

SISTER CITY NEWS

SEDONA SISTER CITIES ASSOCIATION 4/14/2025

YAAS ENTRY

Maryam Jaffe, an 8th grade student at Sedona Red Rock Middle School, entered Sister Cities International YOUNG ARTISTS & AUTHORS SHOWCASE contest with her artwork entitled "Creating Global Friendships". Maryam noted : "For this piece, I wanted to create something that would clearly convey the theme of "Friendship: The Heartbeat of Global Peace." I wanted my artwork to be something that would really illustrate friendship and peace around the world". Contest winners will be announced this summer.

Washington Bound

Khrystian Cordova, an impressive Red Rock High School student, has been accepted to The Sister Cities International 2025 YOUTH LEADERSHIP SUMMIT which includes week long sessions and activities for youth, ages 14-18, from across the globe. The Washington D. C. Summit is designed to engage future leaders and expose them to important global challenges inspiring a new generation of citizen diplomats and volunteers who become instrumental in promoting peace, mutual respect, and prosperity. Khrystian is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Sedona Village and Sedona Sister Cities Association.