

WHITE HOUSE PRAYER 2020

22nd Annual White House Prayer for Our Nation

May 2, 2020

The Ellipse (President's Park South)
Washington, DC 20502

Reverend Dr. Terry Lee

GOAL

To mobilize faith leaders to gather annually in the country's Capital to pray for:

The Nation

The World

The President, His Family, His Administration

All Government Leaders

OBJECTIVES

- * To pray for the United States, in particular, and the world in general.
- * To ensure the observation of an annual day of prayer at the White House

OBJECTIVES (continued)

- * To live up to the significance of the country's motto, "In God We Trust."
- * To bring together faith leaders, policymakers and the community to intercede on behalf of the President, his cabinet, political leaders, our nation and world leaders.

HISTORY

- * The White House Prayer Initiative was birthed in 1998 out of a vision given to Rev. Terry Lee of By-Ways and Hedges Youth for Christ Ministry, Inc.
- * A meeting was convened consisting of faith leaders from New York and Washington D.C. who explored ways of coming together to identify a national strategy among the faith community to pray in unity for the leaders of our country.
