Established 1983

August 2025

P. O. Box 2636, Davenport, Iowa 52809-2636

President's Message By Dawn Thompson

We just had our summer celebration. Wasn't it a fun time to hear everyone's discussion with the questions that were left on the tables? Thanks to Diana and your program crew for organizing this celebration. Everyone I spoke with said they enjoyed the festivities. I hope you all enjoyed your Independence Day Celebration. Mark and I had a pretty quiet uneventful day since our kids were all out of town. That's okay though because sometimes we all just need a little calm in our lives. I can't believe that next year will be our country's 250th birthday. I won't forget the 200th birthday because that's the year I graduated from high school.

I'm hoping that you have signed up for this month's classes with our speaker, Roxane Lessa. She has some exciting classes she will be teaching. I signed up for the color play class and am excited to see what her inspiration and ideas will be.

Please be sure and sign up for the bus trip to the Madison Quilt Show on Friday September 5th. If we don't get enough people for the bus by August 5th we won't be able to get our full refund back. You can invite a friend or two to go with you if you like. The cost is $55.00.

Roxane Lessa was a professional ballet dancer before she transitioned to the visual arts. She has shown her work nationally and internationally in many shows, winning awards. Her inspiration comes from many sources: botanicals, landscapes, Italy, water, and galaxies. Sensual color, lines, and textures are a common thread.

Roxane Lessa

Her afternoon program will be about Making Quilting Decisions to help us figure out how to choose free motion designs for our quilts. The evening will be "What Every Quilter Needs to Know Before They Sew," discussing the 3 design flaws to avoid when making any quilt.-

QUILTS OF VALOR

I hope you are all enjoying the summer so far. Too hot for me. Very thankful for air conditioning. Lots of reasons to stay in and sew.

Halfway through the 2025 year and we have awarded 87 quilts to well deserving veterans so far.

As of this day (the 11th) we have 38 on the list for November. So no rest for the wicked huh.

For February it is QOV's turn for the sew day. I was impressed by what charity did, so we will follow in their footsteps. We are always in need of pillowcases. So I will bring to guild, cut pillowcase kits, or you can just make some and give them to me at guild or the February meeting. This way we don't have to bring your sewing machine out in the cold weather.

For "Birdies for Charity" the John Deere Tournament, we will receive $2,070.00 plus the bonus from Deere in October. A huge thank you to all who donated. The thanks you's will come after I receive the check. That is not quite half of what we go through every year to thank our veterans. Thank you for your generosity.

A Thank you from a veteran and his wife:

Dear Janette,

Tom and I were so touched by your gift of the most beautiful quilt you made for his quilts of valor ceremony. It was his "Welcome home" he always needed to hear and he will cover himself with the warmth and love you sewed into this exquisite piece of art. Sincerely Pat

Dear Janette,

My heart is full, there are no words to express how much this quilt means to me. I was so impressed with your craftsmanship. You are a talented quilter and I can see now how much time you put into it. I will cherish it forever. oops, tornado warnings just went off in our town, we are heading to the basement and I will have my quilt under my arm. I thank you. May God bless you for your kind heart. Yours truly, CPLT Tom W

It's notes like this that have us make another quilt. This veteran was the one on his bio that said he couldn't unsee what he saw. So if we can heal one heart..... we have done our job!

Thank you all for what you do to cover our veterans. As you can read they are truly appreciated.

Humbly grateful, Terry Austin 309-912-1063

A new monthly sit-and-sew focused on Modern Quilting is in the works!

We are calling it the Mod Squad Quilters and any interested guild members are welcome.

- Use of bold colors
- High contrast and graphic areas of solid colors
- Improvisational piecing
- Minimalism
- Expansive negative space
- Asymmetry
- Updating of classic quilt designs
- Fresh, unique or contemporary aesthetic

If you'd like to learn more, just curious, or can't wait to get started...

Please come to our first sit-and-sew on

In the works for the future of Mod Squad Quilters will be challenges, demos, and more. "We're going to help each other learn."

Volunteer Spotlight

Debbie Schladt Vice-President

Debbie was born in Kansas and has eight siblings. She is married to Dan and has one daughter, one son and five granddaughters. She lived in Colorado Springs until she moved to Rock Island in 1973. She worked on the Rock Island Arsenal where she retired in 2011.

Debbie Schladt

She learned how to sew from her mother when she was a kid. She didn't take up quilting though until 2010 teaching herself. She became a member of the MVQG in 2011. She is currently serving as our Vice-President. She does a great job of coordinating the calendar for events for the Guild making sure that all the dates and locations are accurate. It can sometimes be a difficult task. She also is the Chairperson for Doll Quilts. She makes quilts for our Charity group and QOV as well. She also presents quilts for the Habitat home recipients when needed. She has her own quilting business. She was also in charge of Second Hand Treasurers for one of the past Quilt Shows and garage sales during Covid. Her favorite style of quilting is scrappy. Thank you Debbie for all your great service to our Guild.
