

USS Edisto AGB2 Reunion
Charleston, South Carolina
September 8-12 2004

Welcome to Charleston

Bruce & Eleanor Andrews

Peter (Jesrally) Banyan

Peter & Joy Breslin

Vernon & Charlotte Clark

Robert & Karen Collins

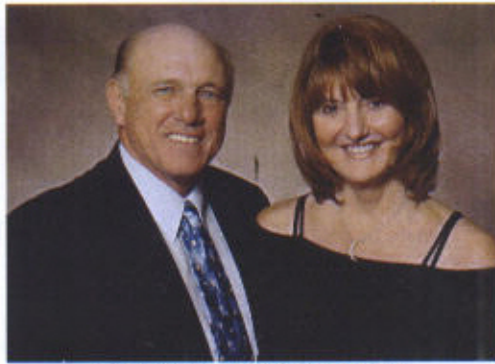

Preston & Glenda Conaway

William & Adele Csepi

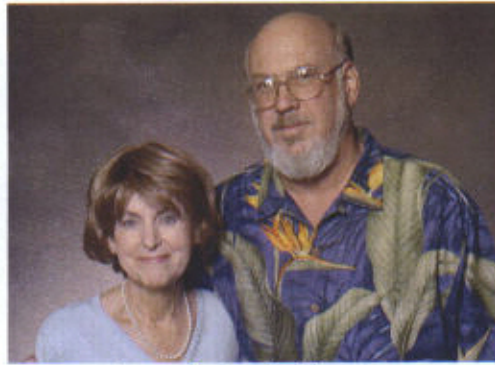

Bill & Jeanne Davis

Martin & Patti Deegan

Karl Dohner

Jerry & Judy Downs

Tom Duffy

John & Lou Duignan

Richard & Mitzie Dykas

David Eaton Jr.

David & Bea Eaton Sr.

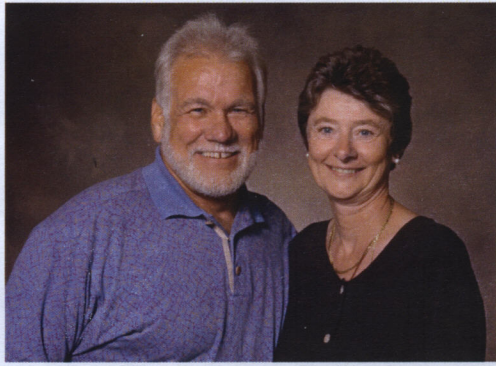

Rodolfo & Esperanza Eugenio

Eugene & Sheila Fettinger

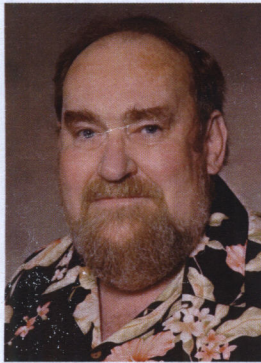

Jerry & Kathy Frank

Bill & Cathy Gallant

Jim & Sally Gardner

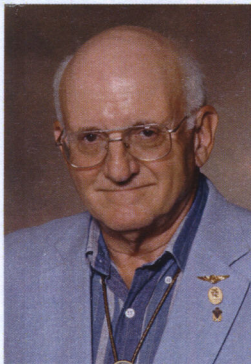

Bob Geddes

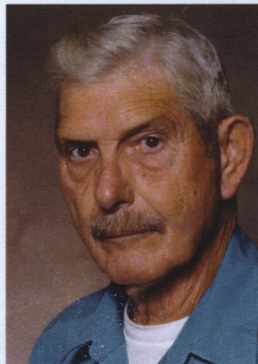

Donald & Karin Giebner

Ron & Margaret Goheen

Richard Griswold

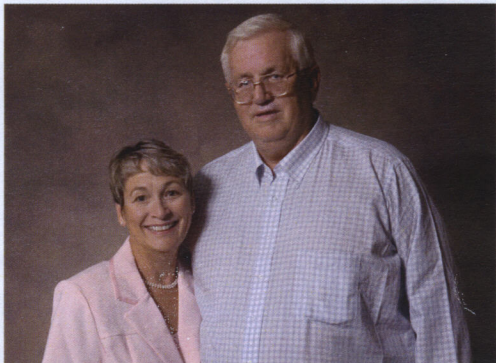

Edward Hardy

L.W. & Carolyn Hartley

Walter T. Hauseer, M.D.

