For more than a decade, Vertex Soccer has actively recruited and placed talented players from English professional academies into university soccer programs across the United States (case study on final page).

During this period, we have proudly celebrated the achievements of many young women and have seen our efforts expand our network of partnerships, creating us collaborations with nearly every professional football club in England.

Building on this success, we have since developed our tour services to England. Leveraging our extensive network, we guarantee that each touring team engages in matches against Women's Super League and Women's Championship teams.

Beyond the high-caliber fixtures, we enhance the tour experience by providing tickets to two games anywhere in the country, ranging from Men's Premier League to Women's Champions League to Women's Super League matches.

CASE STUDY: ENGLAND WU17

In October 2024, Vertex Soccer was appointed by the Football Association to coordinate the pre-World Cup training camp for the England Women's U17 National Team in Miami, Florida.

From the moment the 48-member delegation arrived, we handled all logistics, including ground transportation, accommodation, meals, activities, and more.

Utilizing our strong reputation and extensive network, we secured access to the University of Miami Hurricanes' state-of-the-art indoor and outdoor training facilities for the team.

Additionally, we organized a behind-closed-doors friendly match against a select team of top U18 female players from various ECNL academies in South Florida.

After a productive seven-day camp, England WU17 departed for the Dominican Republic, where they advanced to the FIFA Women's U17 World Cup Semi-Finals.

Following this success, the FA has since engaged Vertex Soccer to facilitate camps for other men's and women's age groups at locations worldwide.

MIXED TRAINING SESSIONS

Introducing mixed academy training sessions in 2023 is an innovative approach by Vertex Soccer to enhance the development of players, coaches, and even parents involved in US and English soccer academies.

By introducing our participants to the varied philosophies and practices employed in English professional academies, we offer them an opportunity to understand different approaches to the game among peers of comparable age and skill levels.

These sessions are designed to integrate tactical and technical instruction with opportunities for personal development and social networking.

We believe this initiative holds considerable promise to progress youth soccer development across both the US and England.

GROUND TRANSPORTATION

Travel in comfort and style.

A private charter bus will be provided for the full duration of your tour, ensuring smooth and reliable transportation for all official team movements.

With comfortable seating, air conditioning, and onboard WiFi when possible, every journey becomes part of the experience—not just a way to get from A to B.

To make exploring even easier, we include pre-purchased local travel passes (such as the London Underground or Manchester tram networks), giving you safe and convenient access to the best of each city during your free time. With everything taken care of, you can focus on the football, the moments, and the memories.

FOOD AND ACCOMMODATION

Location is everything.

Thanks to our strong partnership with Intercontinental Hotel Group, all of our hotels are ideally located in the vibrant heart of city centers, offering you an authentic and memorable experience across England.

Moreover, every lunch and dinner during the tour will be enjoyed outside the hotel, inviting us to take a short evening stroll in search of new restaurants and unique cuisines.

To keep players fuelled and prepared at all times, water, energy drinks, and cereal bars will be readily available throughout the day - along with all match-day essentials, including pre-match and post-match meals to ensure optimal performance and recovery.

Though our itinerary is filled with planned activities, it's those unplanned, spontaneous moments in between that create the lasting memories!
