

Donations and Gifts

The Library welcomes the donations of book and other resources from individuals and organizations with the following guidelines:

The Library has the right to refuse any materials that are not in accordance with Library objectives and policies.

All gift material, upon official acceptance by the James L. Hamner Public Library, becomes the property of the library and no conditions may be imposed on materials after acceptance.

Gifts are accepted with the understanding that the library, if it cannot use them, may dispose of them as they see fit.

Upon receipt of a cash gift for the purchase of memorial books or collections, the selection will be made by the librarian in consultation with the donor. If the donor specifies how a cash gift is to be used, the library may refuse to accept the gift if it is deemed not in the best interests of the library due to type of material, space on the shelves, or any other reason. Regardless, all cash gifts will be used as deemed appropriate to the library's needs at the discretion of the staff and Board of Trustees, bearing in mind the intent of the donor. Items purchased with cash gifts become the property of the library. The cash gift is accepted with the understanding that the library may dispose of the purchased item as it sees fit.
