QUILT APPRAISER—CHRIS MOLINE

Chris Moline is an AQS certified appraiser of quilted textiles, an assistant to the AQS Appraiser Certification Committee and an experienced restorer. Chris has been an avid quilter for more years than she willingly admits and has produced award winning quilts. Additionally, her knowledge of quilting and fabric history is quite extensive. Her quilt collection spans a variety of techniques, styles, and experiences. She presents several lectures and workshops designed to inspire quilters to learn more about quilts and quilting, stretch their creative ability, experiment with traditional as well as contemporary styles and techniques, and improve their productivity.

Chris will be appraising quilts from noon Thursday, September 20 through Saturday, September 22 at a fee of $55 per appraisal.

Why get your quilt appraised?

1. To determine insurance value, fair market value, or donation value.
2. To determine values to settle estates or the division of property as in a divorce.
3. To determine replacement value (insurance) when a show requires an appraisal.
4. To accompany a gift.
5. Curiosity.

MEET OUR FEATURED QUILTERS

Featured Quilter 2020 Beulah Spaulding

Beulah was a sewer since she was big enough to reach the treadle. As her children were growing up, she would make their clothes as well as some of her own. She has always had a creative side. To keep busy she would do hand embroidery of States, State birds, flowers, and then one day her mom said that would look great as a quilt. This started her on her quilting journey. Interesting, Beulah did not know her mother quilted until she started quilting. The year was 1977.

She does all her quilting on a frame made by her grandfather for her grandmother. He made it from left over wood and sawhorses.

When asked how many quilts she has made, she can't say. She does have 60 at her house right now. She has given away more than she can remember. She has made them for her children, her grandchildren. Beulah has given away many for charity as well. Once her sister asked her for a quilt for a charity raffle and it raised $1400.

Featured Quilter 2022 Gloria Kloos

Gloria has been a sewer all her life and quilting since around 1983. One of her first quilts was one she made for her son as he was going off to college. It was in Illinois States colors of orange and blue in a double Irish Ring pattern.

Her sister got her engaged when she asked Gloria to take a class at a quilt store that was up on 43rd Avenue in Moline.

Gloria loves color and needs the design to speak to her. She worked on this year's raffle quilt. She is drawn to unique patterns and fabric. Gloria loves the thrill of a new pattern. She is liking Kaffe Fassat and string quilting right now.

Gloria feels that it is quite an honor to be the 2022 featured quilter. But she feels that there are many deserving quilters in the guild. She has helped with Quilt Get-A-Way, Second Hand Treasures and worked on the Block to Raffle. Gloria loves the social aspect of getting together with likeminded quilters and seeing what others are doing.

Meet your judges for the 2022 Great River Quilt Show

Sue Cortese (pronounced Cor-tease) grew up in Buffalo, NY. She is a quilter, fabric dyer, teacher, vendor, long arm quilter and a Certified Judge. She started quilting 1995 (dyeing fabric shortly afterwards) when living in Green River, WY. Her curiosity in judging and what makes a winning quilt began after she helped with the first “Quilting on the Green” quilt show. Moving to Holland, MI in 1998, she became an active member West Michigan Quilt Guild. That led to part-time job at a quilt shop, cutting fabric and teaching. Teaching fabric dyeing snowballed into selling hand-dyed fabric, starting her own company (SELC Fabrics LLC), and vending at quilt shows.

Initially Sue planned to make a quilt in every style and/or pattern. This quest led her to taking a lot of classes and learning many different techniques. She enjoys hand quilting as well as machine quilting, applique as well as piecing, ...there is room to love it all. She sees judging as another way to encourage quilters, as well as promoting the art of quilting. She has been honored with an invitation for traveling exhibition curator by Nancy Crow, placing 2 nd in the AQS Paducah Show, amongst others.

Linda M. Scholten is a quilter and quilt judge who has been quilting since 1975. Since her certification as a quilt judge in 1984, she has judged many shows, ranging from very small local shows to large national shows, judging many of the shows several times each. She has served in several different capacities in the local, regional and national quilt organizations of which she has been a member. Her quilts and wall hangings range from traditional to art quilt, in no particular order—she enjoys the freedom to react with cloth as the moment and her inspiration demand. Her works have been shown internationally; she has won several contests and ribbons for her quilt making. Her works have been published in several books and publications, and her quilt “Garden Party” has been chosen to be printed in the 2023 Quilt Art Engagement Calendar. Other interests include collecting and repairing vintage and antique sewing machines (particularly Singers), repairing sewing machines, beading, and enjoying life with her husband and Perdita, her black cat.

Why Hire a Certified Quilt Show Judge?

Breadth of Knowledge

Certified Judges study art, design, and quilting styles and techniques, as well as quilt history so they can bring a well-rounded knowledge base to the judging table. They work hard to stay informed of all the current trends in the quilting world, while never losing sight of the rich heritage of the art.

Specific, Constructive Feedback

Certified Judges provide specific, objective feedback to entrants. They follow a systematic protocol for a complete survey of each quilt. Their comments focus on both the aspects of the quilts that are done well and those that could be improved. Their goal is to help entrants gain confidence in their skills as well as to consider how to strengthen the quality of their future work.

Ethical and Professional

Certified Judges adhere to the NACQJ code of ethics and exhibit a high degree of professionalism in their work.
