Sedona/Canmore Leaders Meet

Relationship building is a cornerstone of a budding Sister City relationship. Recently eleven Sedona community leaders met their Canmore counterparts via a zoom call. Led by Mayor Scott Jablow and Mayor Sean Krausert, the discussion revealed many commonalities between Canmore and Sedona. Both communities are surrounded by natural beauty, focus on sustainability and face the challenges and benefits of tourism. The enthusiastic participants determined that additional sharing experiences could help build a solid foundation for a Sister City relationship.
