

Standard Terms and Conditions of Sale

- All material is Non Cancellable / Non Returnable
- ACC manufactures to IPC 620 standards unless customer provides alternative manufacturing guidelines at the time of the request for quote. If alternative manufacturing standards are supplied after that, prices are subject to change if applicable.
- Quotation is available for acceptance until expiration date. After expiration date, prices and lead-time are subject to change.
- Quotation is based on drawings provided, any additional requirements, testing, and or QA requirements may result in additional cost.
- Quotation may not include the cost of any tariffs which may be incurred and passed on in fulfilling an order based on this quote.
- We reserve the right to increase the selling price by the actual material cost increase, if we incur a material increase from the supplier.
- Delivery dates are estimated and are subject to change. Lead times may vary based on vendor stock and production schedule. Lead times are established after receipt of order.
- All quotations are F.O.B. origin.
