

Sister City News

Arizona Sister Cities State Conference 2024

FINDING COMMON GROUND
THE HEART OF CREATING, REVITALIZING AND GROWING SISTER CITIES

We are excited to announce that the Sedona Sister Cities Association has been selected to host the 2024 Arizona Sister Cities State Conference which will take place on November 15 & 16 in Sedona.

The conference will open on the evening of November 15th with the first Annual Sedona Sister Cities "Mayor's International Dinner" at the Sedona Hilton Tequa Ballroom. Prepare to be inspired by Ricki Garrett, President & CEO of Sister Cities International. Enjoy a magical night of good wine, delightful flavors from around the world, rich and lighthearted conversations.

The conference will continue on Saturday at Yavapai Community College with local, regional and national facilitators who will share emerging practices and help participants to examine our Sister Cities accomplishments, challenges, and visions for the future.

If you are ready to laugh, learn, question, and envision the future for Sister Cities then join us for this powerful and life-giving experience by registering today. <https://sedonasistercities.org/ascs-conference-flyer> . Full Conference Registration - $150 including Mayor's International Dinner. $75 Dinner only.

Canmore's Friendship Team

Rob Seeley, Mayor Sean Krausert, Janet Krausert, Jeremy Elbourne, Lynda Damen, Martin Buckley

Meet new friends from Canmore, Canada; Jaslo, Poland and Mexico at the November Conference

Jaslo/Sedona Film Premiere

Sedona Sister City Members and guests packed the Mary Fisher Theatre to join 400 of Jaslo, Poland's leaders to commemorate Jaslo's tragic destruction in World War II, 80 years ago.

Become a Sister City Ambassador, Join Sedona Sister Cities Association. It's easy ... link to the sedonasistercities.org website, review status reports on all of our outreach activities and then click on Membership. Your support makes our citizen diplomacy possible. Thank You!.