Pakistan Military choose to support terrorists-- DGAO Air Marshal Bharti

Minakshi Sharma
Commissioner News Service
NEW DELHI : DGAO Air Marshal AK Bharti disclosed that while India's primary objective was to dismantle terrorist infrastructure, on the contrary, Pakistan military chose to support terrorists and widened the prevailing conflict . It is a pity that the Pakistani military preferred to inter-vene and for terror-ists and hence we chose to respond ,in proper way " said Air Marshal AK Bharti, the DGAO. The Air Marshal praised country's defense capabilities otherwise criticised nothing . Our battle tested systems proved their worth in actual compact conditions .

The robust air defense infrastruc-ture established a direct result of the government's sus-tained budgetary and policy support over the past decade". 'Numerous waves of drones and unmanned combat aerial vehicles employed by Pakistan were also thwarted by the indigenously developed soft and hard kill counter - UAS systems and the well trained Indian Air Defense personnel ' he added. PM Modi apprised JD Vance India's response will be 'more forceful, dev-astating' before Pak called for truce The development comes as the Donald Trump administra-tion has sought to take credit for bro-kering the ceasefire reached between India and Pakistan. However, India has maintained that the ceasefire was reached after Pakistan reached out to India directly on Friday (May 10) with a request for a ceasefire. Under Operation Sindoor, India ham-mered at least eight

Pakistani airbases and other military installations. India also struck ground forces that were advancing in border areas. These strikes destroyed several Pakistani airfields, air defence sites, and radar sites, and killed dozens of ground forces personnel. From Turkish drones to chinese missiles , and possibly even a few Pakistani air-craft, all were thwarted by India's integrated multilay-ered air defense net-work during three days of intense hos-tilities , top military officers said on Monday . " Our integrated air defence (AD)sys-tems stood like a wall and they (Pakistan) could not breach it. Whether it's a Turkish drone or anything else, it fails in front of the technology of India , " director general of air opera-tions said Air Marshal AK Bhart i said. "The sky remains ours , " with a relatively impreg-nable AD shield , was the underlying message of the brief-ing.

These land parcels were directly /indirectly , registered in the name of family members of Lalu Yadav ," CBI had said in its FIR , a charge validated by ED's own money laundering probe and evidence gathered through money trail of proceeds of crime , ED earlier claimed its "probe revealed that several pieces of land at prominent locations in Patna were illegally acquired by the family of then minister , Lalu , in lieu of jobs provid-ed in railways .ED, which is investigating the case , had filed two prosecutions com-plaints (charge sheets) on Jan 8 and Aug 6 , 2024, .

Preserve freedom of speech and expression as guaranteed

In the face of rampant censorship and clamping down on inconvenient truths that do not fit the official narrative, there is a pushback by civil rights organisations, journalists' unions and associations. The constitutionally guaranteed right to freedom of speech and expression must be preserved, failing which the information war will be won by falsehood and silence. Film censorship, pushed through by both the authorities and vigilante groups, has continued. The enforced self-censorship of films like Empuraan and Phule, with crucial scenes and dialogues cut on the eve of, or after the film's release, make a mockery of the certification awarded by the Central Board of Film Certification (CBFC). The multiple cuts suggested for Punjab 95, cuts on foreign films screened for Indian audiences on OTT platforms and the denial of CBFC certification for award-winning films like Santosh are other signals of excessive regulation. The spate of takedowns and the blocking of websites like The Wire and social media accounts on 'X', including that of Kashmir Times editor Anuradha Bhasin, website Maktoob Media and various Youtube channels, in the wake of the Indian government's air strikes against certain locations in Pakistan and PoK, have only worsened the climate of censorship. Similar charges are used against satirists and social media influencers, including Bhojpuri singer Neha Singh Rathore and Madri Kakoti, aka Dr Medusa, and Shamita Yadav, aka The Ranting Gola. Rathore got some relief as a civil court in Ayodhya, Uttar Pradesh, dismissed a complaint against her. The charge of endangering national security was made against YouTube news channel 4PM News. Its owner and editor-in-chief Sanjay Sharma was just informed, via an email from YouTube, that the channel had been closed as per "government's directions." All of them had raised trenchant questions about security lapses in the wake of the Pahalgam attack. The lack of legal redress or even the fig leaf of self-regulatory processes in a time of conflict, when disinformation is given a free rein, add to the information black hole. The chilling effect of such actions cannot be understated. Vandalism indulged in and criminal complaints lodged by politically motivated sections of society show the targeting of academics, students, stand-up comics, satirists, actors and film-makers alike. Violence is the default mode for the outrage factory — whether it was in the case of the airing of 'Naya Bharat', a show by stand-up comic Kunal Kamra, or the screening of the film Chhaava or the attack on Dalit journalist Sanjay Ambedkar while he was seeking audience reviews of the film Phule in Prayagraj for his YouTube channel Bheemraj Dastak. Meanwhile, impunity continued, as the killings of journalists Mukesh Chandrakar and Raghvendra Bajpai reveal. In both cases, the police initially dismissed the killings as unrelated to their journalism. Journalists first reported the disappearance of Chandrakar on January 1 at Bastar in Chhattisgarh. Three days later, his body was found in the septic tank of a road contractor, Suresh Chandrakar, who is also Mukesh's cousin. He was reportedly angry that Mukesh was part of a report on poor road conditions which was aired on a prominent news channel on December 25, 2024.

