Mountain Harmony Camp is a three-day camp experience for girls, age 13 and up, designed specifically to train young singers in a cappella harmony, Barbershop style.

Sponsored by the Pacific Shores Region of Sweet Adelines International, campers are offered the highest quality instruction, by certified music educators, and professional singers in this art form.

While enjoying the open land filled with oak trees and wildlife on this cattle ranch, we learn two songs that become the literature for our specialized classes and coaching sessions. Students will apply the basics of a cappella ensemble singing and explore the finer nuances of harmony and expression. Rotating through classes in visual performance techniques, choreography, vocal production, and specific voice part singing, will round out the camper's education in this fun genre.

Your registration fee includes three days of singing, two nights lodging, five meals, all educational materials, camp T-shirt, participation in the closing show, and new friends.

Campers perform for our family and friends as we close the weekend on Sunday with a free show, featuring newly learned skills and shared experiences.

No experience necessary. Bring your friends or school choir for an event you'll never forget!
