

ONLINE & IN PERSON TRAINING

For all Public Safety Personnel
in the United States

Tolerance, Diversity & Anti-Bias Training

The purpose of the course are for public safety employees to further develop their understanding of cultural differences including religion, traditions, cultures, and perspectives. The course will provide positive connections to promote unbiased decision making to garner improved community engagement and relations. Additionally, students will evaluate how respect and fairness play an integral part in building trust and accountability both internally and externally.

The course is provided tuition free by The Kim Turner Foundation and provides 8- hours of continuous professional credit (CPT) for California public safety agencies and Michigan. See certification numbers below.