Suspicious character wears IAF uniform, held at Pabhat

ZIRAKPUR : Dubious characters have been identified as Zirakpur residents Sukhpreet Singh and his accomplice Suraj. Local residents nabbed a suspicious youth wearing IAF uniform and his accomplice on the Pabhat road near the boundary wall of the Air Force base this morning. They informed the Air Force authorities and the local police, who detained both youths. The police said the youths stole the uniform from a courier agency on April 5. Zirakpur DSP Jaspinder Singh said, "A tailor of Behlana, Chandigarh, had sent the packet to the courier agency for delivery to a Gujarat-based officer, but the suspects stole it from there. A case under Section 204 and 303 of the BNS has been registered at the Zirakpur police station and both youth arrested." Sukhpreet, a resident of Ashiana Complex in Zirakpur, had earlier claimed to have found the uniform near a local bakery on April 6 night. The local residents noticed the suspect in uniform roaming suspiciously in the area, after which they informed the authorities. Zirakpur SHO Gagandeep Singh said, "The suspect has been involved in petty crimes in the past and a thorough investigation is being done into the matter." Sources said the Air Force authorities have also begun a probe.

Food safety training and certification for eatery operators pickup in UT

CHANDIGARH : The momentum launched by the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), envisages to cultivate a culture of self-compliance among food businesses across the country. In a step towards promoting food safety and hygiene, the Food Safety Administration, UT Health Department, has started free training under the Food Safety Training and Certification (FoSTaC) programme. Earlier, Food Business Operators (FBOs) were required to seek paid training through private FSSAI-empowered agencies. However, with the Health Department now officially empanelled as a training partner, the training is being offered at no cost to FBOs in Chandigarh. The initiative is being led by Sukhwinder Singh, Designated Officer, who is also empanelled as a FoSTaC trainer by the FSSAI. The Food Safety Training and Certification programme, first introduced in July 2017, seeks to create a dedicated pool of trained food safety supervisors equipped with knowledge of hygiene and manufacturing practices as outlined in Schedule 4 of the Food Safety and Standards Licensing and Registration Regulations, 2011. The training is mandatory for all FBOs operating in sectors such as catering, hotels, restaurants, food vending, canteens, dhabas and mess facilities, before these are granted an FSSAI licence. The first batch of training was successfully conducted today at the department's new facility in the New Administrative Block, Government Multi-Speciality Hospital (GMSH), Sector 16. Around 20 FBOs participated and received official FoSTaC certificates upon completion of the training. Officials noted that the initiative is not just about compliance, but about fostering a lasting behavioural shift in how food businesses approach hygiene and safety. By introducing in-house training and making it accessible, the Chandigarh Administration hopes to raise the bar for food standards and public health.

