FORWARD LATINO NATIONAL PRESIDENT TO ATTEND WHITE HOUSE POLICY DISCUSSIONS
Morin to discuss Latino priorities with Senior White House Officials and Cabinet Secretaries

Franklin, WI – This afternoon Forward Latino National President Darryl Morin will participate in detailed policy discussions with senior administration officials and cabinet secretaries at The White House. Morin intends to discuss the positive impact legislation passed under the Biden-Harris administration have had on the Hispanic community, along with key priorities such as emergency hurricane relief for Puerto Rico and Florida, immigration, economic mobility and the need for commonsense gun violence prevention legislation. After the discussions, Morin will then attend The White House Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration.
