the place to come to learn things from the speakers, both national and local, that the program committee has worked hard to bring in for our benefit. My favorite part is the Show and Tell at the end of the meeting. Everyone of all skill levels, is welcome to show and tell. I love seeing the progression through the years of the beginning quilter improving with each project.

The July and December meetings are the best General Meetings I would suggest trying to get to know people. They are both potlucks and lend to people getting to know those at their table and the tables around them. They are the only meetings that offer more than the 10 minute break and any extra time you have before the meeting starts to be able to talk to others. 10-20 minutes is not enough time to get to know people.

There is a lot of "busy work" that takes place at the General Meeting. It is really hard to get to know anyone at these meetings. When I joined it took me a couple of months to realize this. I went to each of the sit and sew groups to find one that was a fit. Well, I found more than one. Usually there are some people the same, but mostly different people attending in each one. I have been trying to write about all the groups this year. If there is one that hasn't been written about yet, and you have questions, just ask me.

I am looking forward to getting to know new people at the potluck.

Doohickey Drawing

An Americanism dating from 1910-1915, a doohickey is a gadget; a dingus; a thingumabob; a nifty quilting tool that a quilter may want, has never heard of, or is too expensive to purchase.

Each month a new Doohickey is offered to our membership. It may be a new "cool" tool or it may be something tried and true; expensive or not so much. Tickets are $1.00 and monthly prizes are determined by the number of tickets sold the previous month. The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of the evening meeting.

June's doohickey drawingoops wasn't in the car so the July drawing is a Star Mag LED Flexilens with Base & clip

- 2 Super Bright daylight LEDs
- Extra large 2.0x magnifier
- Flexible arm for easy adjustment
- Freestanding & clip-on base

Our Mission:

Organized in 1983 to educate and encourage members in the quilting arts; to encourage high standards in color, design, and construction of the quilted medium, and to stimulate interest in quilting in the community.

July 2: Enjoy time to visit with other Guild members, delicious food, and entertainment at our annual July Pot Luck. Bring a dish of your choice to share – luncheon items to the afternoon pot-luck or appetizers and desserts to the evening meeting. Support your Guild friends with food sensitivities or allergies by including a recipe or list of ingredients along with your dish. Entertainment will feature a musical program presented by the 4Cs - Colleen Curry and Chris Clark.

August 6: MVQG member, Diane Murtha will present “Accept the Challenge, Win a Prize” - an informative and humorous perspective on Diane’s quilt challenge experiences, including a trunk and slide show, at the afternoon meeting, and “Challenges II– The Next Step” at the evening meeting, a presentation in which she will discuss tips based on her own challenge quilt project experiences.

September 3: Guild Challenge and officer installation.

October 8: Mark your calendars to attend the trunk shows presented by Linda Halpin (“Borders on Parade” and “1 x 1: Quilts Using 1 x 1 Half Square Triangles”). Sign-up sheets for Linda’s classes, Prairie Lilies (10/9) and Mexican Cross (10/10) will be available in the “L” at the July meeting.

Plan ahead for a new-fangled UFO Challenge Culminating with Prizes Awarded in January 2020: Your Program Committee will launch a fun format to motivate you to finish a few UFOs! We have adapted the American Patchwork and Quilting 2019 UFO CHALLENGE to push us to complete projects that have been languishing much too long, or any project that we’ve been aching to begin or to finish.

Download and print the UFO sign-up sheet from the MVQG website or pick one up at the July meeting.

Identify 5 projects you want to finish by the January 2020 meeting and fill out the sign-up form.

When making your lists, focus on simple, do-able, complete-able UFO’s, such as: adding labels and sleeves, finishing up bindings, gifts that were begun and you ran out of time, simple kits that were pushed to the back of the shelf, even doll quilt kits that you brought home from a meeting. This is probably not the time to take on your 9-year-old One Block Wonder!

Turn in your sign-up sheet at the July meeting along with the $5 entry fee to Sandie Cockerill. Late entries will be accepted in September and November, but the $5 fee will still apply.

We will randomly draw a number (1-5) at the July, September and November meetings to determine which project you’ll need to work on during the next two months.

Document your completion of your project (for example, take a picture on your phone) and present your documentation to Sandy Cockerill in September, November, and January.

If you complete your project designated for a 2-month period, your name will go into a pool for a prize.

Prizes will be awarded at the January meeting where the program will feature the great reveal of all your finished UFOs.

Have Fun!!! Get it done!!!

Quilt Demonstrators Needed for the Mississippi Valley Fair

The Mississippi Valley Fair will be celebrating their 100th year in August. They are reopening the Heritage House for this celebration and have invited us for Friday, August 2, 10-5, to sit and do handwork outside the Heritage House, to show people the different things that quilters would have done in the early 1900s.

