President's Message

By Diana Engelbrecht

To all you wonderful MVQG members,

The past 2 years have proven to be interesting with everything from floods, a pandemic and other health issues, and a derecho to contend with in our personal lives as well as how these affect our guild organization. I have been privileged to be your president during these times.

Sending a humongous THANK YOU to each of you!!! YOU are who makes the MVQG the organization it is. It is your participation in opportunities offered, stepping out to befriend and encourage each other, and working on your own genre of the quilting arts that makes MVQG the wonderful organization it is.

A colossal thank you to our amazing board. I would not have been able to do my job without their help. They stepped up at each turn to figure out ways to handle anything that has come up. We have been searching for ways to keep us in touch during the present conditions we are experiencing. The new board will still be working on that along with figuring out how we will survive without the finances from the Great River Quilt Show. I know we will survive with some little tweaks.

September Program – September 1, 7:00 p.m. ONLY

Location: American Legion Post 26

Our September program, we will spotlight Beulah Spaulding, our Featured Quilter for the 2020 Great River Quilt Show. Beulah will entertain us with stories and her quilts in a trunk show.

Beulah started sewing when she was 6 or 7, however it wasn't until around 1977 when she sewed her first quilt that she fell in love with the whole quilting process. She machine pieces her quilts and hand quilts all her creations. It takes her about two weeks to hand quilt the quilts once she has it on the frame. When she worked as a beautician she gave her clients quilts, and has donated to numerous fund raisers through out the years. She currently has around 50 at her home, including 12 for Christmas gifts.

Please watch for emails from Mississippi Valley Quilters

A enormous thank you to the committee chairs and their teams that have helped keep the MVQG moving forward in our mission to educate and encourage members in the quilting arts and to stimulate interest in the quilting arts in the community. They have done a wonderful job!

It has been an honor to serve you. I will continue to do so as Member at Large and on committees. Our mission is dear to my heart. It is important that we continue to pass on what we know and promote the quilting arts to others who would not have the resources to learn without each of us.

Thank you,
Diana Engelbrecht

WEBMASTER NOTES

NOT GETTING THE MVQG EMAILS? It is imperative that all guild members receive them as important emails pertaining to Guild events. Contact Lydia Hoelle at stillcreek1951@gmail.com to see about correcting the issue. Cancellation concerning the coronavirus will also be sent out through these.

Thanks, Lydia Hoelle, Webmaster

Doohickey Drawing

An Americanism dating from 1910-1915, a doohickey is a gadget; a dingus; a thingumabob; a nifty quilting tool that a quilter may want, has never heard of, or is too expensive to purchase.

Each month a new Doohickey is offered to our membership. It may be a new "cool" tool or it may be something tried and true; expensive or not so much. Tickets are $1.00 and monthly prizes are determined by the number of tickets sold the previous month. The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of evening meeting.

The August doohickey drawing was won by Barb Erwin.

The September doohickey is a 13W classic mag task Ottlite. Another doohickey will be added if we have more than 50 people attend.

Our Mission:

Organized in 1983 to educate and encourage members in the quilting arts; to encourage high standards in color, design, and construction of the quilted medium, and to stimulate interest in quilting in the community.

!!New Meeting Location!!

We are happy to announce our general meeting location for the remainder of 2020! We will be meeting at the American Legion Post 26, 705 35th Street, Davenport IA. This location is easy to find, centrally located in Davenport, has ample, off-street parking, no stairs, and a large meeting space for social distancing. The venue has Wifi, enabling us to do zoom meetings for those unable to attend in person and plenty of tables and padded chairs. We think this will be a very comfortable place to meet. Many thanks to Shelly Moore for the suggestion!

September Program – September 1, 7:00 p.m. ONLY

American Legion Post 26, 705 35th St. Davenport, IA

The agenda for the September joint meeting will include installation of the 2020-2021 MVQG Board and the MVQG Volunteer of the Year will be announced.

