

- 1) All people must have an up-to-date waiver completed, photo ID on file
- 2) All weapon systems must be in a case, unloaded and on SAFE if applicable
- 3) All weapon systems must be in slide-lock position for pistols and bolt-lock for rifles
- 4) All people must have proper eye protection
- 5) All people must have proper hearing protection
- 6) All people must acknowledge and understand Kilo 1 Six Arms Range personnel (RSO's)
- 7) The taking of pictures and/or shooting videos or live-streams is strictly prohibited
- 8) All people must be 18-years or older to be on the range
- 9) All people must be an American citizen who speak, understand, read and write english
- 10) There is a ZERO tolerance policy with regard to any type of offensive language, gestures, comments, arguing, abuse, disrespect, physical altercations/fighting, alcohol, illegal drugs including but not limited to marijuana, methamphetamines, fentanyl; or any other form of impairment while on Kilo 1 Six Arms range and/or property
- 11) Open-toed shoes or sandals are strictly prohibited -Closed toed shoes or boots must be worn at all times
- 12) Drawing weapon systems from holsters, waistbands or any other retention device is strictly prohibited unless authorized by Kilo 1 Six Arms personnel
- 13) Targets that depict real-people or images of presidents, actors or public figures are strictly prohibited
- 14) There is a maximum of (2) people per lane allowed
- 15) There is to be no instructing or qualifying of students allowed on the range unless authorized by Kilo 1 Six Arms personnel
- 16) The use of tracer, steel core, buckshot or birdshot ammunition is strictly prohibited, furthermore please ask Kilo 1 Six Arms personnel for more information regarding approved range ammunition
- 17) Rifles are required to have sights and/or optics on the weapon system in order to be utilized on the range
- 18) We strictly prohibit the use of any bump stock device, bump-fire device, slide-fire device or any unauthorized modified weapon systems at the range
- 19) Fully automatic fire is authorized as are strings of fire; however fully automatic weapons and the firing of said weapons is authorized in specific areas therefore Kilo 1 Six Arms personnel should be made aware of such weapon systems prior to firing. Please ask Kilo 1 Six Arms personnel for more information on types of fire allowed on the range
- 20) No person shall go beyond the line-of-fire or designated safe areas on the range
- 21) Always use the correct recommended ammunition in weapon systems; furthermore Kilo 1 Six Arms personnel reserves the right to check/inspect any/all ammunition brought onto Kilo 1 Six Arms range areas or property
- 22) Always check barrels for obstructions and weapon systems for proper function prior to utilization; furthermore Kilo 1 Six Arms personnel reserves the right to check/inspect any/all weapon systems brought onto the range areas or property
- 23) People may pick-up their own fired casings but only when designated safe and not other peoples or fired casings that are on Kilo 1 Six Arms range areas or property
- 24) Always utilize your best judgment with regard to foreground and background
- 25) Always treat all weapon systems as if they are loaded
- 26) Always point the muzzles of weapon systems in a safe direction downrange
- 27) Always keep your fingers outside of the trigger guard until you are ready to fire
- 28) Steel targets may only be engaged at proper minimum and/or maximum distances