

To create the thick pelage around the animal's shoulders, glue small pieces of fur, or cotton balls that have been sprayed brown, into place. (Cut each cotton ball into quarters.) If desired, cut away the poster board tail and glue one-inch pieces of yarn or macramé. Encourage the children to finish both sides of their buffalo. (Refer to the illustration of the completed craft.)