In addition, we will spotlight Beulah Spaulding, our featured Quilter for the 2020 Great River Quilt Show. Beulah will entertain us with her stories and quilts in a trunk show. Hand Sanitizer will be available at the sign in table. Masks strongly encouraged.

The 2020 MVQG Guild Challenge reveal has been postponed until December to give more time to enter and complete your "Double 2020" Challenge entries. There is a $1 fee to enter. (At this time, only 5 entries have been received.)

October Programs – October 6, 1:00 and 7:00

American Legion Post 26, 705 35th St. Davenport, IA

Mary Korrekt and Jan Ragaller will introduce and launch the "Border of the Quarter" Sew Along.

They will share a trunk show of Border Challenge quilts and explain the Border Challenge process and guidelines at both meetings. You will work on your own quilt throughout the process, starting with a center block. We're calling it a "Border of the Quarter" Sew Along, because every 3 months (or quarter) participants will be given a task, ie. a shape, a type of block or a technique and a color that must appear in that round. No patterns will be issued. Your quilt/your decisions. Every quilt will be an original! A signup sheet was started pre-Covid and will be available at the meetings or you can email Mary Korrekt mjkorrekt@hotmail.com to indicate interest.

Join Us and Sew Along!! It's FUN and it's FREE!

November Programs – November 3, 1:00 and 7:00

American Legion Post 26, 705 35th St. Davenport, IA

Internationally-known and celebrated quilter, Jane Sassaman will lecture for us at the November meetings. The titles of her presentations are: "Quilting Against the Odds" and "Under the Influence". Jane is a dedicated (some would say "obsessed") quilt artist, fabric designer and author who began her quilting journey in 1980. Her award-winning art quilts have been shown both nationally and internationally. Jane's designs are oversized, exuberant and colorful. Check out her extensive resume and work at: www.janesassaman.com.

Signups for Jane Sassaman Workshops at September meeting! **

(If unable to come to meetings and you want to sign up for a class, contact Mary Korrekt and mail payment to her. Or send your payment with a friend to a meeting and they can for you.)

"Wings and Wedges" Saturday, October 31/Sunday, November 1 *. $70 In a fabric collage of simple symmetrical shapes, you will learn the basics of Jane's accessible machine applique techniques. Jane will guide you in creating your own unique collage composition. You will also be given the chance to sharpen your design and machine embroidery skills. Sewing machine needed.

"Moths and Moons" Monday, November 2 *. $35

In this one-day class, each student will get a pattern and directions for making the "Moths and Moons" quilt. $18. Bring your favorite fabrics or purchase a kit from Jane's stash of FreeSpirit fabrics to create one or up to three giant moths (approximately 27" W X 21"H, each). Jane's accessible applique method will be used to assemble the moths. After class you will stitch your background and apply your gorgeous winged creatures. Sewing machine needed (and at least a few decorative stitches).

Class sign up options: If unable to come to a meeting and you want to sign up for a class, contact Jane Darin (308/236-6050) or Mary Korrekt and mail payment to one of them or to MVQG, POBox 2636, Davenport, IA 52809-2636. Or you can send you payment with a friend to a meeting.

**We are in a wait and see mode at this time for Jane's visit, as with everything else in this Covid 19 world. You will need to pay for your class to hold your spot. We will not be depositing the checks immediately, given the uncertainties the virus places on everything.

2020 MVQG CHALLENGE

DOUBLE DOUBLE QUILT CHALLENGE DELAYED

President Diana Englebrecht informed me that the Board has extended the deadline for the Double Double Challenge to the December meeting. It will not be on the upcoming September meeting agenda.

Considerations included that with Covid-19 there hasn't been sufficient meetings to promote the challenge and allow for sign ups, and secondly, that many were busy with sewing necessary masks.

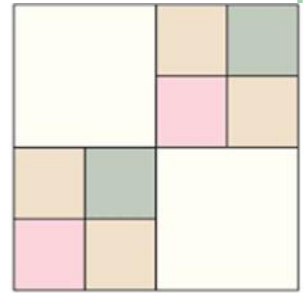

For those of you who have completed your challenge entry, I apologize for the delay and look forward to seeing your entry in December.

