

"Romantic Mood"

In a heartache there is nothing,
once you fall down, you get up with it
thinking you gonna die,
now patiently looking through the sky

You will never know what the darkness is for until the Light is knocking on your door

"Romantic Mood"

Too long the never ending circle
feeling like a never ending joke
the mercy you're not able to give is the mercy you're going to need most

So chew, chew my Heart
as a gum

Chew it till I got none

Till my eyes get blind

Till the devil and angels cry

"Romantic Mood"

In a heartache there is nothing, once you fall down, you get up with it

thinking you gonna die,
chewed hearts always fine, filled lies get blind

when the devil and angels cry.

"Romantic Mood"

And even if you chew my heart as gum I would still believe in Love.