Warren & Faye Heidel

Billy & Joan Henderson

John & Jayne Herrmann

Wilbur Howes & Michael Bocchino

Eric & Kit Isachsen

Ronald & Mary Kaliher

Patrick & Sara Kinney

Rear Adm. J. Weldon & Nancy Koenig

Ron Mallett

Gene & Sandy Mollica

Alex & Carol Morris

Kenny & Nancy Neilsen

Jon & K.T. Newton

James Oliphant

Jon Orr & Patricia Whittenhall

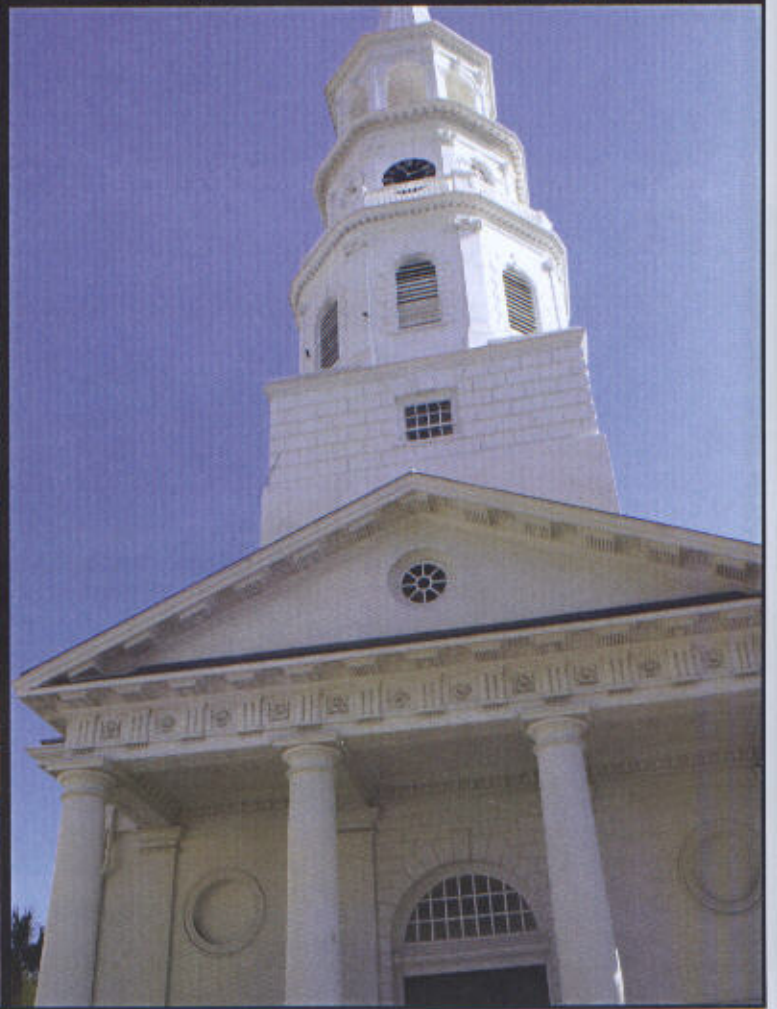

Donald Parker

Virgil & Odell Paulk

Rainbow Row

Drayton Hall Plantation

Howell & Mary Ann Purvis

John & Shelba Repic

John & Phyllis Robertson

Hemon Gene Ryder

Robert Saari

Joseph & Ellen Saelens

Gilbert & Lupe Saldana

Austin Schroder

Sapaeto Seymour

Glenn & Katherine Smith

Donald & Patricia Sosnowski

Norman & Carol Spruill

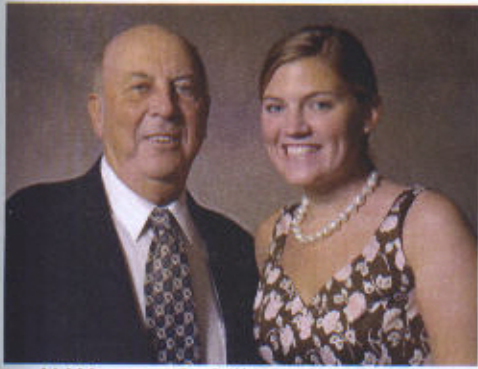

AC & Vermel Taylor

James & Maureen Ward

Robert & Valerie Weber

Al Werner & Allison McCarthy

Alvin & Alice Willis

Bob & Liz Wilson

The Citadel

On 20 December 1860 South Carolina seceded from the Union and desired control of all former Federal property including Fort Sumter, the key to control of Charleston Harbor.

On 12 April 1861 at 0430 a ten-inch mortar from Fort Johnson fired the first shot at Fort Sumter. Other forts and batteries around the harbor quickly joined. The War for Southern Independence was on!

USS Yorktown CV-10 at Patriot's Point

Banquet at Radisson

