DANIEL HARRISON

Daniel Harrison was found in the 1900 US Federal Census.

Listed in the Harrison household was his father Benjamin “Ben or Bennie” Harrison, his mother Mary “Mollie” Powell-Harrison, his siblings Claudia Harrison, Arthur Harrison, Vanderbilt “Van” Harrison, Eddie Harrison, Gracie Harrison, Mary Harrison, and Harriett Harrison.

According to the 1910 United States Federal Census, Daniel Harrison was incorrectly listed as "Aniel Harrison", a misspelling attributed to the census taker.

Daniel Harrison was listed as a 26-year-old mulatto male, born circa 1884 in Virginia, and was identified as the head of the household. His wife's name was misspelled and listed “Donie Harrison” instead of “Donia Harrison”. His wife, Donia Harrison, was listed as being 24 years old, born circa 1886 in Virginia. Daniel and Donia lived in the Belfield District of Greenville County, Virginia.

In the 1910 United Federal Census, his children were listed as Mamie Mendoza Harrison, Jessie Harrison, and Gracie Harrison. Mamie, whose name was previously misspelled as "Mondosie," in the census was born about 1906 and listed as 4 years old. Jessie was born about 1908 and listed as 2 years old, while Gracie was born about 1910 and listed as just one month old.

Gracie Harrison's death certificate contains several misspellings, including her surname as "Harris" instead of "Harrison", and her father's name as "Daniel Harris" instead of "Daniel Harrison". Her mother's name was “Donnie Easton” instead of “Donia Easter-Harrison”. According to the certificate, Gracie was born in April 1910 and passed away on Thursday, July 6, 1911, in Richmond, Henrico, Virginia, at the age of 1 year and 3 months. She had been residing in Richmond for 7 weeks prior to her death. A doctor attended to Gracie from July 2, 1911, to July 6, 1911, and last saw her alive on July 5, 1911. The cause of death was listed as Lobar Pneumonia, with a secondary contributory cause of Elis-colitis.

Daniel Harrison passed away on Saturday, October 25, 1913, in Powellton, Brunswick County, Virginia, at the age of 32. Born about 1881, his death record listed his name as "Daniell Harrison," a minor misspelling. Additionally, his parents were listed as Ben Harrison (a nickname for Benjamin Harrison) and Marry Harrison (misspelled from Mary Powell). The cause of Daniel's death was tuberculosis.

In the 1920 census, Daniel Harrison's children, Mamie Mendoza Harrison and Jessie Harrison, were found living in the household of their aunt and uncle, Wheeler Easter and Beatrice Easter. Mamie and Jessie were listed as their niece and nephew, respectively. Wheeler Easter, born as Doctor Wheeler Easter, was the brother of Donia Easter-Harrison, Daniel's wife and the children's mother. Wheeler and Donia's parents were William Easter and Mary Jane Easter.
