Upper East Tennessee Celtic Society

Nonprofit Organization

Happy Samhain or as most of us say now, Happy Halloween!

We have decided to put out a monthly newsletter with our upcoming events, entertainment, announcements, ect! Now that we have all new board members, the society is headed in a positive direction of growth and new opportunities! For those of you that are not familiar with our society, we are a non profit organization, that provides education and contributes to the community about the celtic heritage. We have some exciting plans for the very near future to get more involved and giving back to our community! So come join in on our Celtic shenanigans and we are kid friendly! We hold our weekly Board Meetings at Monte Vista every Wednesday at 6pm. We also compete in the Highland games. They practice at Tipton Hayes every Saturday morning at 10am in the lower field.

Gaelic Translation:

-How are you? Ciamar a tha thu?

-Have a great day! Latha math ahut!

Events: On the calendar for this month, we will be having a free Halloween, child-friendly event. It will be held at Tipton-Hayes October 26th from 2pm-6pm. There will be story telling, pumpkin painting, along with a haunted hay ride and other events to spook the kiddos!

Birthdays:

Mary Jones 10-9

Brandie Killen 10-20

If you are also a Libra, in Celtic Zodiac it states " You are intelligent, sociable, artistic, and a good friend.

Also, your tree is an Ivy. Your animal is a butterfly. Your color is blue. Your jewel is Opal.

Meet a Board Member: This month's chosen member is Ricky Lloyd. He was recently elected Treasurer of our society. He joined the society because it allowed him a hands-on experience in the continuing history of his Celtic ancestors. As well as, introduced him to a number of people that share his passion. He says through the study of our heritage we're able to learn what shaped today's world. He also attends ETSU and is currently studying History.
