President's Message

By Diana Engelbrecht

Everyone has been touched in some way by cancer. To give back, Quillow QTees' mission is to make quillows for adult cancer patients staying at American Cancer Society Hope Lodge in Iowa City. The patients stay there while receiving their cancer treatments at the University of Iowa Hospital and Clinics and the quillows are taken home for their use when they are released. QTees' meet the second Wednesday of each month at Davenport Masonic Center from 9 a.m - 2 p.m.

We are always looking for new quillow makers. We do have a lot of fun and it gives us a chance to get caught up with all the news. Come join us and see how easy it is to make a quillow. (There is no quilting.) And lunch is even provided.

October Program

Our featured speaker, Linda Halpin, is a graduate of the Embroiderers' Guild of America's Teacher Certification Program in Quiltmaking. The intensive two year examination program tests not only the candidates' stitching skills but also their knowledge of color and design, history of their chosen field, and classroom abilities. She is one of only a handful of instructors nationwide who has been certified by the Embroiderers' Guild of America (EGA) as an Instructor in Quiltmaking. Actively teaching quiltmaking across the United States and Canada for over 40 years, Linda has been a member of the teaching faculty of several distinguished conferences nationwide (including the AQS show in Paducah), as well as worked with guilds of memberships ranging from 25 to 400. In addition to teaching, Linda has written seven quiltmaking books ranging from quilt history, three dimensional applique, and quilted clothing, to scrap quilts, and patterns inspired by the Little House on the Prairie books. She also served as Chairman of both EGA's National Master Craftsman Program for Quiltmaking and Teacher Certification Programs. She has curated numerous quilt exhibits, as well as been involved as a judge at regional exhibits, and participated in an Exhibit Judging Forum which established guidelines now used nationwide.

Linda will present two different trunk shows at our meetings on October 1: "Borders on Parade" at the afternoon meeting and "1 x 1: Quilts Using 1 x 1 Half Square Triangles" in the evening. Additionally, she will teach two classes for our Guild - Prairie Lilies on Oct 2 and Mexican Cross on Oct 3. Both classes will be held at the Kaaba Shriners Building - 511 Veterans Memorial Parkway in Davenport. Lunch will be available on site for $5.

Presidents Message continued

Thanks to (average) 8 sewers each month for giving up their time and thread to make the lives of cancer patients a little brighter. We like to make at least 15 quillows a month. All supplies are donated, except the sewing machine and thread.

Janet and hubby, Denny Zhart, along with her QTees' team, delivered 155 quillows to American Cancer Society Hope Lodge for 2018/2019. Lets see if we can up that number this year.

Much of this article was taken from the Quillows annual report.

Attention All Board members and Committee Chairs!

When sending any information to the Newsletter Editor, please also email to me for the website or Facebook page. Please include any photos in the email as well. Thanks, Lydia Hoelle, Webmaster

Doohickey Drawing

An Americanism dating from 1910-1915, a doohickey is a gadget; a dingus; a thingumabob; a nifty quilting tool that a quilter may want, has never heard of, or is too expensive to purchase.

Each month a new Doohickey is offered to our membership. It may be a new "cool" tool or it may be something tried and true; expensive or not so much. Tickets are $1.00 and monthly prizes are determined by the number of tickets sold the previous month. The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of the evening meeting.

The September drawing was won by Jean Hess.

Doohickey for October is 1 gallon of Mary Ellen's Best Press and a Jumping Jack phone and tablet clip to keep your phone in place while watching the you-tube how to video for the technique you are trying out on the sewing machine.

Our Mission:

Organized in 1983 to educate and encourage members in the quilting arts; to encourage high standards in color, design, and construction of the quilted medium, and to stimulate interest in quilting in the community.

Programs

Mary Korrect - (563) 940 8565 or mjkorrect@hotmail.com

October 1: Our featured speaker, Linda Halpin, will present two trunk shows: “Borders on Parade” at the afternoon meeting and “1 x 1: Quilts Using 1 x 1 Half Square Triangles” in the evening.

Linda will also teach two classes for our Guild - Prairie Lilies and Mexican Cross. If you’d like to enroll prior to the October meeting, contact Mary Korrect 563-940-8565 to sign-up or to add your name to the waiting list. If openings remain, members can continue to sign-up at the October meeting.