The theme for the 2020 MVQG Challenge is Double 2020. There is a $1.00 fee per challenge entry. Quilts must be 20" by 20." Bring your challenge to the December 2020 meeting. They will be displayed and voted on at the meeting that night. Top three vote getters will win a prize valued at $25 first place, $15 second place, and $10 third place.

Incorporate "double" into your quilt theme—anything duplicated, such as twins, double dutch, double vision, double negative, double down (maybe including feathers?), double play, double trouble, double chocolate, double cheese, etc.

Imagine the possibilities—no restrictions except the size 20 by 20. When combined with your creativity you're sure to enter a winner!

If you are interested in signing up, please contact me at 309-644-1179 or through my email at caroltriebel52@aol.com. - Carol Triebel

Historical Interest. How many of you have heard of Mary Fons' (Marianne's daughter) magazine/book "Quiltfolk?" I hadn't seen a copy until Paula Hardi gave me copies that her sister Angela (quilt pattern designer from Des Moines) gave her to read. The editorial staff visits a state and then write about people, shops, places and tons of pictures. NO ads. Each copy is beautiful. I was a bit disappointed that the Iowa issue visited Amana rather than Kalona. Oh, well. I will be giving the library the copies I received. I then took out a bank loan and bought a subscription, $25/issue.

These will count for Historical reading.

Quilts of Valor

Since I don't have cable or internet or home phone at this moment this will be brief.

We have scheduled another drive through on September 27th at the Botanical Center. The invitations will go out at the end of August. This is replacing the November ceremony. Hopefully life will allow us to have another ceremony in May of '21. Hopefully all returns to normal soon.

So from a humble and grateful heart, Terry Austin.

RETREAT

Believe it or not it is time to think about retreat again! I know this has been a year like no other but we are planning to have Fall Retreat October 14-18, 2020 at Grace Lutheran Church Camp in DeWitt, Iowa. Retreat starts at 8 am on Wednesday and ends at 3 pm on Sunday. At retreat you can do anything you want: sleep in, stay up all night, go on road trips with your friends, work on your own projects, read books, or walk the beautiful camp grounds. We do our own cooking so everyone is assigned to a team to help with one meal.

Because precautions for Covid may come into play as we get closer, some changes may need to be made. Keep watching the newsletter and your emails for updates. To register, complete the registration form (page 13) and mail it along with your nonrefundable deposit to Sue Kirk for either building. If you have any questions, please contact Sue or Mary. # It Takes a Village

Due September 1, 2020 General Meeting

Thank you for participating in the special display we are gathering to exhibit in area galleries and other venues through the next 2 years. Final display planned to be the Special Display for the 2022 Great River Quilt Show.

If you are interested and haven't picked up your sky for $1, contact Diana for it. We can add new people in as needed, but we encourage everyone who has their sky to please bring your piece to the September meeting. We need to know a number so we can let venues know how much room we need.

Your piece should measure 16x16 with some allowance for shrinkage when quilted. It should extend to the edge (no bindings or anything that would frame it in). They will be lined up next to each other connecting the horizons from one to the next for a continuous masterpiece.

The subject can be anything in a village, such as buildings (schools, churches, homes, library, art gallery, movie theater, eateries, hot dog stands) ball park, amusement park, bridges or parks. It doesn't have to be a real building or scene. It can be a local scene, childhood scene, or just one from your imagination. It can be any season.

Ways to finish your It Takes A Village wall quilt

You have several options.

1. You can pillowcase the sandwich like the doll quilts are done. Then quilt.
2. You can sandwich, quilt and then finish the edges.
  - a. zigzag the edge.
  - b. do a facing edge. If you Google facing a quilt tutorial, there are many videos that come up.
  - c. using a single thickness of tulle (netting) wrapped around the edge as a binding leaves a nice finish and doesn't frame it.

