Sunday Church Support $3,761.

Hope for the Future $819. Thank you for your generosity!

There will be a 2nd Collection, this weekend, October 17-18, for World Mission Sunday.

The World Mission Sunday collection grants funds to mission dioceses, which help to underwrite the basic physical footprint that keeps missionary life going: where priests & sisters live, where children are catechized, and where Holy Mass can be celebrated. Part of the funds are used to help missionary dioceses run and survive, while the rest of the funds are used to build churches, seminaries, convents, and pastoral centers. In an average year, WMS helps to fund over 900 infrastructure-related projects for the Church!

Temporary Phone # is 830-549-1407. Please email the church at holytrinityfc@sbcglobal.net

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

A mentor once told me that there is no sweeter sound than that of one’s own name. It communicates that one is seen, known, and cared for. We read in Isaiah today that God has chosen Cyrus and has called him by name. In the Letter to the Thessalonians, Paul and his followers “give thanks to God always” for all in the community, knowing that each brother and sister is “loved by God” and “chosen.” And although these words are written about Cyrus and the Thessalonians, we trust that God speaks these words to us as well. We have each been chosen. Our Father calls each of us by name. It is sometimes difficult to believe that God desires me and chooses me individually. It is a love that I often fail to reciprocate, despite my desire to do so. But that does not diminish the love God has for me. I am not lost in the crowd of history and humanity. Each of us was created with love and rejoiced over by our heavenly Father.

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When Jesus is asked in today’s Gospel about the taxes due to Caesar, he does not falter with his response. We must live the truth of our faith in the world, but ultimately, what the world asks of us is not the same as what our Creator desires. Taxes are paid out of obligation, but God asks for our love. In using the talents God has given us in caring for our brothers and sisters, we acknowledge the fullness of the majesty and wonder of our Creator. We do not have to isolate ourselves from this world, but we must remember that we were not created for this world. We have already been chosen and claimed by our loving Father. And it is to him that we offer the gift of our heart, which is infinitely more valuable than coins.

REFLECT

In the Gospel of Matthew, Christ also says, “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” (6:21) In light of today’s Gospel, we must also consider whether our participation in society in any way prevents us from offering ourselves totally to God. Spend some time reflecting on what it is that you truly treasure. Do you reserve the offering of your heart for God? Or are you giving to the world what should be reserved for God?

Behold.

FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS - Anita Gabrysch has donated the floral arrangements this weekend in thanksgiving and for further blessings as she celebrates her 95th birthday. All Parishioners wish you much good health and happiness.

The Altar Society will lead the Patriotic Rosary Sunday, November 1st at 5pm. If you are not familiar with this rosary, now is the time to get acquainted with it. We pray for each branch of our government. We also pray for each state and all the people who live within that state on the Hail Mary beads. Our Country is desperately in need of prayers as we prepare for another election this November. Please join us and bring your family and friends.

Archbishop Gustavo invites you to the Centennial Mass Saturday, November 7, at Nelson W. Wolff Stadium. Gates open at 3 p.m., and Mass is at 4 p.m. The attendance is free, but they request you RSVP at AssemblySA.org for planning purposes. – There will be no Mass celebrated on Saturday Nov. 7th in the parish.

Why do Catholics have items blessed? Growing in Faith

Sacramentals are sacred signs instituted by the Church to praise God for His works and gifts and dedicate them to His service. While sacramentals take different forms, they involve the Church’s prayer and often a blessing of a person, place, event, or object according to an approved rite. For example, wedding rings are sacramentals; marriage is the Sacrament. The rings don’t make the marriage sacramental but remind and encourage spouses to live their vocation faithfully. Sacramentals deepen our devotion, support us on the path to salvation, and prepare our hearts to receive God’s grace.