Dress code for govt schoolteachers introduced by administration

Commissioner News Service
CHANDIGARH : Chandigarh has become the first city in the country to implement uniform for the school teachers, some of whom have silently resisted the move. The Administration has introduced for teachers of the government schools in the city. The dress-code initiative, taken by the Education Department on the advice of UT Administrator Gulab Chand Kataria, has been first introduced at the PM Shri Government Model Senior Secondary School, Sector 14, Dhanas. The uniform specifications outline female staff donning sarees, salwar kamaez, while male teachers wearing formal shirts and trousers. The change is aimed at unifying the appearance of educators, fostering a sense of professionalism and creating an environment conducive to learning. "A unified dress code not only promotes equality among staff but also instils a sense of pride and professionalism," said Kataria. The Chandigarh Education Department, meanwhile, claimed that the department was committed to implementing the initiative in all government schools by the end of summer vacations. "This timeline allows ample time for a smooth transition to the new dress code, ensuring that all teachers have their uniforms," an official statement read. "Promote Equality: A uniform dress code minimizes socio-economic disparities among staff, fostering a more inclusive atmosphere. And, Boost Morale: A cohesive appearance can improve team spirit and morale among educators. The department looks forward to the positive impact these uniforms will have on both teachers and the broader school community," the statement adds. At a department event in January, the Administrator had proposed the introduction of uniforms for teachers to symbolise their unity, discipline and role in shaping society.

Compounding regime of synthetic milk

We over 70% of populace digest daily the pulverised synthetic milk which comprises a definite quantity of detergent, urea, caustic soda, sodium hydroxide and fats, cautioned the otherday, Dr Harsh Vardhan, Union Minister for Science & Technology. In accordance with Food Safety & Standard Authority of India, the quality of milk in question doesn't conform to the parameters laid by the stipulated law. The excess water added to the milk may destroy the intake of nutritious specific values, which are immensely harmful. The unnatural milk also comprises certain quantity of insecticides and metal which are destructive to human health. One day, skimmed milk sample of 548, only 577 were found to be carrying ample quantity of glucose. It has been noticed while storing, packaging, certain quantity of detergent particles enter the openly placed quantity of bare milk. The demand for the genuine quality milk is not being met hence the glut of synthetic milk would continue to rein in the prevailing market. Artificial imitation of natural milk remains harmful to human health. Its excessive use inflict very serious damage on human body causing swelling in the eyes and many other complication in the liver and kidney. The journey of synthetic milk, now a days, has been heading from urban area to rural populace to acclimatise to their propensities. Our nation has been notoriously becoming famous, leaving concentration away from genuine natural milk. Now fait accompli, we are tolerating assortment by of chemicals, urea, by compulsion as the occupation of genuine dairy farming has been going in very lackadaisical race even government controlled units are losing curiosity in natural milk. What a catastrophic approach, but against whom? remains puzzling.

Potential ‘nuclear conflict’ between India and Pakistan put off, claims Donald Trump

Commissioner News Service
New York/Washington : “And we helped a lot, and we helped also with commerce. US President Donald Trump said, ‘Come on, we’re going to do a lot of trade with you guys. Let’s stop it. Let’s stop it. If you stop it, we’re doing trade. If you don’t stop it, we’re not going to do any trade’,” he claimed.

Trump on Monday claimed that his administration stopped a “nuclear conflict” between India and Pakistan, adding that he told the two countries America will do a “lot of business” with them if they stop the conflict. “On Saturday, my administration helped broker a full and immediate ceasefire, I think, a permanent one, ending India and Pakistan, between a dangerous conflict of two nations with lots of nuclear weapons. And they were going at it hot and heavy, and it was seemingly not going to stop,” Trump said in his remarks in the White House, describing “the historic events that took place over the last few days.” Indian government sources in New Delhi have been maintaining that the Directors General of Military Operations (DGMOs) of India and Pakistan reached the understanding and no third party was involved. “I’m very proud to let you know that the leadership of India and Pakistan was unwavering, powerful, but unwavering in both cases, having these, they really were from the standpoint of having the strength and the wisdom and fortitude to fully know and to understand the gravity of the situation,” he said. “People have never really used trade the way I used it, that I can tell you, and all of a sudden they said, ‘I think we’re going to stop’ and they have, and they did it for a lot of reasons, but trade is a big one. We’re going to do a lot of trade with Pakistan. We’re going to do a lot of trade with India. We’re negotiating with India right now. We’re going to be soon, negotiating with Pakistan, and we stopped a nuclear conflict,” he claimed. “I think it would have it could have been a bad nuclear war. Millions of people could have been killed. So I’m very proud of that. I also want to thank Vice President Vance and Secretary of State Rubio for their work and efforts they worked very hard on that,” Trump said.