10/2: Prairie Lilies: Applique combines with piecing in this one day workshop. Joyous colors combine to create Prairie Lilies, constructed in my two-for-one technique. Piecing in this method creates cutaways that are ready to go into a bonus quilt, so you are actually making two quilts at the same time. Make use of every bit of fabric. It is such fun! Students start with how to choose and combine fabrics for a quilt, giving valuable fabric selection skills that can apply to your future quilt-making. This is followed with Halpin’s two-for-one piecing method, then adorn with applique, utilizing a very nifty stem technique. In addition to the Prairie Lilies quilt, students will also be making a bonus quilt out of the cutaways.

10/3: Mexican Cross: Cheery colors pop in this fun version of Mexican Cross. Not only is it a great pattern for using up lots of different fabrics in one quilt, but the construction technique cleverly creates a bonus quilt out of the cutaways. This complex looking pattern is a snap when you make it with Halpin’s shortcut techniques.

Both classes will be held at the Kaaba Shriners Building - 511 Veterans Memorial Parkway in Davenport. Lunch will be available on site for $5

November 5: The program at our November meeting will feature a panel of Long-Arm Quilters coordinated by Terre Klipsch discussing “Everything You Wanted To Know From Your Longarmer, but were Afraid to Ask.”

December 3: Plan to join your fellow Guild members at 1 p.m. or 7 p.m. on December 3 for our annual Holiday Party. Bring a dish to share – main dishes, sides, salads, or desserts for the party in the afternoon. Focus on appetizers or desserts for the evening festivities. Since there are many requests for your delicious dishes, bring a copy of your recipe or the name of the take-out location where you selected your dish (because we all like to know about secret sources, too).

BLOCK TO RAFFLE

“Take an Umbrella” blocks will be handed out to winners at the October meeting. The kits for the next block will be sold at the November meeting.

Thank you,
Vicki Hamilton

Accounting Audit

On August 27, 2019, Sandie Cockerill and Nancy Jacobsen met with 2018-19 MVQG Treasurer, Diane Murtha. The accounting books for the Mississippi Valley Quilters Guild were audited for the fiscal year of September 1, 2018 to August 31, 2019 and found to be in order and to be complete, and accurate. Any recommendations were presented in writing to both the Treasurer and President of the guild.

Looking for a little help....

Looking for help at the 1 & 7 pm general meetings. Need more hostesses. You would be available when a visitor or new member comes to a meeting to explain to them the activities going on in the L, answer questions and to introduce them to others. We want to make our meetings easier for new people to get information about what is available and to have a positive experience. Please contact Diana Engelbrecht 563-370-4239

Historical Interest

There are three more wonderful books in the library.

Blocks and Borders by Jenny Beyer. 40 years ago Jinny's Quilt "Ray of Light" won the Good Housekeeping contest. And the world of quilting was changed. She used fabric with color on color designs. Then she wrote the book on how she designed her quilts. Take a read Crazy Quilts by Penny McMorris: Penny hosted two of the first quilt shows on Public Television in the 80's. The book has some of the most fantastic Crazy Quilts ever stitched! Take a read and be awed with the embroidery designs. The answer to last month's question: Can a quilt history book without patterns sell? The Answer is YES. This book belongs on the coffee table of everyone who embroiders or not. Again be inspired.

I saved the best for last. Quilted Gardens: Floral Quilts of the Nineteenth Century by Ricky Clark. Ricky was a part of the Ohio Quilt Research Project. For the book she selected the most wonderful quilts (and having my nose close to Baltimore Album Quilts, many of the quilts in the book are better! Pot of Flower quilts (AKA Pride of Iowa) on pages 46 & 47 and Currants and Coxcombs, (page 31) with its hundreds of currants are terrific.

Please check out the Historical Interest books in our library.

I had forgotten how much fun it is to go to the Community Education events & the Great Mississippi Fair. Thank you Julie Williams, Carol Schroeder, and our President for doing such a super job under the tent. My husband was on a trip and I needed his help zipping up my dress. I got home and noticed the red ribbon I used to zip up my dress was still on. NO ONE noticed or told me, guess everyone thought it was the newest fashion trend.

Reading Program:

School has started and I love walking down the aisles with all the supplies and delighted I don't have to go back!! But ahhhhhhhhhh I love reading.