The label should include The It Takes A Village Exhibit, your name and date, If a pattern was used, the name and designer of the pattern. Optional: your inspiration,

MVQG Website

Did you know the MVQG Website will be getting a new look? This is very exciting news and we want to thank the previous Webmasters, and those who have been providing support to them, for their dedication, diligence and hard work that it has taken to keep the Website functioning. Due to the amount of effort put forth to keep the Website operating in its current format (e.g. host, lack of security (SSL certificate), lack of support, email marketing, etc.) the time has come for a significant update. The Guild's goal is to continue to provide the same high-quality content but the location of information will likely be different. Navigating through the new Website should be a fun exploration! A sneak peek of one of the Webpages is above but it may change as we are in the very fluid portion of the build.

UFO Challenge 2020

UFO # 2!!! Begin working on UFO #2 on your lists! The due date for UFO #2 is October 4th, (the Sunday prior to our October meeting). Mark your calendars, NO exceptions.

Sandie Cockerill is keeping track of your progress. Send her a photo of your completed UFO #2 via email to mike-sandie@att.net. Complete directions for the UFO Challenge can be found in the March 2020 newsletter, available on our website. www.mvqg.org. Questions? Call Sandie Cockerill, 309-755-1193 or Mary Korreect, 563-940-8565.

Smile for Charitable Donations

Have you heard of Amazon Smile? It's a website operated by Amazon (smile.Amazon.com) that lets customers shop the same wide selection of products as Amazon.com. The difference is the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of eligible purchases to a charitable/nonprofit organization of your choice. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization in good standing, the Mississippi Valley Quilt Guild qualifies to receive donations! It doesn't cost us anything and there are no administrative fees for us to participate. So if you are shopping Amazon anyway, why not use the alternate site and select MVQG for the foundation's donation!

Diane Murtha, Treasurer.

Doll quilts

I hope to be at the Deere Wiman carriage house on the usual 3rd Tuesday especially to empty, air and sort fabric, some of which will go to the garage sale...

Will check to see if the place is available that day, and then hope to have dq work days in Oct and Nov, if only to be a pick up and drop off...we can spread out, but we all work well at home....just come and get fabric, kits, batting.....call me if you want finished quilts picked up....will meet you somewhere if need be.....or...I live near Faye, so if you are coming to the garage pre-sale, or sale weekend, drop by my place....

Our count is nearly 500 already, counting those still out and or promised .....great work everyone! Adapting to an alternate assembling procedure....lay the quilt out as you would a big one, quilt, and then turn the edge over to bind....someone reminded me of that a while back, and with pieced batting it works great...it just secures the batting as you go!....I have been cutting the backings a bit bigger to allow for that, so use whichever system you prefer...thanks as always for such great volunteers! Margaret....

Fall 2020 MVQG Retreat Registration

It's time for Retreat! The MVQG Spring Retreat is October 14-18, 2020 at Grace Lutheran Church Camp in DeWitt, Iowa. Retreat starts at 8AM on Wednesday and ends at 3PM on Sunday.

For those not familiar with the MVQG Retreat, retreats are held twice a year, in the spring and the fall.

At retreat you can do anything you want: sleep in, stay up all night, go on road trips with your friends, work on your own projects, read books, or walk the beautiful camp grounds. We do our own cooking so everyone is assigned to a team to help with one meal. Most of all, Retreat is FUN! To register, complete the registration form below; and mail it along with your nonrefundable deposit to Sue for either building. If you have any questions please contact Sue or Mary, who are still in Andrew building

Registration is limited to 20 people per building and to MVQG members only until September 1, 2020. If there are any openings after that non-members may register. This allows everyone to sleep on a lower bunk and provides each person with plenty of workspace.

Price is $25 per night for those retreaters staying at the camp overnight for a maximum of $100 for the entire Wednesday thru Sunday retreat. The daytime only fee is $17 per day for retreaters not staying overnight. You may register for all nights or all days only or any combination of nights and days. Prices include meals. If you have a meal preference or a partner you like to work with please indicate that also. Thursday lunch and Friday night will be a combined meal of both buildings.
