2nd Collections

The 2nd collection this weekend (Oct 12-13) is for Hope for the Future: Tuition Assistance.

Next weekend (Oct 19-20) the 2nd collection is for World Mission Sunday. This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is rooted in the Gospel of Matthew: "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," reflecting the inclusive and urgent call to bring God's love to everyone. Join us in this universal mission to spread the Gospel and invite all to experience the joy of Christ's message!

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME -The word of God is living and effective. (Hebrews 4:12)

What are you looking for when you read the Bible? Information about God? Guidance for your life? There's another reason, and it may be the most important of all. We can read the Scriptures so that they can read us. We can experience them as the "living and effective" word of God that can expose the motives of our hearts and bring us healing and restoration (Hebrews 4:12).

Today's Gospel shows us this process in real time. A wealthy young man asks Jesus how he can be pleasing to God. In response, Jesus gives him information and guidance by recounting the Ten Commandments. But the man senses that something is still missing, and he tells Jesus as much. I already do all of this; why am I still unsatisfied? This fellow may not see it, but he is asking Jesus to "read" him and tell him what he sees. "Looking at him" with great love, Jesus does just that. It's as if he holds up a mirror to the man so that he can see that he is too attached to his wealth. He tells the man that if he sells his possessions and gives to the poor, he will finally find the "treasure" he is seeking. Unfortunately, the man cannot accept what he sees, so he goes away "sad" (Mark 10:21, 22).

None of us has to "go away sad" when we experience Jesus "reading" our hearts through the Scriptures. We can remember how Jesus looked at the man and know that that's how he looks at all of us: with love! That means that you can hold fast to that love when his word uncovers the hidden "reflections and thoughts" in you (Hebrews 4:12). You can gaze into his eyes and see that he has nothing but good and hope-filled plans for you! This is why the word of God is both living and effective. It's living because it is capable of reading our hearts. And it's effective because Jesus always speaks this word to us with love. "Here I am, Lord! Let your word pierce me and draw me closer to you!"

KEYS – We are taking an inventory of all keys for the Church, Rectory, Convent, Event Center (Diner) CCD Building, and all Storage and Pit area keys. Please stop by or call the church office during office hours if you have any keys. We are not asking you to return the keys. We are just taking inventory. Thank you!!

Assembly: Walking United in Christ - Saturday, October 26, 8 a.m.-3 p.m. St. Mary's University

Join us for the Assembly as we celebrate the 150th anniversary of the establishment of the diocese of San Antonio in 1874! We will gather at St. Mary's University to celebrate this extraordinary and momentous occasion in the life of the local church! Be a part of this historic moment and celebrate a historic Mass with Apostolic Nuncio to the U.S., Cardinal Christophe Pierre, the Pope's representative, and the visiting bishops of Texas. Honor our history and envision our tomorrow through dynamic presentations illuminating the archdiocese. Explore an exhibition of treasured artifacts from the Archdiocesan archives. Enjoy free food and fellowship. Register for Free at <https://archsa.org/event/assembly-walking-united-in-christ/>