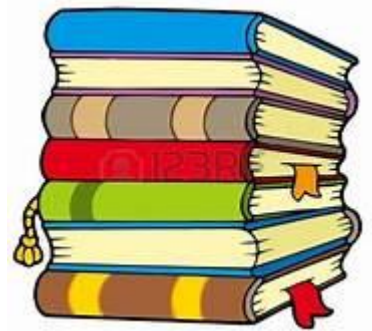

My cousin lived in Cedar Rapids. I remember one time I was visiting and she went to the BOOKMOBILE. Now that was something. Plus she got a prize (little glove pencil sharpener). Unbelievable, a prize for reading. So I think it is time to have another Historical Interest contest: Reading Historical Interest books.

Very easy.

1. Read one Uncovering
2. Read two Historical Interest books. You may reserve books with Sandie Cockerill.
3. Write a two paragraph book report
4. Turn it into me by May 2020!
5. Prize(s) will be given. Chosen by a random drawing.

I was asked if it would be ok to read a Quilt History book that is not in the MVQG. Yes, because I was Shirley Peterson's teacher. In the book report let me know that it might be a book we add to the library. Happy Reading.

Catherine Litwinow

Upcoming Event

The Porch Party on September 22 from noon to 4pm is being brought to us from the Butterworth Foundation that oversees the Deere-Wiman grounds. This Porch Party includes an antique car show, music on the porch and displays from some of the groups that use the properties. The Foundation generously asked MVQG to participate in the event. We will have quilts on display, hand quilting frame set up, and featherweight machines for doll quilts. Along with the quilts, we also have the facility to use as a work day during the event.

Set up is September 21 from 3-5pm. We are looking for about 10 quilts to hang. Tear down is at September 22 at 4pm. We are needing volunteers for setup, during the event and tear down.

Please contact Jane Darin if interested.

Doll Quilts

Into the countdown....I know there are many kits out and they need to be in no later than the December meeting...If you know you will have them finished by then, let me know so I can count on them. Our count is usually about 8-900, depending on enrollment in the various preschool, Head Start, Handicapped programs we serve.

Doll quilt work day, usual...3rd Tues, Deere Wiman Carriage House, 8:30-2...if you need fabric or batting, drop in and have your pick, or I will have a bit, among the kits, and possibly sets of blocks or strips at guild. I think there is a whole box of 'orphan blocks' if someone wants to play with those...

And please consider coming to the work day, if only for a couple of hours...to help sort, cut, press, plan!

I bring equipment, fabric, and chocolate! And Bev will have tea! (Bring your own table service, mug, whatever!)

Margaret Paulos, dq chair.

Design Ideas Needed for 2020

All Mississippi Valley Quilt Guild members are encouraged to submit a design, or several, for a new t-shirt. Our design will be on the front of the t-shirt only. Once the design has been selected by vote of our membership, a t-shirt style will be chosen, then it will be sent to the printer.

We would like these ready to be worn in the spring of 2020 and to promote our fall guild quilt show. Submit design ideas to Jean Hess.

Quilts of Valor

Well as I type this it is on the eve of 9-11. This time of year always makes me reflect what happened on that day. We as a nation came together. We were Americans who cared once again for each other. I miss the day of 9-12 when we loved each other beyond words. So it's been 18 years and I hope we never forget! It's because of that tragic day we are Quilts of Valor. For those who don't know how it came about here goes; In 2003 a nurse whose son came back from Afghanistan with the demons of war was wrapped in a quilt by her. She saw the demons leaving him. So she thought that if it helped him why not other returning military. So since the inception of QOV nationwide we have given 228,000 quilts and 11,000 volunteers. There is a chapter in Canada and Australia. So it's going beyond our borders. We locally have 60+ who work with me. Since I started in May of 2012, locally we have given 1,214 as of yesterday. I am so proud of each and every one of you. I am proud to call you all a friend. I couldn't be more blessed. I truly want to thank all of you for stepping up and meeting all our goals. We average 250 quilts a year. You are all unbelievable and my gratitude goes out to all.

So November 3rd is coming quickly. The award ceremony is at the Botanical Center in Rock Island. Times: 12:30 and 2:30. We have 93 vets invited. If you want to be blessed come see what we do.

I couldn't do any of this without you!

So from a grateful and humble heart, Terry Austin QC QOV 309-797-8584
