Time to start planning for the 2025 Picnic!

Raffle-If anyone would like to donate toward a raffle prize, please call or text Cheryl Stone at 210-415-9037.

Let the canning begin! Yes, we need "canned" items for the Country Store and Auction for our Church Picnic. This is the #1 request in the Country Store. So, if you have some spare vegetables or fruit, please don't let them go to waste. We need pickles, okra, jellies and whatever fits in a jar. "Can" them and bring them to our Church Picnic in September. Let's work together to make this picnic a huge success!

Pentecost Sunday

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:4)

Today's readings seem like a study in contrasts, don't they? In the first reading, St. Luke gives a dramatic account of today's feast of Pentecost: a rushing wind, mysterious tongues of flame, prophetic declarations, and a vast crowd hanging on Peter's every word. But in the Gospel, St. John paints a quieter, more intimate picture. He tells how Jesus appeared to the apostles privately on Easter, breathed his Spirit into them, and sent them out to forgive, just as his Father had sent him to forgive. So does the Spirit inspire great excitement and grand gestures, or quiet acts of mercy? Both. It's not a matter of either/or. When Jesus breathed the Spirit into the apostles, he showed them the reason for his death and resurrection: to win forgiveness for their sins and for the sins of all the world. Then when the Spirit came rushing into them on Pentecost, he filled them with the power to proclaim that mercy far and wide.

This is the key to our celebration today: we need to experience both the mercy and the power of the Holy Spirit. We need to know, intimately and personally, just how forgiving God is. We need to know that nothing, not even the greatest of sins, can overcome the love that he has for us. But we also need to experience the powerful rush of his Spirit filling us with confidence in God's love. That confidence can propel us into the world to share the good news with everyone we meet.

Today, more than any other day, is a great day to ask for a fresh new outpouring of the Spirit. Ask the Spirit to flood you with a personal encounter with God's mercy. Then ask the same Spirit to give you the courage to proclaim that mercy far and wide.

COME TO US, SPIRIT OF HOLINESS
*Holy Spirit, you banish fear from our hearts;
you bear witness in us that we are children of God;
we pray to you: Remove from our hearts the spirit of slaves;
place in us the spirit of adopted children to make us cry out, "Abba, Father!"*

Feasts & Celebrations

Growing in Faith

June is the month of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, wounded by our sins, yet blazing with divine love for us. We're encouraged to receive Holy Communion worthily and visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament.

This year the Feast falls on June 27th. Let us find time during this month to draw near to Jesus. "The prayer of the Church venerates and honors the Heart of Jesus just as it invokes his most holy name. It adores the incarnate Word and his Heart which, out of love for men, he allowed to be pierced by our sins." (CCC 2669)

Vacation Bible School - VBS Registration is now FULL! We are thrilled to announce that we have reached our MAXIMUM number of sign-ups for this year's Vacation Bible School. Thank you to all the families who registered— we are so excited to share the love of Jesus with your kids as we journey together to discover how He is our guiding light and our "True North!"

The Life and Miracles of Saint Anthony of Padua – June 13th

Saint Anthony of Padua was born in Lisbon, Portugal, in 1195. His baptismal name was Fernando. He grew up in a rich and noble family. From a young age, he showed a strong love for God and spent much time in prayer.

At 15, he joined the Augustinian Order. Later, he met some Franciscan friars and was inspired by their simple way of life. He joined the Franciscans and took the name Anthony. He wanted to preach and serve God.

Anthony became known for his powerful preaching and simple teachings. He used stories to explain the Bible so everyone could understand. He traveled to many places, sharing his faith and helping people.

Saint Anthony is famous for his many miracles. He once preached to fish when people would not listen. He also helped find lost items and brought a drowned boy back to life. People trusted him and prayed for his help.

He died in 1231 at the age of 36 in Padua, Italy. He was canonized one year later. His feast day is on June 13. Saint Anthony is the patron saint of lost items, the poor, and travelers. His legacy continues to inspire many. (young-catholics.com)