Unwavering budgetary allotment enables Air defence system to play wonder

Commissioner News Service

NEW DELHI : The operationalisation of this potent air defence grid had been made possible over the last decade due to the unwavering budgetary and policy support provided by the government in acquiring state-of-the-art equipment and weapon systems said Air Marshal AK Bharti, the Director General of Air Operations. Praising the efficacy of the Indian air defence system in the conflict with Pakistan, the Director General of Military Operations (DGMO), Lt Gen Rajiv Ghai, compared the “strike rate” of bringing down enemy threats with the wicket-taking abilities of the 1970s’ fast bowling Australian duo Jeff Thomson and Dennis Lillee. The integrated air defence system of the armed forces shot down all threats — drones, armed drones and missiles fired by Pakistan, said General Ghai while describing the success in Operation Sindoor. The DGMO cited the often-quoted media sobriquet for the fast bowling Aussie duo, “Ashes to ashes, dust to dust, if Thomo does not get you, Lillee must”. The comparison was to benchmark the efficacy of the air defence system’s robustness in hitting the incoming threats. The Indian forces managed to minimise the damage despite unrelenting efforts by the Pakistani forces, said General Ghai.

The integrated air defence system includes primary assets of the IAF and those of the frontline systems of the Army and the BSF. The Navy has a capacity of securing 700 km around an aircraft carrier. The system comprises a large variety of sensors and weapon systems, including point defence weapons like guns, shoulder-fired guns and short-range surface-to-air missiles, and long-range missiles as well as medium-range surface-to-air missile Akash-NG and the S-400. General Ghai specially mentioned the role of the BSF, saying that “counter UAVs of the BSF were also part of our system”. At sea, the Navy’s standoff presence of the aircraft carrier with a large number of MiG-29K fighters and airborne early warning helicopters prevented any suspicious or hostile aircraft to close the carrier battle group within several hundred kilometres, said the Director General of Naval Operations, Vice Admiral AN Pramod.

Consensus reached between US, China for 90-day truce in high tariff war

Commissioner News Service

Geneva : Stock markets shot sharply as the two major economic powers took a step back from a clash that has unsettled the global economy. US Trade Representative Jamieson Greer said the US agreed to drop its 145 per cent tariff rate on Chinese goods by 115 percentage points to 30 per cent, while China agreed to lower its rate on US goods by the same amount to 10 per cent. US and Chinese officials said on Monday they had reached a deal to roll back most of their recent tariffs and call a 90-day truce in their trade war for more talks on resolving their trade disputes. Greer and Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent announced the tariff reductions at a news conference in Geneva. The two officials struck a positive tone as they said the two sides had set up consultations to continue discussing their trade issues. Bessent said the high tariffs would have meant a complete blockage of each side’s goods, an outcome neither side wants. China’s Commerce Ministry said the two sides agreed to cancel 91 per cent in tariffs on each other’s goods and suspend another 24 per cent in tariffs for 90 days, bringing the total reduction to 115 percentage points. The ministry called the agreement an important step for the resolution of the two countries’ differences. The joint statement issued by the two countries said China also agreed to suspend or remove other measures it has taken since April 2 in response to the US tariffs. China has increased export controls on rare earths, including some critical to the defence industry, and added more US firms to its export control and unreliable entity lists, restricting their business with and in China. The full impact on the complicated tariffs and other trade penalties enacted by Washington and Beijing remains unclear. And much depends on whether they will find ways to bridge longstanding differences during the 90-day suspension. Bessent said in an interview with CNBC that US and Chinese officials will meet again in a few weeks. But investors rejoiced as trade envoys from the world’s two biggest economies blinked, finding ways to pull back from potentially massive disruptions to world trade and their own markets. Futures for the S&P 500 jumped 2.6 per cent and for the Dow Jones Industrial Average was up 2 per cent. Oil prices surged more than USD 1.60 a barrel and the US dollar gained against the euro and the Japanese yen. Trump last month raised US tariffs on China to a combined 145 per cent, and China retaliated by hitting American imports with a 125 per cent levy. Tariffs that high essentially amount to the two countries boycotting each other’s products, disrupting trade that last year topped USD 660 billion.

