A Brief History

Benjamin Harrison, affectionately known as Ben or Bennie, was born in 1857 in Brunswick County, Virginia. Benjamin grew up on the small Harrison Farm in rural Ante, Brunswick County, Virginia with his siblings John, James, Samuel, Sallie, and Richard.

Benjamin married Mary "Mollie" Powell on Saturday, March 2, 1878, in Brunswick County, Virginia. Mary's parents were Harriett Phipps and father unknown.

Benjamin and Mary lived in a rural area off Brandy Creek Road, in the unincorporated community of Ante, within the Powellton District of Brunswick County, Virginia. Brunswick County, established in 1720, was formed from parts of Prince George, Surry, and Isle of Wight counties.

Benjamin and Mary's children were:

THE CHILDREN

Research of the 1880-1950 census records shows that the majority of Benjamin and Mary's children settled and married in both Brunswick and Greenville Counties, Virginia.
