

BYLAWS

PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL

As amended March 17, 2019

Article I – Membership

A. Baptized Membership – Baptized members shall include all unconfirmed baptized children of communicant members of the congregation, children baptized at Peace Lutheran Church who are not under the spiritual care of another pastor, and baptized adults who are under the spiritual care of the pastor of Peace Lutheran Church.

B. Communicant Membership

- 1. Meet the qualifications stated in Article III, Section B, of the Constitution.
2. By Confirmation: Confirmation itself being a reception into church membership, all who are received by this rite become communicant members.
3. By Transfer: Persons coming with a communicant letter of transfer from a congregation in church fellowship, provided they conform in all respects to the requirements of membership of this congregation, shall be received by the Board of Elders, who, in consultation with the Pastor, may approve the transfer.
4. By Profession of Faith: Other persons shall submit their application to the Pastor and having given satisfactory evidence of their qualification for communicant membership may be approved by the Board of Elders.

C. Voting Membership

1. Meet qualifications stated in Article III, Section C, of the Constitution.
2. It shall be the duty of every voting member to attend the Voters Assemblies. Failure to attend hinders the work of the Kingdom of Christ. By failing to attend, a member also waives their right to cast their vote at that meeting. They shall prayerfully consider nomination for office, committee appointments, etc., gladly and willingly as a call from their Savior.

D. Synodical Membership – This congregation shall be affiliated with and support the work of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and shall send its Pastor, a lay delegate and other called workers, as required by the District, to the Convention of the Northwest District.

Article II – Office of the Keys

A. Administration

1. It is the duty of the Pastor(s) and the Board of Elders to be concerned with the spiritual welfare of the congregation. Therefore, all actions involving termination of communicant membership shall be prayerfully considered. Communicant membership may be terminated in any of the following ways:

- a. A request for a transfer to a sister congregation may be acted on by the Pastor(s) and reported to the next meeting of the Board of Elders, providing that the reason for the request is not a quarrel or disagreement with the congregation or any members thereof.
 - b. The Pastor(s) and Elders may act upon a request for peaceful release from membership after consulting with the member, and such action reported to the next Church Council meeting.
 - c. If a member fails to attend a Worship Service for the period of one calendar year and efforts of the Pastor(s) and Elders to encourage attendance, transfer, and peaceful release or to establish the whereabouts of the member are fruitless, they shall be declared self-excluded and their name shall be removed from the membership roster. A member may, at their request, and for valid reason, remain on the membership list.
 - d. A member who adheres to false doctrine or practices immorality may be removed by excommunication.
2. A member who requests a transfer or release of membership by reason of a quarrel or disagreement with the congregation, or any member thereof, shall meet with the Pastor(s) and/or Elders, and the quarrel resolved or a mutual forgiveness effected. The request then may be granted in a spirit of fellowship, if so desired.
3. If it is reported to the Pastor(s) or Elders that a member is straying from the path of righteousness or practicing false doctrine, they shall act in accordance with Matthew 18:15-20. If said report has substance, they shall fraternally admonish the member, and encourage them to renounce their error. If an erring member refuses to submit to admonition or to recognize their error, they may be placed under Church Discipline. Church Discipline is a means by which the church expresses loving concern for the spiritual welfare of a member by impressing on the member the serious consequences of persistent error. Church Discipline is effected by suspending the rights and privileges of membership, specifically: partaking of the Lord's Supper, performing the duties of an office, serving the congregation as an usher, Sunday School teacher, or in any other position, or exercising the right to vote. Fellowship and attendance at Worship Services is encouraged. Church Discipline is a temporary measure. If, after the completion of the three steps of Matthew 18:15-20, the member rejects fraternal admonition and persist in their error, the Pastor(s) and Elders shall present the matter to a Voters Assembly for the termination of membership by excommunication as directed in 1 Corinthians 5:1-13. At the discretion of the Pastor(s) and Elders this may be done in lieu of, or following, a period of Church Discipline, and at a regular or special Voters Assembly.
4. Termination of membership by any of the means enumerated herein terminates all rights as a member and all claims upon the property of the congregation.
5. If, by the grace of God, a person recognizes their error and desires reinstatement, they may do so by profession of faith and be accepted into fellowship in the spirit of II Corinthians 2:6-11.