From check-in baggage at Delhi, jewellery worth Rs 30 lakh stolen

Commissioner News Service

New Delhi : “About 29-30 tolas of jewellery worth Rs 30 lakh was stolen from our check-in baggage,” the complainant Bhagirath Singh Rajpurohit. An FIR in the matter has been filed at the Delhi Police station located at the airport, he said. A Bengaluru-based married couple has filed a police complaint alleging that their jewellery valued at about Rs 30 lakh and Rs 30,000 in cash was stolen from their check-in baggage at the Delhi international airport. The alleged incident took place early morning of April 26 at Terminal-I of the Indira Gandhi International (IGI) Airport. The couple claimed that they found the valuables missing when they checked their bag in Bengaluru. Rajpurohit, a banker, said he and his wife had gone to attend a wedding in their home state of Rajasthan on April 14 and were returning to Bengaluru via Delhi. “The jewellery was in a steel box placed in a trolley suitcase. A total of Rs 30,000 in cash was also there in three pouches in the same bag. But after we landed in Bengaluru and reached home we found all these valuables were not there,” Rajpurohit said. A police officer said they are checking CCTV footage from the airport. “Multiple teams have been formed to investigate the matter,” the officer said. According to the complaint, the couple claimed that the trolley bag, which had a number lock and a small physical lock on the zip chain, had a cut mark inside a fold.

Both the number lock and the physical lock were intact, Rajpurohit said. Among the ornaments were gold earrings, bangles, anklets and an amulet, the couple claimed. A bank passbook and an Aadhaar card were also missing. Rajpurohit said he suspects it to be the handiwork of the staff. The luggage was checked-in with the airline at about 7.20 am on April 26 and the flight departed at 11.30 am. It landed in Bengaluru around 2 pm, he said. “This was all the gold my wife had. These were made at her ancestral place. We request police and airport authorities to catch the culprits soon and help us in getting our valuables back,” he said. Rajpurohit said they have also informed the police that a gold chain belonging to his father, who took a different flight to Dibrugarh from Delhi the same day but half-an-hour after their flight, was also stolen in a similar fashion.

Gurugram holistically aims zero emission by 2050

Commissioner News Service

GURUGRAM : As Gurugram features among the top polluted cities in the country, the Gurugram Metropolitan Development Authority (GMDA) has drawn a holistic plan to reduce emissions in the city. The authority has drafted a ‘net zero 2050’ document, contouring the goals for urban policy-making to make Gurugram a zero emission city. Net-zero refers to the point at which a specific area or city is able to remove from the atmosphere all green house gases (GHGs) it is emitting. Effectively, it ensures that no additional carbon or other GHGs are being added into the atmosphere.

The document elaborates on the way forward to implement sustainable development strategies like construction of green buildings, setting up of centralised cooling plants in housing societies, adoption of cleaner technologies and increasing the share of electric vehicles over the next 25 years. The plan deals in four major arenas — energy, waste, transport and greenery.

ISRO to launch Earth - watching satellite on May 18

Commissioner News Service

NEW DELHI : V Narayanan, ISRO Chairman, has underscored the importance of deploying additional satellites to bolster national security and support critical infrastructure. Equipped with a C-band synthetic aperture radar, EOS-09 will be capable of capturing high-resolution images of Earth’s surface under all weather conditions, day or night. The imaging will be helpful in applications such as national security and natural disasters among others. The Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) will launch the PSLV-C61 mission carrying satellite RISAT-1B, also known as EOS-09, from the Satish Dhawan Space Centre in Sriharikota on May 18. The significance of the launch is important in the context of tensions between India and Pakistan. The EOS-09 satellite, weighing around 1,710 kg, will join India’s growing constellation of Earth observation assets, addressing the need for expanded real-time coverage across the country’s vast territory. Speaking at the fifth convocation ceremony of the Central Agricultural University near Agartala, he said 10 satellites were engaged round the clock to ensure the safety and security of the country’s citizens. “If we want our country to be safe, we have to do it through satellites. We have to monitor our seashore area of 7,000 km. We can’t get many things done in the absence of satellite and drone technology,” he said. June will see the highly anticipated launch of the NISAR satellite aboard the GSLV-F16. This NASA-ISRO collaboration aims to study Earth’s ecosystems and natural hazards through dual-frequency radar data, combining NASA’s L-band payloads with ISRO’s S-band contributions. The LVM3-M5 mission, scheduled for July, will cater to a commercial contract with AST SpaceMobile Inc, USA, launching BlueBird Block-2 satellites under NewSpace India Limited’s commercial programme.
