FORWARD LATINO NATIONAL PRESIDENT DARRYL MORIN
INVITED TO WHITE HOUSE FOR “BUILDING A BETTER WISCONSIN” DISCUSSIONS

Franklin, WI: Darryl Morin, National President of Forward Latino, a non-profit, non-partisan advocacy and service organization with members in 29 states and headquartered in Franklin, Wisconsin was invited to participate in the Biden-Harris Administration’s “Building A Better Wisconsin” event on Thursday, February 16, 2023 at the White House.

At the gathering Mr. Morin will be sharing information on the impact the administration’s policies have had on Hispanic students, educators, families, veterans, business owners and more throughout the state of Wisconsin. Morin stated “I look forward to yet another in depth discussion with administration officials on the opportunities before us as Wisconsin continues to see historic levels of employment, new business growth and more.”

The event will begin Thursday at 8am and continue through 12:30pm (EST) at the White House.
