Notes for your first Status Meeting

A status meeting is when your care team meets to discuss your needs and how each member of your care team can support you as you progress through the program. Here is a space where you can write notes and questions during your first month in the program so you can remember to ask them at your first Status Meeting.
