ORDER

RAMON E. REYES, JR., U.S.M.J.:

Pro se plaintiff Robert Malek has filed several letters and left several voicemail messages with the Court in which he complains that some of his filings to the Court's Box.com account have not been uploaded to the dockets of these cases. To avoid any further issues with respect to filing and docketing, Mr. Malek is hereby directed to submit all of his filings by mail addressed to the undersigned at Theodore Roosevelt Courthouse, 225 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, New York 11201. Once received, Magistrate Judge Reyes will ensure that all filings are promptly and correctly docketed.¹ Mr. Malek's email address has been added to the docket of each case so he will receive prompt notice when his filings have been docketed.

Mr. Malek has also called the chambers of both Judge Gonzalez and Magistrate Judge Reyes, and left several voicemail messages concerning, inter alia, his planned filings. Mr. Malek is hereby reminded that such ex parte communications are not permitted and such phone calls and voicemail messages must cease immediately. All communications with the Court should be either in open court or in writing.

SO ORDERED

RAMON E. REYES, JR.
United States Magistrate Judge

¹ In this regard, Mr. Malek has indicated that he has sent several subpoenas to the Court, presumably to be "so ordered." The Court's Box.com account has been checked again, and there are no such subpoenas therein. Mr. Malek is requested to mail the subpoenas to Magistrate Judge Reyes at the address above, and they will be considered.
