Expressions in Rhythm Studio observes a dress code which allows your instructor to evaluate their silhouette to help them with correct form, while still maintaining modesty.

Hair for all dancers should be secured and out of their face. Ballet Expressers with hair past their ears should wear their hair in a bun.

Street clothes such as jeans, jean shorts, play clothes, or school clothes are not suitable dance attire. Each class has a set uniform/dress code/class attire, which can be purchased through the EIR Studio Store after enrollment.

Street shoes are not permitted in the studio since they can cause extra wear and tear to the specialty dance floor material. Please change into the appropriate shoes that have been defined for each class once you arrive. In turn, we recommend that shoes worn in the studio are not worn outside to help extend the life of the shoes.

For safety reasons, dancers may only wear earrings under 5mm and no other jewelry.

Costumes can be a distraction and safety hazard and are not allowed in class, unless specifically noted in the class description, such as Musical Theatre.

Cover up clothing is recommended when wearing tights and leotards outside the studio to help protect and extend the life of this class attire.