Article III – Church Council

A. Membership of the Council

1. The Church Council shall consist of ten elected member: President, Vice President, Secretary, Chairpersons from the Boards of: Elders, Trustees, Evangelism, Stewardship, Parish Education, Youth, and Christian Education. The Senior Pastor, Principal, and Treasurer shall serve as ex-officio members of the Church Council.
2. All Church Council members and Board members must be voting members of the congregation. Council members shall not be present or participate in decisions or discussions where they have a perceived conflict of interest.
3. Board chairpersons may appoint another board member as a delegate to act on their behalf if unable to attend a council meeting.

B. Terms of Offices

1. The elected officers are elected for two year terms.
2. The terms for President and Vice President shall be staggered such that their terms do not end in the same year.
3. The Vice President shall serve as President in the event that the President of the congregation is not able to perform his duties.

C. Meetings of the Church Council

1. The Church Council usually meets the second Tuesday of each month. The President, the Senior Pastor, or any two members of the Council may call special meetings.
2. The Church Council meetings are open to the congregation. Reports and proposed action items should be presented in writing to the President the week prior to the meeting. The President shall provide an agenda and copies of reports and proposed action items to all members of the Council Sunday prior to the meeting. Agenda items may be added at the meeting upon majority consent of the Council.

D. Duties and Responsibilities of the Church Council

1. It shall be the duty of the Church Council to administer the affairs of the congregation and to review all the procedures, progress and problems, and to be the custodian of the Church Mission.

Article IV – Voters Assembly

A. Regular Meetings of the Voters Assembly - Regular meetings of the Voters Assembly shall be held the last Sunday of January, the third Sunday in April, May, and October after the last morning worship service, but may be rescheduled by the Church Council. If this occurs the Church Council shall reschedule. Meetings shall be announced the preceding two Sundays.

B. Special Meetings of the Voters Assembly – Special meetings of the Voters Assembly may be called by the Church Council, the Senior Pastor or the President by having them announced in the manner prescribed for regular meetings or by issuing notice to the voting members by e-mail or by mail one week prior to the meeting.

C. Properly Convened Meetings

- 1. Every regular Voters Meeting shall be announced in the Sunday Worship Service, and a notice placed in the bulletin for the two Sundays immediately prior to the meeting. Whenever a meeting has been announced properly, it shall be considered a properly convened and legal meeting capable of transacting business, and a majority vote is sufficient to carry a motion. All members present at a properly called meeting shall constitute a quorum. The Secretary of the congregation will maintain a documented list of all members present.
- 2. For a Voters Meeting acting on the amending of the Articles of Incorporation or the Constitution, authorizing the construction of buildings, purchase or sale of property, acting on the removal of any person from office under Article VI, Section E of the Constitution, an affirmative vote of two thirds of the members present shall be required for the adoption of the resolution.

D. Order of Business – A properly convened Voters Assembly shall conduct business in the following order:

- 1. Opening prayer and/or devotion
- 2. Reading of the previous Voters Meeting Minutes
- 3. Board and Committee reports
- 4. Old/new business
- 5. Special concerns, i.e. budget in April, elections in May, etc.

Article V – Duties of Called Workers

A. Office of the Pastor

1. To act as the spiritual leader of the congregation and its component and auxiliary groups;
2. To equip the members to carry out a team ministry as they minister to one another, to all Christians and to all the people of the world;
3. To order and officiate at the worship services of the congregation; proclaim and teach the Word of God and administer the sacraments; minister to the congregation, congregational groups and individuals; express the ministry of the entire congregation to church and world when possible and appropriate;
4. To conduct and to cause to be conducted any ceremony or rite of the church, having its foundation in and arising out of the Holy Scripture and Lutheran Doctrine, in manner and in content, so as to be wholly in agreement with and offer no conflict or contradiction to Holy Scripture and Lutheran Doctrine as published in the Book of Concord, 1580. To wit is here-with included a formal statement, of policy and practice, as this clause has historically and still continues to pertain to Marriage ceremonies:

The marriage policy of Peace Lutheran Church and School, a member congregation of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, is and always has been consistent with the Synod's beliefs on marriage. We believe that marriage is a sacred union of one man and one woman (Genesis 2:24-25), and that God gave marriage as a picture of the relationship between Christ and His bride the Church (Ephesians 5:32). The official position of The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, as set forth in 1998 Res. 3-21 (“To Affirm the Sanctity of Marriage and to Reject Same-Sex Unions”), is that homosexual unions come under categorical prohibition in the Old and New Testaments (Leviticus 18:22, 24; 20:13; 1 Corinthians 6:9-10; 1 Timothy 1:9-10) as contrary to the Creator's design (Romans 1:26-27). These positions and beliefs can be found on the LCMS website, along with other statements, papers, and reports on the subject of homosexuality and same-sex civil unions and “marriage.”

Our pastors, at Peace Lutheran Church and School, will not officiate over any marriages inconsistent with these beliefs, and our church and/or school property may not be used for any marriage ceremony, reception or other activity that would be inconsistent with our beliefs and this policy.

5. To serve as an advisory member of all authorized groups of and within the congregation;
6. To keep a record of all his official acts which is to be and remain the property of the congregation.

B. Office of Principal

1. The Office of Principal is the authority conferred upon the principal by God, through a call of the congregation, to perform the duties of the office, in all its parts, according to the Word of God and the needs of the congregation.
2. To represent the school whenever representation of the school, as a whole, is necessary and endeavor to work for the efficiency of the entire school.
3. Exercise the office in a climate of brotherly unity and serve as the educational leader of the school.
4. Lead colleagues in zeal for, and in devotion to, the school and its improvement as educational agency and a Christian institution.
5. Keep the Pastor(s) fully informed as to school activities and problems, counsel with the Pastor(s), and strive to manage and lead the school in accordance with the Pastor's spiritual advice, based on the Word of God.
6. Serve as executive advisor of the Board of Christian Education. Keep the board informed of the courses of study outlined by the Board for Parish Education of Synod, according to NLSA accreditation standards, and the local and State Department of Education guidelines.

This could include support for attendance at Circuit, District and Synodical Youth Gatherings, the procurement of speakers, programs and projects specifically designed to meet the needs of Junior High and Senior High youth.

4. PEACE LUTHERAN SCHOOL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FUND:

Income from this fund will be used to fund students whose families are in financial need, and as a result, unable to attend Peace Lutheran School. Priority shall be given to members of Peace Lutheran Church.

5. GROUNDS MAINTENANCE FUND:

Income from the fund will be used to provide for the landscape and lawn maintenance of Peace Lutheran Church and School property.

6. GENERAL FUND:

- A. These deposits will continue until the principal in the fund is five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). At this time only designated giving to the fund will be deposited. Expenditures from the income will be limited to ten percent (10%) of the interest received.
- B. This limit will continue until the principle in the fund is five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). After this limit in the principle is reached, expenditures will be limited to ninety percent (90%) of the interest received.

7. MISSION PLANTING FUND:

Income from this fund will be used for the support of mission congregations including the planting of new congregations and the support of congregations still on mission status with the Northwest District or the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

- C. Only income from these funds, other than the GROWTH/CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT FUND, shall be used for the purposes, projects and programs recommended by the Endowment Committee to the Church Council and approved by a simple majority of the Voters Assembly, provided that the purposes, projects and programs shall be consistent with the general reason for which these funds have been established. The list of approved purposes, projects and programs shall be distributed to the members of the congregation.
- D. At least annually, the Church Council shall make recommendations to the Voters Assembly regarding distribution of the income from these funds. None of the income or principal of these funds shall be distributed to the congregation's operating budget. The distribution of the income from these funds shall be determined by a simple majority of the Voters Assembly.
- E. Gifts and bequests may be made upon special terms or conditions or containing limitations or directions as to the use of the income from the gift provided that such are acceptable to Peace Lutheran Church and School. The Church Council shall submit at the next meeting of the Voters Assembly (or request a special meeting), its recommendation on the acceptability of such a gift or bequest. The acceptance of such a gift shall be a simple majority of the voting members present.
- F. All endowments shall be placed in one of the existing funds most closely related to its specific intended purpose.

