

Neuro-Investigative Linguistics Protocol™
(NILP™) is a proprietary system designed to help attorneys develop clear, consistent, and reliable client narratives. It enables a structured review of statements to identify areas of strength, uncertainty, and needed clarification. By organizing complex information into a coherent and defensible form, it supports more effective case preparation and decision-making. The system delivers practical, court-ready insights while keeping its underlying methodology fully confidential.