Whitany Lewis:

Good Morning. I am Whitany Lewis. I am a 2011 honor graduate of Belleview High School and this fall, I will attend UCF; studying _____.

Quansanay Erving:

Good Morning. I am Quansanay Erving. This Fall, I will begin my Senior year at Wildwood Middle High School.

Paige Gant:

Good Morning. I am Paige Lenore Gant. This Fall, I will begin my Senior year at _____.

Whitany Lewis:

We are here, as Representatives of the Royal Library Association, to recognize the Royal Warriors. The Royal Warriors are Royal residents, who are 80+ young.

Quansanay Erving:

The Royal Warriors are those who did not back down from adversity, conflict or battle and fought to ensure the continuity of this Community.

Paige Gant:

Just as Paul instructed Timothy in 1 Timothy 6:12, the Royal Warriors have fought the good fight of faith, laid hold on eternal life, whereunto they are also called....

Whitany Lewis:

and hast professed a good profession before many of witnesses, especially we the youth. Before we present the Royal Warriors, we ask that La'Shaniqua Cooper, Marion Evans, Jr., Niqua Evans, Donte Johnson, Briana Sesler, Braneshia Tanner, Chimeshia Thomas, Simone Wilson, Anthony Wong, and Bruce Wong to come forth and stand next to Ms. Etta Huff and Ms. Shelia Hicks.

Quansanay Erving:

When we call each warrior's name, we ask that you hold your applause. Also, we ask that the warrior or their representative stand and remain where they are and these young people will walk to them with a special token.

Paige Gant:

This is a small token of love and thanks to you for your warrior spirit. For we know, that we cannot pay you but please remember for great is your reward in heaven. Now, will the RHEAP Drummers from the Community's RHEAP program, that won the 1st place trophy in the parade give us a Drum roll, Please. Thank you. Ms. Rickea Johnson will you please start the powerpoint.
