SILENT AUCTION GALA

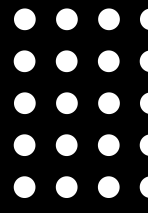

This annual award ceremony, organized by the National Coalition of 100 Black Women Pensacola, is a testament to our ongoing commitment to acknowledging and promoting the excellence exhibited by black women across various fields.

Whether in business, education, community service, or any other area, the Women of Excellence awards strive to showcase these women's multifaceted and invaluable roles in shaping the Pensacola community.

The glamorous and inspiring atmosphere will bring together a diverse audience to witness the recognition of these remarkable individuals. Through this initiative, the National Coalition of 100 Black Women Inc., Pensacola Chapter, aims to foster a sense of pride and unity within the community while shedding light on the often overlooked achievements of black women.

Overall, the Women of Excellence Gala and Silent Auction serves as a moment to celebrate individual accomplishments and as a collective effort to uplift the entire community by acknowledging the invaluable contributions of black women in the Pensacola area.
