Monthly Board Meeting

7:00 pm, Thursday, October 12, 2023

The monthly meeting of the Durham Park Association was called to order at 7:02 pm by President Scott Porter with the following board members present

President Scott Porter (SP)

Secretary Shannon Schulze (SS)

Treasurer Robert Edwards (RE) Activities Kara Edwards (KE) Maintenance Chair Dan Grubbs (DG)

Absent Members: Vice President Lynn Calhoun (LC)

Minutes: SS was not present at the last meeting, will get notes from KE to type up.

Treasurer Report: Assessment Report is updated, currently have about 70% paid. Due to turn over with the bookkeeper and the postal service, this years assessments did not go as smoothly as in the past.

Maintenance: DG stated that he changed the oil on the mower and sharpened the blades. The playscape needs a few new screws and a new board replaced. Anything that needs to be replaced will be done. The pool is still being maintained year round, looking at getting a quote on heating the pool. Additional winter only memberships could be an option.

Activities: KE discussed the Halloween hayride. Leander feed is now charging $5 per bail after they have been purchased and then returned. KE will also purchase waters for the riders. Thursday, December 14th will be the neighborhood Christmas party.

New Business: Game Wardens have been contacted regarding the trapping. They have come out and walked the park. Will continue to monitor and collect evidence.

Old Business: KE stated that the pool closing is waiting on John Michael to winterize it. SP stated that the elections are coming up in January. Candidate statements need to be produced 30 days before the election. The at large position and treasurer are up for re-election. A fall newsletter needs to be sent out.

Public Forum: None
