GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

There's a place in every human heart that harbors the fear of rejection. This can affect our relationship with others as well as our relationship with God. In response, many of us develop coping strategies in an attempt to take control of our lives. When fear of rejection threatens our peace, return to today's Gospel. What does Jesus say? "I will not reject anyone who comes to me." Let's pause to read that line again: I will not reject anyone who comes to me. Allow that message to pierce your heart. Jesus will not reject you. Jesus will not fail you. He will not abandon you. In fact, he has prepared a place for you in his kingdom and is waiting for your response of love.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER. INVITATION. WITNESS. ACCOMPANIMENT

departed on this sacred feast of All Souls Day. Yes, we mourn the loss of those whom we loved who have died. Even as we mourn, we cling to hope as a community of believers, trusting that God has kept his promise to grant them eternal life. Indeed, as our first reading reminds us, "the souls of the just are in the hands of God. ... They are in peace." In addition to the treasure of canonized saints the Church gives us to admire and emulate, many of us could write a list of "saints" who have touched us in our own lives – those "who have gone before us with the sign of faith" (Eucharistic Prayer I). Think of them today, now. Call to mind their virtue and how they loved those they encountered, including you. Then, let their witness propel you on your own journey of faith.

REFLECT

Though we often associate death with sorrow and grief, for the faithful Catholic, it is also the way we enter eternal life. Heaven is the hoped-for reward of all our prayers, works, sufferings, and enjoyments. As she lay dying, St. Thérèse of Lisieux said to her fellow sisters, "I am not dying; I am entering into life." Still, it is not uncommon to grapple with fear of our own death (or the death of our living loved ones). If you find yourself facing this fear, invite Jesus to gently reveal the source of your anxieties, and ask him to flood those places of your heart and mind with his light and hope. And remember: Jesus will never reject anyone who comes to him.

ARCHDIOCESE OF SAN ANTONIO

SAVocations.org/Called-by-Name

The Archdiocese of San Antonio has launched CALLED BY NAME, a program to encourage vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Let us unite in prayer for an increase in vocations, and for God to call those He is calling to serve. Do you know a man or woman (18years old or older) who you believe has the potential to become a priest, sister, or brother? Please recommend them by completing a response card, which can be found in the church. Next weekend, place your completed card in the collection basket. More information: www.SAVocations.org/Called-by-Name

The Altar Society is giving away old electric roasters that are no longer being used. Please contact the office if you are interested in one. We will schedule a couple of days for pick up after a list has been compiled.

Convent Remodel Donation are appreciated. Please use the form found at the entrance of the church.

Praying with Hope by Deacon Tom Fox
PilgrimCenterOfHope.org

“God is merciful and will hear your prayers” - St. Padre Pio

People often hope to learn the most efficient way to pray. The most efficient way to pray is to trust that God has heard your prayer and will answer in a way that is best for our salvation and that of others.

Building a Strong Prayer Life

A good prayer life doesn't just happen; it is the result of a plan.

- Create a prayer space in your home.
- Have a special time every day to spend with God privately, at least 15-30 minutes to begin with. If possible, spend an hour in Eucharistic adoration at least once a week.
- Read the Gospel passage of the day, found in a missalette or at USCCB.org.
- Spend time in silence. Allow God to give you inspiration.
- Read about a saint to see how God works in the lives of those who love him.
- Pray together as husband and wife. This will bless your marriage.
- Pray with your children. This will teach them to pray and give them a sense of security.
- Ask for God's guidance when making decisions.
- Pray before everything you do. This develops a relationship with God and an awareness of his presence.
- Pray the Rosary, or at least part of the Rosary, every day. Mary is a powerful intercessor.

Pray at night and reflect on your day—strengths and weaknesses. This will help you make a good confession once a month.

Adult Confirmation - If you are 18 years or older, have already received Baptism and First Holy Communion in the Catholic Church, but have not yet been confirmed, now is the time to take this important step in your faith journey! The Archdiocese of San Antonio has scheduled confirmation Masses in 2025 and 2026 for adults who want to receive the sacrament. Contact the parish office to learn more about how to begin the process of sacramental preparation in your parish.

Holy Trinity Cemetery will once again host “Wreaths Across America” to honor all Veterans buried in our cemetery.

The event will be held on December 13th at 11:00 a.m. We will be available after mass on weekends of November 8th-23rd if you would like to purchase a wreath for your Veteran buried in our cemetery or just donate money for any of our Veterans. You may also drop off an envelope marked “WAA” at the church office between now and the ceremony. The wreaths are $17. each. Please make checks payable to Wreaths Across America (WAA). Please mark your calendar to attend this event and honor those who have fought for our freedom. High School students interested in earning some volunteer hours on December 6th are asked to stop at the table after masses as noted above.

NOTICE The Archdiocese of San Antonio issued a statement regarding the GoFundMe company creating over a million giving pages for nonprofits without the knowledge or consent of those nonprofits. We have identified an unauthorized page for St. Boniface church in Hobson. There could also be other unauthorized pages for surrounding parishes. We encourage you to use the traditional means of donating to the parish.

RightWay Imaging will be here Nov 15-16 to take a list of those interested in medical scans that will be conducted on Nov 25th.
