

Kelsey Bye

PROFILE SUMMARY

Fun loving millennial oenophile; fledgling winemaker.

EDUCATION

University of California, Davis

Continuing and Professional Education Courses

- Advanced Tasting & Sensory Evaluation of Wine (2019)
- Establishing and Managing a Small Vineyard (2019)
- Successful Home Winemaking (2018)
- OIV Wine Marketing Program (2018)
- Sensory Evaluation of Wine (2018)

Court of Master Sommeliers

International Culinary Center in Campbell, California

- Passed Introductory Sommelier Course & Examination (2017)

University of California, Berkeley

Mass Communications B.A. (2009)

Legal Studies B.A. (2009)

- Dissertation on Political Bias in American Media
- 3.75 GPA

CONTACT DETAILS

Personal website: www.kelseybye.com

Company website: www.spotsonaleopard.com

Number: 510-926-0688

Email: kelsey.bye@gmail.com

RESEARCH & EXPERIENCE

- Manager of a small vineyard in Benicia, California. Responsible for all aspects of soil management, grape growing, harvesting and winemaking.
- Traveled to 20+ countries in past three years exploring various wine regions, researching wine styles and studying winemaking practices from around the world.
- Former communications professional and broadcast television news reporter. Currently owner of online retail store selling unique wine and gift baskets: www.spotsonaleopard.com

JUST FOR FUN

"Winemaker for a Day"

Raymond Vineyards - St. Helena, California (2017)

- Experimented with wine blending techniques and developed a Bordeaux style blend for personal consumption.

Mobile Wine Bottling Assistant

Riggers Loft - Richmond, California (2017)

- Coordinated multi-person assembly line to help winery fill wine bottles, cork bottles, add foils and labels to bottles, and package bottles for international shipping.