirm your email is correct with Jo Noon, our webmaster.

Once you click on the link provided by this email, you would be taken to the online form. There are red asterisks on some fields—these require an answer and you won't be able to continue until you fill in the field.

Upon completion of the online form, you will be given an option to submit or enter another response. Once you click on submit, you can just click on the 'X' at the upper right corner of your screen to exit the form. That's it. Shortly after you exit, you should receive an email from Google Forms with the subject line "GREAT RIVER QUILT SHOW". This is your confirmation email and only through this email will you be able to edit or update your entry. For that reason, keep these emails. You don't have to print them out—just keep them.

If you delete or lose these confirmation emails, the only way to edit your entry is delete and re-enter and this can only be done by the administrator.

On Wednesday, September 19, when you drop off your quilts, you will be given a receipt for each entry complete with an entry number and an assigned category number (both of these will be input by the Registration Committee with input from the Judging/Category Committee). A duplicate of this receipt will be kept in the Registration folder.

Remember, the deadline to do this is August 12—no exceptions.

The slate of officers for the MVQG Board for the 2018 – 2019 year is:

President	Diana Engelbrecht
Vice President	Elaine Giesecke
Secretary	Wendy Rios
Treasurer	Diane Murtha
Historian	Hope Schroeder
Membership	Deb Schladt
Program	Karla Miley
Newsletter	Jo Noon
Webmaster	Lydia Hoelle
Member-at-large	Faye Kunz
Member-at-large	Jeanie Hess

The election of the nominees will be held at the August meeting.

The Great River Quilt Show is fast approaching. I hope you are volunteering to help at some point during the week of the show. There are many opportunities to do so whether you would like a stand up or sit down job. Please consider helping out for the success of our show. You also have until midnight on Sunday, August 12th to register your quilts or other articles for the show. There will be no exceptions to this deadline. Please review the process for doing this in the last newsletter and be sure to follow the directions carefully. This will assist Suzi Dale, Jo Noon and Lynn Figg and Clayton in the final stages of the set up. Thank you all for your participation and assistance. Dawn Thompson, Quilt Show Chairperson

The September reveal of the Sunflower Challenge draws near! Thirty quilters have signed up so far, and it's not too late! The fee is only $1 per entry. The rules are simple....your entry must lie or hang flat, (some dimension is A-0k), and the total circumference is not to exceed 144". Use a pattern or design your own....use techniques and fabric types as your creativity dictates. Some questions have arisen concerning challenge entries in the upcoming show. You may enter your challenge projects in the Other Challenge Quilt Category, (judged or unjudged) or in the appropriate Wall Hanging category, if you feel it could compete and fits the category description...or even in the Found and Finished category, if it's a fit. Consider the level of competition, and where your competitive spirit leads you. If you enter your Sunflower project in a category other than the Other Challenge Quilt category, it won't hang with its 'friends' but with the quilts in the entered category. I hope this bit of info helps! Sign up and have FUN!

SMALL QUILT AUCTION ITEMS NEEDED

Time is getting short to consider a donation of one or more items to the "Small Quilt and Related Items" Committee for the September Quilt Show. Proceeds from our 2018 auction will go to Winnie's Place (sheltering abused women and their children on both sides of the river), Quilts of Valor, and the MVQG "Quillows" Committee.

Justin Klindt will be our volunteer auctioneer this year and times have been set for 2:00 PM on Friday, the 21st and 1:00 PM on Saturday, the 22nd. Donations of quality items for our two scheduled auctions can be turned in at monthly meetings (please include your name with the item), or call/text to arrange a pick up. A wide variety of items are always appreciated. Purses, tote bags, wall hangings, items with a useful purpose around the house (table runners, Christmas Tree Skirts, baskets, etc.), and larger quilts are always welcome. A quilt kit that you purchased and are never going to assemble could also make a great donation. Most recently, we received beautiful donations from Gloria Tripp, Bev Hoy, Sandie Cockerill, Judy Redmond, Donna Fleck, Mary Korrekt, Carol Youngberg, and Dorothy Link.

Well a huge thank you to all who have helped so far with the quilts for November.

We have 87 names on the list. I have 51 done (quilted and bound). So YAY!

The balance are getting worked on. We have several that are being made by some of you for your vet.

So I am contacting you to see where you are with it incase you need assistance.

So in advance , you are awesome.

May 2019 is also overfull, So any names that need to be moved will be moved to November 2019 which we have already 30 names on it. Our work is never done. But I can't give enough praise to you all.

We will be meeting August 8th, 9-2. At that meeting I have a quartet of barber shoppers that will come at lunch time to sing for us.

One or more of them have received a quilt and want to some show their appreciation.

Also thank you for the fabric from the tables at the July meeting. That was a nice surprise.

DOLL QUILTS

Take a break, take a kit or two at the August meeting, or choose from some of the fabric cut and ready to go....we have accumulated so much fabric this summer, we have a lot of cutting and planning to do. I will have some of the fun kids prints cut for center panels and some compatible strips, or you use your own , for all the great creations you come up with. We won't know the numbers needed until into September, but there will always be a place for them....

So come to our workday and enjoy the windfall! Bring your favorite cutting equipment. I bring iron, stuff , cutting boards and chocolate

And questions, call me.

Margaret Paulos, chair.

Words That Move You Challenge

The Fiber Arts Group has extended a challenge to anyone who would like to participate. Linda Klyman has extended the challenge Words That Move You. This can be a quote, saying, song, phrase, or just one word that moves you. Interpret them into a fiber creation such as a wall hanging. We are hoping to have a nice group of this challenge to hang in the Quilt Show.

Quilt Show Challenge Registration: Sun, Moon & Stars is the Quilt Show Challenge. All other challenge quilts should be registered in the Other Challenge category. This is a "bed" category but your quilt does not need to be a bed quilt. It only needs to have been part of a challenge other than Sun, Moon & Stars. Of course, challenge items can also be entered in other qualifying categories. Questions? Call Faye Kunz 563-505-2579.
