

Having no answers, wanting all answers, the only future is without questions.

Our faces radiate smiles, our eyes affix,

Magnetic sensual attraction, familiarity, impossible to suppress.

Originating in deepest sleep, energy pulls us someplace dangerous.

We flow to future great joy, inevitable pain included, accepted.

Closeness brings acceptance, desire, craving, with many questions.

Want to know everything, merge separate lives, accept without knowing.

This we take, with willing ultimate submission.

Having no answers, wanting all answers, the only future is without questions.

The kind words we text, our seductive vocal rhythm, the beauty in our photos.

Energy, actions, and effort confirm acceptance of unknown past.

Future potential, obsession, intimate desires penetrate our deepest dreams.

Sexy pictures confirm spiritual intensity, empowering passion, diminishing resistance.

Imagining our sounds, breathing together, kissing intently, white touches suntan.

Having no answers, wanting all answers, the only future is without questions.