We will have 2 antique wooden quilt frames set up to load and tie quilts for charity. We are also looking for people to do English Paper Piecing, hexies, yoyos, applique, hand quilting in a hoop (can be big stitch if wanted), and crazy quilting. It would be great if we could have at least one person doing each of these techniques throughout the day. It isn't necessary, but you can wear period clothes if you want.

There will be a sign-up sheet at the July meeting. It will be in 2 ½ hour shifts. If you will not be at the meeting call Julie Williams 563-650-7880 or Carol Schroeder 563-324-9344 to sign up for a demonstration time.

Friday August 2nd, 2019, there is free admission for those volunteering. Demonstration hours will be from 10-5 p.m. There will be a shade canopy set up for us to work under.

Hopefully you will find the day rewarding. Come to have fun!

SKILL BUILDERS

Due to popularity, the next Skill Builder workshop will feature Jane Darin's "FLOATING TILES" class. What a beautiful project, and the perfect opportunity to use those scraps we have been saving!

The next class is September 21st at the Butterworth Education Center 701-12th Ave. Moline from 9:00-3:00. Class fee is $15.00 payable to Jane. Lunch will be available for a suggested $5.00 donation.

The class is almost full, but get your name on the waiting list! Things always change. The sign-up list is in the "L" during Guild meetings, and supply lists are available (preferably by E-mail). For information call Hope Schroeder 563-505-0191 or email at Schroeder.r@mchsi.com

2019 MVQG Challenge

The theme for the 2019 MVQG Challenge is Wine and Chocolate. There is a $1.00 entry fee per challenge. Quilts must be no larger than 144 inches in circumference. You may use both wine and chocolate or either one. Bring your challenge to the September meeting. They will be displayed and voted on at the meeting that night. Top three vote getters will win gift certificates to Heartland Cottons in DeWitt, Iowa.

Now sit back, close your eyes and imagine your favorite cool glass of wine and decadent chocolate. What comes to mind? Maybe it's the colors or the actual objects. Maybe it's a place or a feeling. That's your quilt! Now create!

Birdies for Quilts of Valor

Once again Quad-City Quilts of Valor is participating in the "Birdies for Charity" fundraising program. If you were unable to attend the May Guild meeting, pledge forms will be available again at the July meetings. You can choose to return the form in the mail or hand it in at the July meeting and we will return it for you or you can make a pledge at the golf tournament or online at birdiesforcharity.com. There are 2 ways to make a pledge: 1. You can pledge a certain amount for each birdie you guess will be made during the John Deere Classic which will make you eligible to win a 2 year lease on a Lexus. Birdies for Charity will then send you an invoice billing you for your pledge and the amount of birdies made.; 2. You can pledge a dollar amount and include your payment with the form. You will still be eligible to win the car with this type of pledge so don't forget to guess a number of birdies. Either way you pledge, Quilts of Valor is a winner as 100% of pledge money is returned to us. Birdies for Charity will add to that amount 5-10% of our total pledges. This year we received around $1500 total. This is a major fundraiser for Quilts of Valor and we appreciate any support you can give. Many thanks to those who pledged last year making this fundraising such a success. Hurry! Time to participate is almost up! Must be received at the tournament office by July 12th. Quilts of Valor

Well for those that complained (I was one) about the winter, here we are half way thru June. Flag day just passed, one of my favorite days of the year. I love to see the cities covered in flags. So where is the time going?

Quilts of Valor work day is July 3rd 9-2.

We are frantically working to get the quilts done for November 3rd at the Botanical Center, a mere short 4 1/2 months away.

For those who are making the quilts for their vets, if you need help getting them done, please let me know. Just a reminder also, for those who turned in these names, if they had a change of address please let me know. You are all awesome! This job cannot be done without all of you.

A side note, I met with a new group for QOV up in Fulton, and they need a start. So we will be making some blocks for them. This will get them jump started so I don't have to cover that area. Hopefully on our meeting day we can start this for them.

On July 2nd Clayton, Denny, Janet, myself and Marian will be delivering the veterans who are the gravediggers on the Arsenal Island their QOV's. They are excited and humbled to get this recognition since they are the unsung heroes doing that job. It is our pleasure! So I will not be at the meeting in July, I will be busy serving some vets! So contact me if you have business for me.

A couple of thank yous:

Quilts of Valor foundation & Mrs. Terry Austin,

Ron adores his quilt. We both appreciate it very much. What a tribute to America's veterans. Thank you, Ron and Louise

Terry,

Thank you for the beautiful quilt that my husband received last Saturday!! He was very moved by the honor and surprise. Being a Korean Veteran he was never really thanked...he just came home and went back to work. You and your organization are doing great things! Thank you, Chuck and Charlotte

So as you can see these notes touch my heart and pull at my emotions. They humble me. This IS why we do what we do.

So keep up the great work! I am proud of all of you.

So from a grateful and humbled heart, Terry Austin QC QOV
