Arizona Sister Cities State Conference 2024

FINDING COMMON GROUND

THE HEART OF CREATING, REVITALIZING AND GROWING SISTER CITIES

We are excited to announce that the Sedona Sisters Cities Association has been selected to host the 2024 Arizona Sister Cities State Conference "Finding Common Ground: At the heart of creating, revitalizing and growing Sister Cities" which will take place on November 15th and 16th at Yavapai Community College in Sedona.

Our goal is to inspire the actions of individuals and local Sister Cities organizations through powerful speakers, shared learning experiences, informal and structured dialogue, reflection and visioning among local teams and the larger sister city community.

We are excited to share Sedona with participants during a "Pre Conference" on Friday, where participants will enjoy the unique beauty, art, and adventures that Sedona has to offer through both informal and structured adventures.

The conference will open on the evening of November 15th with the first Annual Sedona Sister Cities "Mayor's International Dinner." Enjoy a magical night of good wine, delightful flavors from around the world, rich and lighthearted conversations and insightful perspectives shared by vision keepers who will grace us with their insights, concerns and hopes for the future.

The conference will continue on Saturday with local, regional and national facilitators who will share emerging practices and help us to examine our Sister Cities accomplishments, and challenges, and visions for the future.

If you are ready to laugh, learn, question, and envision the future for Sister Cities in Sedona then join us for this powerful and life-giving experience by registering today. <https://sedonasistercities.org/ascs-conference-flyer>

*PS. If you enjoy meeting new people and sharing Sedona, we'd love your help in becoming a dynamic volunteer "guide" and host for the November 15th pre-conference Sedona experiences. We are also seeking three outgoing and resourceful people to volunteer for our conference support team.