- G. The minimum amount required to begin a new division of this endowment shall be one thousand dollars ($1000).

IV. DURATION

The Mission and Ministry Endowment shall continue in existence and be used as above provided so long as Peace Lutheran Church and School in Bremerton, Washington shall continue to exist. If Peace Lutheran Church and School shall cease to exist, then the assets constituting the endowment when Peace Lutheran Church and School ceases to exist shall become the property of a successor Lutheran Church, or, if no successor Lutheran Church, then it shall become the property of the Northwest District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod to be used for mission purposes (except that any and all properties held by the endowment upon special conditions, restrictions or limitations shall continue to be subject to the conditions, restrictions or limitations upon which such properties are held). If Peace Lutheran Church and School dissolves, it shall, at the time of such dissolution, have the right and duty to determine the existence of a successor Lutheran Church, if any, providing such successor Lutheran Church qualifies as an exempt organization under the Internal Revenue Code and Peace Lutheran Church and School shall execute the necessary documents to effect such transfer.

V. GOVERNANCE AND OFFICERS

- A. An Endowment Committee appointed by the President of Peace Lutheran Church and School and approved by the Church Council shall promote and expand the endowment, educate the congregation concerning the endowment and recommend distributions of the income from the endowment to the Church Council.
- B. The Finance Committee shall manage the endowment. The treasure of the congregation shall be responsible for receipts by and disbursements from the endowment, shall maintain complete and accurate books of account and shall provide, at least annually, a written financial report of the endowment to the Church Council and the Voters Assembly.
- C. The Finance Committee, if it deems it to be in the best interest of the congregation, may recommend to the Church Council how assets are invested. Any agreement entered into for the management of the endowment shall be valid only if approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting members present at a duly called and constituted meeting of the Voters Assembly.
- D. The Finance Committee, with the approval of the Church Council, shall maintain accounts with such financial institutions as it, by resolution, may determine and authorize. All checks and other documents transferring or expending any funds or assets in the endowment shall be executed by the treasure and the chairperson of the Finance Committee.
- E. The Finance Committee shall maintain complete and accurate books of account and may employ such professional help as it deems necessary in this connection.
- F. No member of the Finance Committee or Church Council shall engage in any self-dealing or transactions with the endowment in which the member of the Committee or Council has direct or indirect financial interest and shall at all times refrain from any conduct in which his/her personal interests would conflict with interests of the endowment.

VI. DUTIES

- A. The Finance Committee shall, at least annually, render a full and complete account of the administration of the endowment during the preceding year.
- B. Gifts and contributions from any individual, or groups of individuals, including, by way of explanation and not in limitation, direct gifts for the purpose of the endowment, gifts in memory of any deceased person or in appreciation or recognition of any living person, gifts in the form of a devise or bequest under will or trust instrument and gifts or proceeds or portions or proceeds of insurance, annuity or endowment policies or contracts, may be received by the endowment at any time.
- C. Means for acknowledging the receipt of each gift and contribution shall be established and maintained by the Endowment Committee.
- D. All endowment funds shall be kept and maintained separate, distinct and independent from the funds and property otherwise belonging to the church.

VII. AMENDMENTS

- A. Any amendment to these Bylaws that will change, alter or amend the general purpose for which the endowment is established shall be adopted only if approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting members present at a duly called and constituted meeting of the Voters Assembly, the notice of which has stated that such an amendment will be purposed to the Voters Assembly.
- B. Recommendations for amendment of these Bylaws may be made at any meeting of the Voters Assembly for consideration by the church council and presented at the next Voters Meeting.
