OTHER HELPFUL TIPS REGARDING YOUR ACCOUNTS

Carefully review your account statements and trade confirmations on a regular basis. Verify the accuracy of all cash balances, securities, trades and fees. Rely only on custodian generated account statements. Contact LexAurum directly with any discrepancies or questions.

Use a unique and complex password for your email and financial accounts. Never click on an unknown link, email attachment, or text message that you were not expecting to receive. Never respond to emails requesting personal information. Use and update your electronic device security software regularly.

LexAurum advisors are prohibited from requesting or accepting loans from clients.

Make sure you fully research and investigate your options before purchasing any cryptocurrency. Don’t be fooled by unrealistic predictions of returns or unverified claims made online.

LexAurum will never ask for your password or verification code via telephone or email. Beware of scammers pretending to be from well-known organizations requesting payment via gift cards.
