Ricky Donnell Ross, better known as "Freeway" Rick Ross, is one of those rare figures whose experience as a drug kingpin has lead him to a life of rebuilding the community in which he once helped destroy. Sentenced to life in prison in federal prison, Rick Ross vowed to change the community and today, Ross is a free man. He now applies the passion that helped him build an empire to helping the youth, Ross has been given a second chance to uplift his community by giving back through mentoring and sharing his story. Some people call him a legend, others call him a positive mentor; all things considered Freeway Rick Ross is an icon!

"RALLY FOR CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM"
RALLY FOR JUSTICE, RALLY FOR CHANGE
AUGUST 19TH
@ 11 AM - 1 PM
LAS VEGAS CITY HALL 495 S MAIN ST, LAS VEGAS, NV 89101

In the State of Nevada, inmates who are granted parole must have a verified address. As a result, many inmates end up expiring their term in prison instead being released. When they are released they still do not have housing, or the resources needed to survive. This puts them in a live or die mode immediately upon release and most times it leads them right back in jail. After looking into the City's Zoning Ordinances regarding Transitional Housing for those who are on parole or probation, we found them to be over-regulating. Currently there are no licensed Transitional Housing Facilities in Las Vegas and this speaks directly to our point of over regulation. If we are to be serious about criminal justice reform, we must take action to make sure City Ordinances allow for rehabilitation services to be readily available to our ex-offender population.

FUNDRAISING FOR CHANGE

In the State of Nevada over 300 inmates go over their parole date due to lack of approved housing. Most end up expiring their term in prison. This not only hurts the inmate by not allowing them to get out on parole, but it is also a contributing factor to prison overcrowding and the extra money spent on housing an inmate who could be out of custody providing for themselves

We are committed to solving the parolee housing crisis by creating these fundraising events to generate money to purchase houses that we can use for our Parolee Housing Program. We will not stop until there is enough Transitional Housing for inmates who have been granted parole but lack housing. We will focus on first-time non-violent offenders but will accept others on a case-by-case basis.

By sponsoring this event you're directly making a positive impact in the fight to reform our broken Criminal Justice System.
