Sunday Church Support $4,832.

There will be a 2nd Collection next weekend for Catholic Relief Services – American Bishop’s Overseas Appeal

Archbishop Gustavo invites us to join him in being Courageous in Christ by supporting the 2026 Archbishop’s Appeal for Ministries. Our parish goal is $9,847, & helps to feed the hungry, comfort the sick and imprisoned, form our young people in faith, and prepare future priests, deacons, and lay leaders, and more. This weekend, we are conducting an in-pew collection for the appeal. You may give by using the envelopes or by scanning the QR code found in the bulletin. Prayerfully consider supporting this important effort. Your gift, no matter the size, makes Christ’s love visible in powerful ways.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

As the Israelites wandered in the desert, Moses heard their cries and recognized their deeper need, not simply for water, but for hope. And so Moses calls upon the Lord, who gives them water in the desert, revealing his trustworthiness. In the big and little ways that we ask the same question - “Is the Lord in our midst or not?” - our loving and generous Father reminds us that he has not abandoned us and that his goodness will ultimately prevail. It’s easy to become disgruntled like the Israelites when there is great pain and suffering around us. But through the ways that we care for one another and the peace that we find in prayer, the Father reminds us that he stands with us, granting us sustenance and grace.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER. INVITATION. WITNESS. ACCOMPANIMENT

When Christ told the woman at the well that those who drink the water he gives will never thirst again, she thought he was offering literal water. Christ was instead revealing his own identity as the Son of God. This woman, who hears the words of Christ and knows God’s promise of a Messiah, is filled with hope as she comes to recognize that the Lord indeed was in her midst. And I find it interesting that when she told people in town of her encounter with Christ, she told them of how he saw the mistakes of her past. Jesus loved her, and called her to step into the fullness of who she could be by turning away from the past that she clung to. We live in a world where we have very real physical needs, like the Israelites who thirsted, and the need to be seen in love, like the Samaritan woman. Ultimately, at the core of both of these needs is the desire for the hope that only God can give. When we serve our neighbors and look upon others with love, we can also be the vessel through which the presence of God is made known.

WITNESS In our world, people are constantly asking the question, “Is the Lord in our midst or not?” Reflect on one way that you can share the Good News of the Gospel through word or action to make the presence of God known to those in your community.

The Church Office will be closed on Wednesday March 11th for a Management Review by the Archdiocese of San Antonio.

Return to Me with All Your Heart - An Examination of Conscience for Lent

Centuries ago, the prophet Joel called the people of Israel to return to the Lord through the gift of repentance. "Rend your hearts, not your garments," he pleaded (Joel 2:13). And when they did, God forgave them, welcomed them back into his presence, and opened the floodgates of his love and protection.

This Lent, God wants to open the floodgates for us as well. And so he asks us to return to him with all our hearts. He asks us to examine our hearts and bring to Confession anything we find that keeps us separated from him. He promises that as we do, he will wash away our sins. Even more, we'll encounter his merciful love and experience the gift of the Spirit filling our hearts with peace.

How can we prepare for this encounter? We could—and should—examine countless areas: Have I lied? What about that fight when I spoke harshly to my child? Have I been nursing a grudge against a coworker? But it might also be helpful to ask three key questions: Is there an area of my life where I stand opposed to God and his commands? Are there thoughts or deeds I am hiding from God?

Am I avoiding responsibility for any wrongs I have done to my neighbor? Return to the Lord. Confess your sins. His heart is open to you. His arms are open to you. Let him embrace you, forgive you, and fill you with his mercy. Reprinted with permission of The Word Among Us, 7115 Guilford Dr #100, Frederick, MD 21704 March 2026 wau.org, 301-874-1700
