

THE BACKYARD AT FORD HILL

A CURATED LIVE MUSIC AND STORYTELLING EXPERIENCE

This is our

MISSION

Backyard at Ford Hill exists to create intimate, artist-centric live music experiences that connect songwriters and audiences in an authentic, welcoming, and inspiring setting

The Backyard at Ford Hill is a small, curated songwriter series we host on our property in Central, South Carolina. It really is our backyard. Our goal is to create an exceptional experience for both the artist and the audience. We keep things simple and genuine — no pressure, no noise, just a great night of live music among people who truly appreciate it.

Because this isn't a commercial venue, we're not burdened with the typical overhead of rent, staff, or licensing fees. That freedom allows us to focus entirely on hospitality, sound quality, and artist comfort. We're fans first, and the crowd that attends shares that same love for songwriters and storytelling. The art comes first.

We typically host a show every two to three months to keep each event special. For the artist, we offer on-site lodging for the team, rehearsal space, and a relaxed environment to unwind before or after the show.
