About Me

Hello! I have a passion for creating moments and memories that last. I enjoy seeing those around me smile through my sense of humor or through giving in my own way. I feel like God placed me here to help, to encourage, to motivate, and to step outside of the box. I never tried to fit in, but I have always strived to be a trendsetter in the way people think and behave.

My Favorites

Color: Royal Blue

Animal: Dog

Hobby: Decorating/
Landscaping

Food: Italian

You Can Help!

You can help people that are less fortunate have beautiful moments to Capture milestones in their lives. A family with a disabled child can have the birthday party they deserve. A single mother struggling to survive daily can celebrate Mother's Day or enjoy the holidays without stress.
